PAN HINDU NATIONAL FLAG

Preface.

This book is primarily meant to serve as an authoritative text and a faithful guide to the propagandists, workers and leaders of the Hindu Mahasabha movement in particular and the Hindu public in general, enlightening the lines of practical application of the fundamental Ideology of the Hindu Sanghatan Movement to the various detailed questions and problems which face the Hindus to day.

Statements & messages

(1) The first part of this book contains chiefly the various Statements which Swatantrya Veer Savarkar had issued from time to time during his tenure of Office as the President of the Hindu Mahasabha covering the period from about the 1st of January, 1938 to the 1st of October, 1941.

Veer Savarkar's well-known work on 'Hindu Sanghatan' and 'Hindutva' have expounded with intuitive originality, political insight and clarity of thought and expression, the Ideology and fundamental principles which constitute the informing and inspiring sources of the Hindu Sanghatan movement. The Statements, Messages and such other casual writings of Yee-Sarkarji which comprise the first part of this book form in a way a sister volume to those two famous works the 'Hindu Sanghathan' and 'Hindutva'. These statements reveal to us how to apply that Hindu Ideology to all practical questions and problems which face Hindudom in its day-to-day National activities. Even a cursory glance at the Contents page of this book will convince the reader of the fact that from the Indian constitutional questions, electioneering campaigns, mass-movements like the Dham Civil Resistance Struggle, Hindu Moslem relations and also the Inter-National situation as viewed through the Hindu point of view the war aims, the census, the shikhs, the social, economical and cultural rights of the Hindus right down to the organizational details and local grievances of Hindus and details of the National life of Hindudom today which will serve in the main to guide the Hindu Nation for decades to come and if worked out by the Hindus in all its details and on the lines of action laid down, cannot fail to enable the Hindu Mahasabha to dominate the political field in India and to lay down a deep strong, broad-based foundation on which the Hindus can rear up an independent indivisible and invincible Hindu Nation from Indus to the Seas. This elaborately detailed out programme could not be more aptly summed up than in Veer Savarkar's own words: HINDUIS POLITICS AND MILITARIZE HINDUDOM.

One more point deserves to be noted in connection with these Statements and Messages. Statements are generally passing expressions on views on daily events and consequently secure but a casual notice of the readers. They exercise hardly if ever, a serious or abiding influence on the thought and literature of the people. But several of these Statements issued by Veer Savarkarji and which form the contents of this book constitute an exception to its rule. Some of them went forth like a clarion call resounding throughout India. Some of them arrested the attention of Nations even outside India in Europe and America. There are phrases and even words compressed with such sparkling eloquence and originality that they gave a decisive turn to the public thought at a stroke. Their compelling logic, the literary excellence and especially the bold and unerring vision have exploded a number of myths like the 'Two Majesties' in India or the 'Absolute Non-Violence' and 'non-Resistance' with which the narrowistic and confused conceptions of geographical patriotism and Pseudo-morality of the Garhwal school of thought had vitiated public mind to the great detriment of Hindus in particular and have thrown a flood of light on the Political chaos of that time and encouraged in mental darkness. On this whole they have left a high indelible stamp of thought and phrase on the public mind that they have already been incorporated permanently in the Hindu nationalist literature by poets, historians and leading personalities and placed as a permanent on the list of milestones of Hindu thought.

as self-evident' truths. Consequently, although they have been styled as casual Statements and Messages etc., yet they deserve a careful study on the part of public in general and the Hindus in particular as constituting an authoritative text illustrating the Hindu Sanghatanist Ideology in itself and in relation to all other Political schools of thought.

The Presidential Diary.

(II) The second part of this book contains a roughly outlined Diary of Veer Savarkar's tours, interviews and such other activities during the last four years of his Presidential tenure based on some notes and newspapers' cuttings framed into a Diary-form. The dates, details and the figures of the attendance at the meetings, processions etc noted in it may be, as happens in current reports in newspapers of such functions, some what inaccurate, a little exaggerated here and on the contrary a little underrated there. But apart from such a few casual exceptions, the reports on the whole reflect the information and attendance correctly and bear a faithful evidence to the fact that through these hurricane tours and mammoth meetings the President carried the Message of Hindu Sanghatan to millions upon millions of Hindue in person and roused and enthused whole provinces with a new Pan Hindu life and spirit bringing about a Mental Revolution in the Hindu World

Hindu Militarization Movement

The second point which should especially be noted in this Diary is the fact that Veer Savarkarji took up the cause of Hindu Militarization immediately after his release. The Government disarmed our Nation after the National Rising of 1857, while the fantastic fad of Absolute non-violence and non resistance which Gandhiji and under his influence the Congressite Hindus raised into a fetish killed the very desire to take up arms even if it was made possible to do so. The Government had only anathemised militarization politically, but this fetish of Absolute Ahimsa anathemntised military mentality itself even religiously. Only a few far-sighted and sturdy Hindu Patriots like Dr Moonje continued to swim against the tide here and there. But to Veer Savarkarji, the martial instincts and military efficiency of a Nation constituted the very breath of its life. Accordingly he addressed himself to the task of reviving the Military mentality among the Hindus immediately after his release in 1937. He led processions of thousands of youths demanding compulsory military training. In reply to hundreds of addresses which were presented to him by corporations, municipalities, boards, educational institutions throughout the country from Lahore to Madras and Sindh to Bengal, he never failed to emphasise the crying need of the hour of militarizing the manhood of the Hindu Nation once again. Hundreds of mammoth meetings were addressed by him exhorting the Hindus to join the armed forces in the Country by enlisting in thousands in the army, navy, the air-forces, the war-crafts factories etc. and to go through the baptismal of fire on live battle-fields. The Hindu public long stupified under the effects of the moral opiates of the Gandhistic cult of Absolute Ahimsa was startled all of a sudden as if by an electric shock. By Veer Savarkar's powerful counter blast which went resounding through the country that "Absolute Ahimsa is absolutely immoral, because anti-human" The logic with which he expounded this bold assertion was philosophically, historically and morally so convincing that millions of Hindus welcomed and embraced it as a revelation. Today the Hindu militarization movement forms the the foremost plank of the immediate programme of the Hindu Mahasabha platform and thousands of Hindu Sanghathanists have already taken to Military career with avidity. The Hindu is also found facing manfully aggressive anti-Hindu riots and resisting in exercise of the rights of self-defence all anti-Hindu attacks in defence of the Honour of the Pan Hindu Flag

The Social Reform movement

Another point which must be stressed here is that the movement for Social Reforms within the Hindu fold received no less attention from Veer Savarkar during these four years as will be seen from this rough sketch of his Diary. Wherever he went the first item on his programme had ever been a visit to the so-called Untouchable quarters wherein he mixed among them, dined with them exhorted in mammoth meetings the so-called touchable Hindu to uproot Untouchability. He upheld the right of every Hindu irrespective of caste or sect to equality of public rights and duties in all departments and aspects of our National life. He presided over large conferences and meetings of the so-called untouchables, as at Ferozpur, Delhi, Karachi, Poona, Nagpur, Monghyr and hundreds of other leading towns in almost all provinces in India he visited. As the foremost Hindu-Sanghathanist social Reformer of our times, he does not believe in the presumed inequality based on the accident of birth alone in a particular caste or sect or section. Consequently, he personally stands for doing away with all restrictions based on such superstitious differentiation alone as regards inter-dining inter-marriage, humiliating differentiations in religious rights etc and recognises merit wherever it is found. Without involving the 'Hindu' Mahasabha organization into social and religious activities not guaranteed by its constitutional limits Veer Savarkarji has, in his personal capacity, organized, attended & participated in hundreds of Pan-Hindu dinners through his tours in which thousands of Hindus publicly dined together, touchables and untouchables, without any distinction of caste or

Sabhauts have fought and in several cases won 10 the teeth of Congressite and League opposition during the last four years in spite of the utmost paucity of means at his disposal to aid him

Grateful Recognition 'by Hindudom

The very grateful recognition of this monumental service he has rendered to the Hindu cause which led the Hindu Sanghastanist world to offer him the Presidential Honour four times in unbroken succession in spite of his pressing resignations on account of failing health and added to the fact that in spite of the latter fact he continued to discharge his onerous duties in compliance with the pressing request of his comrades cannot fail in itself to be the most eloquent testimony to the intensity and effectiveness of this whirlwind propaganda.

Hindudom has already offered, in electing Veer Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha for four times in unbroken succession, the highest Honour it has at its disposal at present. But it is still a crown of thorns. May he be spared to us till it gets transformed into a Crown of Triumph for Hindndom!

Extracts from the Diary of Barrister V D Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha regarding his Propagandistic Tours and Important Interviews, From 1-12-1937 to 1-10-1941

Immediate Programme of the Hindu-Mahasabha.

HINDU MILITARIZATION.

“ In pursuance of the resolution on ‘ Immediate Programme,’ passed at Madura by the Hindu Mahasabha and reaffirmed by the All India Committee at Calcutta, it is encouraging to note that the ‘ Hindu Militarization movement’ is being carried on effectively by the Hindu Sanghatanists throughout India. Several outstanding leaders of the Mahasabha are carrying on an intellectual campaign through press and platform to fan up the martial spirit in the Hindu Race which lay dormant and suppressed for want of opportunity and encouragement. The heroic Goorkhas, Sikhs, Jats, Rajputs, Maratha’s have joined the army in their thousands while the demand of the Hindu Mahasabha for doing away the humiliating distinction of ‘ Listed and non-listed ’ classes and castes being conceded under the pressure of war-exigency by the Government. Hindus of all castes and classes are also joining the Forces from almost all provinces in an ever-increasing measure. Thousands are being trained in the different manufactories for ammunition, in ordnance factories, ship-yards and in several other war-crafts hundreds of -valorous- Hindu youths -have already secured King's Commissions and Viceroy's Commissions.

'This is all as it should be. The¹ beginning is well made. But I urge on all Hindunabhas and Hindu Sanghathanists throughout India to intensify their efforts yet more effectively and strenuously to utilise this unique opportunity to press on the movement for Militarising our Hindu Race and get it trained up to an up-to-date Military efficiency

- "There is no question of co-operating or no-co-operating with the British Government in their war-efforts. The only question that you have before you is, to find out how best you can turn this inevitable co-operation with the British as profitable to your own Country as it is possible under our present circumstances to do.

¹ Because let it not be forgotten that those who fancy that they can claim of not having co-operated with the Government and helped the war-efforts either on account of the demoralising and hypo-

critical fad of absolute non-violence and non-resistance even in face of an armed aggression or as a matter of policy simply because they do not join the fighting forces, are but indulging in self-deception and self-complacency. They pay taxes, serve in the Railway, postal, legal and even police departments and are openly out to pool up as much profit as they can in supplying directly to the Military departments clothing, blankets, food and all other articles. Thus they too provide the Government with the very sinews of war. For all practical purposes they too cannot but co-operate with British Government with this only difference that their policy of boy-cotting the army deprive the nation of the only outstanding benefit it could have received in return for this inevitable co-operation

“But if we Hindusabhaits utilise this opportunity to the largest measure possible by extending a military co-operation with the British Government in a responsive spirit and measure we shall do a double service to Hindūdōm The first being that we shall be able to defend our own country, hearths and homes, if we are actually attacked by alien

Forces from outside or by an internal anti-Hindn anarchy secondly in addition to this immediate benefit we shall be able to press on the Hindu Militarization movement to such an extent as to secure permanently a dominant position for the Hindus in the Indian army, navy and airforces wherein today the Moslems are almost monopolising and the Hindn element is woefully sub-ordinated as a result of the criminal negligence towards and even a downright condemnation of military life which the Congress under the Gandhist lead had been guilty of

“Under the present circumstances therefore of all policies to press on the cause of Hindu Militarization is the best and the most farsighted policy we can adopt. Let the Hindus therefore come forward now and enter the army, the navy and the air forces, the ordnance and other war-crafts factories in their thousands and millions. Let them cross the seas to give fight and to pass through the baptism of fire in all the world theatres of war, learn to use the latest weapons the world knows of and measure their swords with the bravest races of the world of today This cannot but liberalise the social outlook of the Hindu Race, get rid materially of present economical un-employment, give a fillip to industrialization, render the Hindu Military-minded-spirited and valorous and secure and stabilise the Hindu strength in Indian Military Forces of all arms. The latest developments and the war situation on the Western and Eastern fronts make it inevitable for the British Government to depend on India's man power in an ever increasing measure. An Indian army wherein millions of Hindus occupy the dominant position which their population proportion entitles them to do must prove the most effective factor not only to defend our Country in this present juncture but also to further the cause of the political emancipation too of our Mother Land in the long run.

“To deal with the difficulties and the grievances which the Hindu recruits to the Army find from time to time, a Central Northern Hindu Militarization Board has been formed by the Hindu Mahasabha at Delhi with Mr. Ganpat Rai, B A , LL B Advocate, 51, Panchkuin Road, New Delhi, as convenor A Central Southern Hindu Militarization Board is also formed under the Chairmanship of Mr L. B. Bhopatkar, M. A., LL. B., President Maharashtra Provincial 'Hindusabha, Sadashiv Peth Poona. All complaints or applications for information etc. should be addressed by those Hindus who want to enter the Forces or have already enlisted themselves in them, to the above addresses Sir Jwala Prasad Shrivastav; Barrister Jannodasji Mehta, Bombay, Mr V. V. Kalikar, M. L. C., Nagpur and other members on the National Defence Council or the Advisory War Committee will certainly try their best to get these difficulties removed so far as possible when they are forwarded by these Militarization Boards on to them.

"One point however must be noted in this connection as emphatically as possible in our own interest that those Hindus who join the Indian Forces should be perfectly amenable and obedient to the Military discipline and order which may prevail there provided always that the latter do not deliberately aim to humiliate Hindu Honour."

DEER SAVARKAR'S

STATEMENTS & MESSAGES.

Statement regarding the release of 'Chatto' & other revolutionary exiles

"I wish to draw pointed attention of the Indian public to the fact that the news, first reported by the Socialist News Service, to the effect that a number of Indians including the famous Indian political exile Mr Chattopadhyaya is put under arrest and held in detention without trial by the Russian Government, is too serious, to be passed over in silence. It is clear from whatever we know about the persecutions and prosecutions in that Soviet republic that the fate of such Political prisoners or suspects there, is not a whit better in Stalinist regime today than it was in the Czarist regime in days gone by. It should be a disgraceful act of ingratitude if we fail to do all that lies in our power to get this news ascertained and if it turns out true then to render all possible help to these our countrymen there by bringing Governmental pressure and the moral force of public opinion to bear on the Russian Government so as to secure a fair trial in an open court of Justice and spare them from the torturous underhand devices of the Police to extract confessions to order. Let not our Provincial Ministries and the Members of the Central Government, forget that responsibility of doing this lies mainly on them. For, they owe, in no small measure, their present positions and whatever political progress we have been able to register to the life-long struggle which these exiles have been carrying on and the untold sufferings and sacrifices they have faced in the cause of freedom of our Motherland ever since the days of 1905 A D. Their means may not be ours today but their sterling Patriotism and their contribution to our National cause in sacrifice and in effect have to be recognised and gratefully remembered. The Civil Liberty League also must take up this question. Indian Representatives in Legislatures in India and in the League of Nations as well must demand authoritative information. The British Government also ought to bestir itself and see that all legal assistance is provided for and every facility of defence is given to those Indians in detention. Had they been Englishmen could the Government had been so apathetic?

Or is there something at the root of it all worse? The Soviet republic which professed to lead the Anti-Imperialist front all over the world did not hesitate to eat the humble pie and enter into commercial alliance with the British, the biggest Imperial power in the world, a few years ago, and agreed to put a stop to all Indian Political propaganda in Russia.

Now, is this wholesale arrest of old Indian Revolutionaries and refugees in Russia another bid on the part of the Soviet to placate the British Government still further? If the British Government fails to demand openly all the information as to the charges against these our Indian exiles and see that they are not illegally harassed and render all legal help to them. This suspicion that some underhand machinations between the British and the Russian Government may be at the root of these startling arrests cannot fail to raise its head in public-mind in India".

An Appeal To The Hindu Voters of Faizabad Hindus of Faizabad constituency

I am glad to learn that the U. P. Hindu Maha Sabha has decided to support Dr. Surajpal Singhaji as the Hindu Candidate for the election to the Provincial Legislature on behalf of your constituency I call upon every Hindu voter to vote for the Hindu Mahila Sabha candidate only who has openly pledged to guard Hindu interest in the Council and cannot but be faithful to the National interest too. For, true interest of the Hindus who formed majority in the Indian Nation have ever been perfectly consistent with the tenets of Indian Nationalism as well. There is a false notion abroad that it is something nonnational, something mean in supporting a candidate who does not stand with a Congress ticket. But this notion is utterly misleading, mischievous and is responsible for the incalculable harm that is being done to the Hindu interest all over the country. Every party and community has a right constitutional and moral, to nominate and support its own candidate. The Moslems have got a Moslem electorate to protect their special interest and community. The Christians have got theirs and similarly in order to protect the special interest of the Hindus the present constitution has provided a Hindu electorate though it is absurdly called a General one. Under such circumstances so long as the other electorates have a right to put forward their own communal candidate it is perfectly legitimate national and imperative for the Hindu

to put forward Hindu candidates charging them to guard the rights, life and property of the Hindus against any aggression. The Hindu Maha Sabha being the only organised all India Hindu Institution, it is its duty to see that Hindu interest does not suffer by any default in exercising this most essential right of sending such Hindu representatives to the Legislature on behalf of the Hindu Community as are bounden by their election pledges to advocate the Hindu cause as plainly, publicly and boldly as possible

But the Hindu electorate in your Province as well as in some other ones committed a serious mistake in the last election of returning representatives who stood on the Congress ticket and being bound by the Congress discipline could not discharge their duty of protecting the Political or Social interest of the Hindus even when they were perfectly just and legitimate from the National point of view. Many of them were ashamed to own themselves in the public as representatives of the Hindu Community alone, which in fact had elected them and some of whom openly proclaimed that they were not Hindus at all- that it was Antinational to call oneself a Hindu We have no quarrels with them if they honestly feel it a disgrace to own themselves as Hindus. But all that we Hindus must tell them in such a case as that is "If you are not a Hindu or think it antinational communal and mean to own yourselves as the representative of the Hindu people—why do you kneel down before the Hindu Electorate as a Hindu Candidate as soon as the season of election sets in? We do not want to vote for one who is a Hindu only on a season ticket for the election day only. We who are not ashamed of owning our Hindu Race take pride in Hindu culture and our National identity as Hindu will vote only for him who pledges himself to represent us in our own name and guard Hindu interest against the aggressions of all non Hindu elements whether from inside the country or outside and continue to fight for the political emancipation of Hindustan, our Mother Land and our Holy Land from any alien domination. The Candidate whom Hindus ought to elect must not only be a true Nationalist but a staunch Hindu Nationalist as well. For the true Hindu is to himself a Hindu who cannot but be a true Indian Nationalist as well."

But our Hindu people failed to take this precaution at the time of the last election. The result was that, while the Moslem electoral body took good care to return only those Moslems who were bold enough to champion the Moslem cause even when its demands and claims were anti-national and outrageous in the extreme, the Hindu electorate returned the Congress candidates, that is, precisely those people who were openly maintaining that to pay any attention to the grievances, hopes and aspirations of the Hindus as a community even when they were just and legitimate was something below the dignity of a Congresswalla and did not hesitate to anathemise the Hindu Sabha and those who openly advocated the cause of the Hindus and tried to save their life, property and honour against the onslaught of the Moslem Gundas and the Moslem Community as a whole in the riots and the organised orgies against the Hindus that took place from time to time from the Frontier in the North right to Malabar in the South as rank communalists and anti-nationalists.

This serious mistake of the Hindus amounted to nothing short of a political suicide. Look at the Moslem Ministers in Punjab and Bengal for example. They are openly advocating the cause of the Moslem community; say that they are there as servants of the Moslems threatening the Hindus in those Provinces even with a "Satana" inflicting Urdu on the Hindus and doing everything possible to advance and strengthen the Moslem position

India without even mentioning an exception even on economical grounds. When the Hindu Maha Sabha maintained that reformed Council must be worked out with a view to continue further the fight for freedom the Congress dubbed that act as "Haram" and said they would never take the oath of allegiance to an alien Government. But now those very men have sworn full throated allegiance under the same oath are begging to that Hindu electorate to send them to those very Councils and are sticking to their offices as ministers like so many leeches. While the Hindu Maha Sabha condemns the Communal Award as not only anti-Hindu but anti-national the Congress committed the National crime of first conniving at it and now of wellnigh accepting it as a settled fact, if their Moslem boss be pleased thereby. Hundreds of Hindus in U P had to face imminent danger to their life and property by the threatening Moslem mobs. But the U P Government during the recent riots did not give them the protection which they could have easily given by dealing severely with the Moslem fanatics and leaders when they went on inciting the Moslems to rise against the Hindus. In U P the Moslems though they do not constitute even fourteen percent in the population have already secured services in different depart ments rising in some cases to more than fifty percent. The Congress Ministry knows this all very well, knows the Hindus are going abegging for want of employment but they are doing nothing to remove any such grievances under which the Hindus are groaning for the fear that if they do so they will be called representatives of Hindus alone, will be accused of advocating a Hindu cause and advocating the Hindu cause is in the Congress vocabulary tantamount to a pleading guilty to an anti-national act.

"The only remedy to root-out all this mischief lies in relieving these Congress minded gentlemen from the responsibility of representing the Hindu Community, and the Hindu Electorate and leave them free to act as Nationalists whatever that may mean and to elect only those who would act plainly, publicly and boldly as advocates of the Hindu cause, representatives of the Hindu community in particular and in the main owing to the simple fact that they have been elected by the Hindu voters as Hindus.

The Congress candidate in your constituency may be, for all I know a respectable gentleman. There are persons in the Congress who are respectable patriots. The Congress, itself as an institution is a national asset. But we are not dealing here with persons. As there are some patriots in the Congress there are patriots who have sacrificed their all to all for the freedom of our motherland in the ranks of the Hindu Maha Sabha, also. Here the chief question is that of the present policy of these national institutions. The present policy of the Congress is entirely anti-national in as much as it is encouraging the Moslems to be more and more communal, fanatical and over bearing and is downright anti-Hindu trampling under feet even the most legitimate and National claims and interests of the Hindus and therefore it is a first and foremost duty of every Hindu Voter who is proud of his race, religion, culture and Nation to vote only for the Maha Sabha candidate who pledges to act not only as a staunch Nationalist but in addition to it as a staunch and fearless advocate of the Hindus whose votes send him to the Legislature as their special representative.

It is false to say that the Hindu Maha Sabha represents the interest of the moneyed class only. It is the Congress on the contrary which is fattened and fed by the millions contributed to it by Millionaires and millowners and the plutocrats in the land If the Jamindars are Hindus the tenants and peasants and workers in our Land are Hindus too. The Hindu Maha Sabha is open to all Hindus whatsoever and is bound to see that the interest of the peasants and tenants and workers are equally attended to and safeguarded even if he tries to discharge his duty under a false notion of pseudo-nationalism; but if a Hindu candidate on Hindu Maha Sabha ticket is elected he will side with the Congress in any act which is truly national but in addition to that will be fearlessly advocating all legitimate interest of the Hindu community as well. He will always stand by the principle that Swarajya for which the Hindus alone have fought for and will continue to fight for means a Rajya in which the Swatwa of the Hindus that is the Hindutwa of the Hindus lies safe and Hindu honour is maintained unsullied and no non-Hindu community is allowed to dominate over the Hindus even though they deserve to get in the proportion to their strength of population if but they join in the National fight and if they owe true loyalty to the National cause.

In the end I call upon the Hindu electorate of Faizabad and Ayodhya to remember that the responsibility of returning a Hindu Candidate who is open advocate of Hindudom and Hindu honour lies on their fate who is an open advocate of Hindndom and Hindu honour lies on their shoulders more than on any Hindu Electorate as they belong to that sacred portion of India which has been sanctified in the eyes of Hindndom as a whole as the Land where Ramchandra was born and ruled and fervently hope that they will vote for Dr Surajmalji who represents the Hindu Maha Sabha.

A word more to the Hindn Sabhaists in U P That even if their efforts in returning the Hindu Maha Sabha candidate in the Faizabad constituency proves abortive this time they should not loose courage but should press on in fighting out every election against the Congress candidates in future also as doggedly as they are doing in this case and I have no doubt in my mind that they shall succeed before long in capturing the Councils and installing a real Hindu Ministry in their Province. It is the Hindn electorate that has made Congress powerful in U P But as the Congress has betrayed Hindu interests now it will again be the Hindu electorate who will and can pull down any anti-Hindn Government and reinstate a truly Hindn Ministry who will not hesitate to raise the Hindu in U P to be the paramount power in the Land which they as the major community there deserve of right to be

HINDUS & THE MUSLIM DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE BILL

'I feel it my duty to voice forth' the opinion of the Hindu Public in general as evinced in a number of resolutions passed at their meetings and institutions throughout the country and enter in a strong protest against the bill titled "Moslem Dissolution of Marriage Bill and introduced in the Central Legislature by Mr. Kazimi The bill is detrimental to the interests of the Nation in general and Hindu Society in particular:

(1) It is detrimental to the Hindus in more than one ways firstly it is an unwarranted encroachment by a non-Hindu member on the personal Law of the Hindus. Secondly, although the bill professes to enable Moslem women to secure a divorce and thus liberate them from the shackles which hold them bound to a Marital tie against their free will according to the present Mohamedan Law and practice still, inconsistently enough it seeks to chain them down to share the bed and board of a Moslem husband whom they may hate and wish to provided that, the presiding officer of that court is a Moslem." And again "appeals from the decision of the trying courts, shall lie to the High court and shall be heard and decided by a Moslem judge of that court"

Now, this innovation is bound to be detrimental to the unity and cohesion of the National state, as the attempt amounts to nothing short of introducing the communal virus even in the judicial administration of the state. Are we to have as many courts as there are creeds and religions in the land?—each competent only to try the cases of those to whose creed or religion the trying judge belongs? The distrust that the bill shows towards non Moslem judges amounts to a covered condemnation against that class who have ever been known to deal even handed justice without any distinction of creed or religion."

For these and other objections against this bill it is the duty of every Nationalist member in general and Hindus and Christians in particular to oppose it as it stands. Even in the interest of civil liberty alone, the bill also ought to be condemned by every member who is a free thinker and follows no religious persuasion

Hindu Mahasabha & the So-called

Hindu Mahasabha & the So-called Untouchables.

[The following reply was sent by Br. Savarkar to the President of the Charmakar Conference held recently in Sangola (Sholapur) who had forwarded the following resolution of the Conference to him as a President of the Hindu Maha Sabha. The resolution ran thus: "As the Hindu Mahasabha is doing nothing for the uplift of the Harijans, this conference requests Br. Savarkar the redoubtable champion of Liberty and the Hindu Mahasabha to undertake the solid work of removal of untouchability, consistently with the Sabha's ideal"]

The reply by Br. Savarkar President Hindu Mahasabha was to the following effect:—

"Your letter of 27th June 1938, duly received by Br. Savarkar. He was glad to see that the Charmakar Conference was held and with success.

He read the resolution that you sent to him for his information. But the resolution in question was adopted either through the ignorance of our unmindfulness of the work done by the Hindu Mahasabha in general, and all the Hindu Mahasabha workers in particular from the very beginning. The amelioration of the condition of the so-called untouchables is one of the main planks of the Mahasabha movements and it is incorporated in the very object of the Mahasabha constitution. Lala Lajpatrai, Swami Shuddhānand, Bhai Paramanand, Pandit Anandpriyaji, Babu Padma-rajajee Jain, Chandraji Sharda, Br. Savarkar are few of the many leaders of Hindu Sabha who have worked and are working strenuously for the Poorvaprishyas.

The Hindu Sabha branches of Punjab, Delhi, Rajaputana, Baroda, Bengal, C.P., Ratnagiri and many others have done for the untouchables at least as much as any of the 'untouchables' institutions or their leaders, if not more.

He strongly protests against the sense and letter of the resolution which is illconceived and absolutely wrongly put. The Hindu Mahasabha and its leaders have not only conceived but actually began to work for the removal of untouchability long before the Congress and its head Gandhiji understood it.

Br. Savarkar, President of the Mahasabha even after he became the President of Mahasabha addressed three or four hundred meetings throughout Hindusthan and exhorted not less than one hundred thousand people to remove untouchability and as a piece of public demonstration to prove how he personally held all Hindoos equal, made untouchable leaders in almost every meeting to offer him water or food and participated of it in the presence of all. He visited not less than a hundred habitations of untouchables and was received by them in public meetings, had organised not less than one thousand men of whom five hundred invited untouchables participated in the anti-caste dinner last May. Even the intercaste marriages between touchables and untouchables received his public support for example in the case of the Kolhapur inter-caste marriage.

Mr. Anant Hari Gadre who is a leading worker in the Mahasabha had started the Zunka Bhakar Sangh and you know what far reaching efforts it had in removing not only the untouchability but even the caste barriers so far as inter-dining was concerned.

I am sending by separate book post two books of the reports of the Ratnagiri Hindu Sabha. There in the contents I have marked with the red pencil the portions and paragraphs dealing with Sabha's efforts in removing untouchability and the success with which they were crowned. You will see in that, that the first awakening among the Charmakars in the district was due to the efforts of this Hindu Sabha and its leaders had visited almost every big Maharwada, Chamarwada and Bhangiwada long before any Charmakar leaders had done so. Mr. Kajrolkar, the Bombay leader as well as Mr. Rajbhoja know this very well but as you are not expected to know the facts, you are requested to go through those portions and paragraphs of these Ratnagiri reports without fail. The fact as all these details will show is that these leaders of the Hindu Mahasabha from Lala Lajpat Rai and others have taken up the work in hand and on a large scale long before the Congress or Gandhiji stepped into that field.

It is hoped that in view of this fact the Charmakar conference should feel itself duty-bound to recognise the work that the Mahasabha has done through its leaders and branches at any rate in its next Session if not for any expression of gratitude still at least out of regard for truth and in justice to that great institution—the Mahasabha. It does not expect any thanks as whatever it has done it was dutybound to do. But to disown or forget altogether what it has done actually is hardly an honest affair. After recognising it your conference will of course be justified in expecting that the Mahasabha should do still more work in this direction. 28-6-38

HINDU MAHASABHA & THE HINDU STATES

“In order to remove misunderstanding that seems to have grown in some quarters I want to make it clear that the Hindu Mahasabha had deputed none to work on its behalf at Sikar or at any other place and meddle in or take sides in the unfortunate internecine struggle that is going on between the Sikar and Jāypur states. The policy of the Hindu Mahasabha has ever been of goodwill to all Hindu states and the people therein for their well being and patriotic progress and of non intervention so far as their internal affairs are concerned except when the interests of Hindudom as a whole are affected by some perverse anti-Hindu activity.

Now that, His Highness, the Maharaja of Jaypur, has come home and will soon be in a position to pay personal attention to the affair, the Mahasabha hopes that the unfortunate situation which is ruinous to the interest of both the Hindu states involved will be improved forthwith and regrettable excesses are promptly investigated into; the offenders called to book and the difference with the 'Rao Raja' are settled in as generous and just a way as possible.

MAHASABHA'S ATTITUDE TOWARDS FEDERATION

"In order to avoid any mis-understanding arising out of the short reply made by the Under-Secretary of State for India in the Parliamt as reported in the "Times" of Bombay dated 8-3-38 I, as the President of the Hindu Mahasabha feel it necessary to restate the attitude of that body towards the question of the Federation scheme of India Act 1935 A. D. is inadequate, halting and extremely disappointing in as much as it hands over no real and effective political power to the representatives of the people especially in the military and the Foreign department of the State.

Yet, in as much as it has the saving grace of introducing the Federal principle in the constitution of this country which is bound to accentuate their pace towards the realization of national unification of the two great divisions of this country by binding together the Indian States and the parts under the British occupation into an organized and corporate whole, however loosely it may be to begin with and refuses to extend the curse of communal award to the states at any rate; the Mahasabhaits declare that they are not going to boycott it in case it is speedily introduced even in its present form but are resolved to use whatever point of vantage it is capable of affording to them to strengthen their position and to press on their march towards the ultimate and absolute capture of the legislature and the Government by the representatives of our Indian Nation."

THE SUPREMACY OF THE HINDU RELIGION
 BY L. K. KHANNA, B.A., LL.B., ADVOCATE, KARNAVATI, (AHMADABAD).

"No words can adequately express the sense of indignation with which Hindu Sanghatanist all over India have received the news that Mr Khanna, the indomitable Hindu Missionary, has been stabbed by a Moslem fanatic at Karnavati, (Ahmadabad), for no other reason than that he had worked hard to make the session of the Hindu Mahasabha so successful in that city last year. If any section among the Moslems still hopes to 'overawe' the Hindu Sanghatanist in this wise, it will soon find that such outrageous acts can but render the success of the Hindu Sanghatan movement all the more inevitable. If the Moslem Zealots have not learnt this lesson from the fate of Aurangzeb in the past they shall have to learn it over again in near future."

Mr Khanna has indeed acted up to his duty as an ideal Hindu Missionary in advocating and serving the cause of Hindu Sanghata even at the risk of his life. Will this latest outrage at least, committed by Moslem fanaticism and this shedding of the innocent blood of Hindu Missionary before their very eyes, arouse our Hindu-Gujarathi from the criminal apathy towards the Hindu Sanghathan movement, which she as a Province, has yet been guilty of ?

BURMEE MOSLEM RIOTS IN RANGOON 1930

"While deploring the recent riots in Rangoon in general and the consequent loss of life and property, I assure our Buddhist co-religionists in Burma on behalf of the Hindu Mahasabha that all Sanghathanist Hindus in India share their indignation at the calumnious attacks indulged in by Moslem pamphleteers against the life and teaching of Lord Buddha. I take this opportunity to exhort our Buddhist brethren in Burma to guard themselves against the systematic Moslem proselytisation in that land which is being conducted secretly and openly by Moslem organizations. His Highness the Agakhan who is reported to have sent a message full of platitudes posing to play the part of a peace-maker is himself the head of a Sect named "Guptis" i. e. "covert converts" which is slyly spreading Islam in Burma as elsewhere. The second danger to be guarded against is the alarming increase in the number of Burmese girls who unwittingly associate or marry Moslems but whose progeny is then systematically and legally claimed by and converted to Mahomedanism and brought up in anti-Buddhist spirit. This process if allowed to go on unchecked will soon break up the Racial, Religious and Cultural homogeneity of the Burmese Nation and divide it as happened in the case of India and mainly through the same process into two antagonistic camps as Moslem Burma and Buddhist Burma. It is high time that our Buddhist coreligionists wake up to the seriousness of this danger and put a stop by all legitimate means to this slow penetration of Islam and the alarming increase of the indigenous Moslem population in that land which slow process spelled slow death in the cause of so many other Buddhist and non-Moslem Nations in Asia.

Consequently the Sanghathanist Hindus in India dissociate themselves from the merely mouthed statements issued by Gandhiji and other Congress leaders in so far as they have timidly shunned to locate the guilt of and the provocation to the recent riots on Moslem fanaticism.

I exhort the Hindus in Burma to side with our Burmees coreligionists and sympathise with their National aspirations and not to have anything to do with Moslem fanatics refusing to get mis-led under the deceptive slogan "Indians unite". Nor should our Buddhistic brethren in Burma fail in the heat of the moment to distinguish a friend from a foe, and accord to the Hindu citizens there just and fair treatment guarding their legitimate interest in so far as they do not endanger the peace and prosperity of the Burmees Nation. The Hindus whose interests are Religiously, Culturally and Politically allied with the interest of Burma cannot fail to side with their Burmese Buddhistic sister-Nation against any aggrandisement by a non-Hindu adversary.

ARMS LICENCE

"I am enclosing herewith a copy of the grant of arms Licence issued by the Government of the Central Provinces and Berar under the instructions of the Rt. Honourable Dr Khare the former Prime Minister to the C. P. Government which lays down the terms under in which such a Licence could be issued to Schools and Colleges on application even under the present Arms Act.

The Craddock High School, Wardha had applied for this Arms Licence with an intention to start a Rifle Club in order to train boys in the art of shooting, drilling, and military regimentation and they got this Licence and have already started a Rifle Class in which youths are showing a very living interest.

I request you that your School or College also should apply to the Provincial Government citing the case of Wardha High School and press for Licence with a view to start a Rifle Class at an early date. All students in the School or College do not like nor can find vacancies or institutes to join the U. T. C. but it will be very easy for all students to join the Rifle Class as it requires no hard conditions nor does it demand much time. There is much interest evinced recently among the youths of this Country as regards to the advisability of including Military Training amongst the subjects compulsory for a School or College and it is a duty of a progressive College or School like yours to strike while the iron is hot and take a lead in this matter which under the present circumstances constitutes an indispensable requirement for the defence and the progress of our Nation.

Will you kindly let this office know what steps you mean to take in this direction and whether you are going to apply for the said Licence at an early date? You should also kindly let us know if you have a Rifle Class already opened in your College or School. If your application is not granted by the Provincial Government here then you should immediately let us know of the fact and reasons for the same advanced by the Government.

Hoping you apply as soon as you get this circular letter.

Grant of Arms Licence

CRADDOCK HIGH SCHOOL WARDHA.

The Government of the Central Provinces and Berar has approved of the grant to the Head-Master, Craddock High School, Wardha, of a Licence in form XV under rule 32 of the Indian Arms Rules 1924, for starting a shooting club to give selected pupils not below the age of 14 and teachers of the Craddock High School Wardha target practice on the following terms -

The Licence will cover the following Arms ammunition and area Arms - 6 Miniature rifles of 22 Bore. Ammunition - 1500 cartridges at a time.

Area - For Wardha town only 12000 cartridges for a year

Only teachers and pupils, not below the age of 14, of the School will be eligible to use the arms licensed

The licensed arms may be used only for target practice in a range to be approved by the District Magistrate, Wardha during the hours fixed by him

The rifles and the ammunition when not in use, will be kept in the police station house, Wardha. Only the teacher, authorised by the District Magistrate, shall take them from the place of safe custody to the approved range and he will be made responsible for their return to the place of safe custody.

Applications from other School authorities desiring to start similar shooting clubs in their schools will be considered by Government.

TRAINING

( A copy of the memorial to be submitted to the Provincial and Central Indian Governments and Legislatures )

Whereas it is a legitimate birth right of every citizen to bear Arms and be Militarily equipped in self defence against any armed aggression both individual and National,

And whereas every Nation in the world is looking upon the arming of its people and increasing its Military strength as a first and foremost duty of a State and the only effective guarantee of its National safety and independence,

We the undersigned citizens of India demand that the Provincial and Central Governments should introduce forthwith compulsory Military training in High Schools and Colleges, to found at-least one up-to-date Military College in every Presidency to train officers and ammend the Arms Act so as to bring it in a line with what obtains in Great Britain

Celebrate Bhai Paramand's 62nd Birth-day

I earnestly appeal to all Hindus to celebrate the 62nd birth-day of Bhai Parmanand and hasten to pay a debt of gratitude long over due with a feeling of affectionate reverence. Excepting Lala Lajpatraji the Land of the five rivers has not produced in modern History a nobler Indian Patriot a more devoted worker in the cause of the Political freedom of Hindusthan, our father Land and our holy land while in suffering and sacrifice none who could be compared with him. Many there be who join a great cause when it is victorious and paying few they are who join in the fight for it when chances of ultimate victory are not out of sight but scarcely one in a million is found who refuses to budge an inch and continues the fight for an ideal single handed and alone even when all is lost and all have either forsaken or betrayed a Ran Pratap at Chitore, Bhau Saheb Peshwa at Panipat ! It is they who are the standard bearers of a Nation, a Race, a Religion and it is when drenched in their blood that the Despair of a people is reborn as a Hope in the next generation. Their immediate defeat and death assure the life and victory of a Race. Of such a mettle as that is Parmanand fashioned.

The story of his life-long service, struggle and sacrifice in the cause of the regeneration of Hindudom is not restricted to one Field or one Country alone. As an Educationalist, a Political organizer and Aryasamajist Preacher he went round the world to enliven and rejuvenate the Hindus Colonies in far off Africa and Europe and America; as a Political Revolutionist striving to liberate Hindusthan from the Shackles of an Alien rule he was persecuted, prosecuted, exiled, condemned to death, transported to the Andamans, hunted, humiliated, hand cuffed, faced a fast unto death but faltered not nor forsook his faith like a Promethuous bound: Verily the story of his sufferings in the service of his people and his Contry is unending. And yet of all these public suffering the most excruciating and the most unbearable sufferings must have been, to a sensitive mind like his, the mean ingratitude and trecherous calumny of the very people whom he served as faithfully as that, who in a fit of folly and selfforgetfulness keep running after false Gods and cry him down. But he bears that too with a heart lacerated but with a constancy to his faith unshaken. Did not the Italians of his generation cry down Mazzini—the foremost maker of modern Italy? Nor did even Jesus fare better at the hands of his people while he lived. Well was the Christ said “they build sepulchres unto those whom their fathers stoned to death” and it may be—though he expects not that too, that the generations of Hindus to come will worship the memory of Bhai Parmanand as the faithful Champion of their cause when it was all but lost.

Had he betrayed the cause of Hindu Nationalism and the Hindu Maha Sabha and joined the board of self seekers and turn-coats he too, could have easily won the cheap applause of mobocracy all over India. But he had been true to the blood he inherits of the Martyr Matidas who was literally sawed to death by the Moslems for refusing to renounce his Hindu Faith. Bhai Parmanandji is one of the handful of those far sighted Indian Patriots and Statesmen who had the vision to discern that true Indian Nationalism could only be based on the

I hope it will not be out of place to draw your Highness' attention to another and a far more urgent necessity which in the interests of the defence of the individual citizens and the state and the nation as a whole must be forthwith met with? The Military training should be made compulsory in the High Schools in your State and citizens ought to be encouraged to start Rifle Clubs to train themselves in Military drill and discipline. The Bihar and the U P Governments have already taken up the matters and Dr Khare, the Ex-Minister in C P had also taken a bold step in that direction in allowing High Schools to introduce Military training.

I hope that Your Highness will effect this latter reform too before long in your State"

"Akai Bhunja' and the duty of the Hindus

"In as mach as our Sikh brothers at have made up their mind to defend the sanctity of the sacred place at the Gurudwara "Akal Takht Sahunja" and as it is but just to respect their sentiment in this case, I call upon the Sabhas and the Hindu Society in the Sindh to join hands with our Sikh friends in pressing the Karachi Municipality to plan out the proposed road in such a way as to leave the Gurudwara intact. Any inconvenience in the relatively unimportant matter of planning a road by changing its course or turning its line will be more than outweighed by the satisfaction that our Sikh brethren will have if the Gurudwara is left untouched. The Gurudwara is no doubt an ancient sacred place and as I have seen personally in question, I believe it is quite possible to plan the road without touching the Gurudwara. Here there is no question of any rivalry between Moslems and Hindus and it is bounden duty of a Municipality not to harm the sentiments based on such a just right of an important body of citizens. In many a case all over India, Moslem sentiments have been respected, in thousands of cases, we hope and press that the Karachi Municipality will see the wisdom of arriving at a satisfactory compromise with our Sikh brethren before it is too late and will not make it a question of full headed prestige.

In any case the Hindu Sabhais all over Sindh must stand by our Sikh co-religionists, in thick and thin and send batches of volunteers to help them in pressing their cause in all legitimate ways. The Maharashtra Community in Sindh must also join hands with the Sikhs and send forth at least a dozen volunteers to fight out the common cause with our Sikh brethren in order to express the sympathy of Maharashtra and represent the Maratha Hindu Sanghatanists. Instead of sending some men from Maharashtra it would be more convenient and economical if the Maratha community in Sindh represents Maharashtra there on the spot.

I hope under the lead of the veteran patriot and soldier Baba Madan Singhji our Sikh brethren will continue to maintain discipline and will in the end succeed in defending the sanctity of your sacred place at the Guradwara and I request the Municipality once again to arrive at an amicable compromise.

Hindu Maha Sabha and Shahid Ganj Agitation

Sir, Sikanḍar the Punjābī-Premier)*

"I feel it my duty to convey a sense of my appreciation to you regarding the attitude you have taken with respect to the bill demanding the restoration of Shahid Ganj to the Moslems and the boldness with which you have plainly expressed your readiness to stake resignation. The Hindu Mahasabha had advanced precisely the same reason in opposing any such attempts and pointed out to the dangerous consequences of setting at naught the act of limitation and adverse possession at the Karnavati (Ahmadabad) session last year, and warned that any such attempts would force the Hindus on a similar principal of "once a temple always a temple" to claim back their temples, too, converted into mosques in days gone by. It is wise for us all to bury the past and in future stand by the wise precept you have inunciated of affording protection to the minorities taking care that it does not encroach on the just and equal and legitimate rights of the major community. I wish you should have made it plainer by adding that this must hold good in case of Hindus as well as Moslems. In fact this is the very point on which the Hindū Maha Sabha takes its stand.

I hope His Excellency the Governor of Punjab will accept the advice your Ministry has tendered and disallow the introduction of the bill

One such practical act of rebuking sternly any anti-national and sectarian encroachment takes us further to mutual confidence and the realization of national unity than burning any amount of incense of "blank cheques" at its altar and thus putting a premium on communal trespasses.

Hindu Sangathanist & U P Government Circular

" I have noticed a press news reporting that the U P Government have issued a confidential circular to watch and ward against communalist incitement and have in their commendable zeal honoured me too as one of the undesirable Communalist, who are thus to be severely watched and chastised. Even if reliable, this news does not make much difference so far as I am personally concerned, by calling me by this new fangled name. The old British Bureaucratic Government used to watch me as "Undesirable Nationalist", the Congress Ministers mean now to watch me as an "Undesirable Communalist", but in as much as my "Nationalism" then, was not inconsistent with the fundamental rights of any Community and was therefore, in that sense communalist. Even so my Communalism of to-day is nothing but another name for Nationalism, Nationalism being itself in its very nature Communalism. In relation to humanity the change of name matters not much. The rose must smell as sweet being called by any other name.

But, I myself being as zealously anxious as the U. P. Government, in stamping out Communal troubles between the Hindus and Moslems—I cannot but point out to the U. P. Government and the other Congress leaders of that persuasion that this trick of anathemising Hindu Mahasabha leaders just to parade Congress-impartiality in the eyes of the Moslems and cater for their favours, is bound to fail to soothen Moslem susceptibility which in fact are hurt more to the quick by the 'Mass contact' movement persisted in by Pandit Nehruji, and by the very sight of the Congress Tricolour flag, than by any activities of the Hindu Maha Sabha leaders.

The patient at times is the better authority on what ails him than the doctor himself. Therefore, the evidence of Moslem leaders and especially no less a patriot than Mr Shoukatali in whose capacious pocket even Gandhiji does often find a happy abode, ought to be conclusive as to the mischief at the root of the Moslem displeasure. Did he not tell us often and often that the Moslem contact movement cannot but end in fearful communal tension and enrage Moslems even to fury? And did not the riots in U P and elsewhere carry out the wellmeant warning of that sooth sayers long before my tour in U P took place? So if the U P Govt. really means to allay the Moslem feelings by any means fair or foul they should strike at the root, penalise the 'Moslem Mass Contact' movement which instead of a 'Moslem contact' movement is veritably proving a 'Moslem Clash' movement and as Pandit Nehruji is responsible for persisting in it honour him to as an

"Undesirable Communalist" par-excellence and so far as the Congress flag is concerned that too should be surrendered forthwith to Messrs. Jinnah, Huq, Shoukatali & Co.

A reply to the Nationalist Muslims of Bhaganagar (Hyderabad)

A statement issued by Mir Akabaralikhan and the Moslem leaders in the Nizam State who choose to call themselves "Nationalists" deprecates the civil disobedience Movement started by the Hindu Sangathanists against the outrageously communal persecutions of the Hindus carried on in the Nizam state for years in the past. These self-styled Nationalist Moslem gentlemen fear that the civil disobedience movement started by the Hindus might lead to a breach between the two communities who have lived in harmony for centuries". Their conception of a communal harmony seems to be borrowed from the argument of the wolf in a sheep's skin who remonstrated with its victim for disturbing the peace and public tranquillity of the neighbourhood, by raising an untimely hue and cry

Do they not know that the Hindus are not allowed to hold meetings, to take out the religious or public processions, even to repair their temples, to start schools, to educate their children in their mother tongue? Is not Urdu which is an Alien language to the Hindus who constitute some 85 percent of the population of the state thrust upon them as a state and court language. Do not the public services contain 80 percent Moslems who form but some 12 percent of the population? Are not Hindus converted to Mohomedanism by force and fraud and does not the Nizam finance such and other Moslem proselitizing agencies inside the state and even outside of it spending millions from the state treasury which is replenished in the main by the Hindu tax payers? Are not organized Moslem Gondas let loose on the Hindu community perpetrating heinous crimes—dishonouring kidnapping and outraging Hindu women, desecrating Hindu temples, looting Hindu bazaars in broad daylight, murdering Hindu leaders and preachers, without any notice taken by the Nizam police—a department again which has 80 percent Moslems on roll? In the current year alone were not Ved Prakash, Dharma Prakash, Mahadeo and several other Hindu preachers and citizens murdered by and yet were not the Moslem Murderers as a rule let off scott free? Did not the Aryasamaj and Hindu Mahasabha demand inquiry and send deputations time and again to urge removal of these serious grievences? But did not the Nizam Government refuse even to listen to them in the most high handed fashion possible? Is this then the “Harmony” which the Moslem signatories to the statement referred to as one “in which the two communities had lived for centuries”, “and the breach” of which they now “fear? if so the Hindu Mahasabha assures them that it has determined deliberately to bring about the breach of that harmony at the earliest possible opportunity by offering all legitimate resistance that lies in its power.

The Signatories complain that this campaign of civil resistance presumably on the part of the 'Hindu Swatantrya Sangha in Bhagnagar (Hyderabad) and the Hindu Satyagraha Mandal at Poona presided over by Mr Ketkar and backed up by the Hindu Sabhants, is highly communal in nature. We ask what else it can be? Wherever a community is singled out to be tyrannised over by another community, all efforts to defend and liberate the victim must have reference to that singled out community alone and the struggle cannot but be communal in that aspect. Take the case of removal of 'Untouchability'. The Untouchables as a community have to undergo certain disabilities. The efforts to remove them must have reference to that community in the main. But does that make the question of removal of untouchability communal in a reprehensible sense or unholy or antinational? The same is the case with this movement of the civil resistance campaign started by the Hindu Sanghatanists in Hyderabad.

It is a lie to say that civil liberty is denied in the Nizam State to all communities alike. To the Hindus alone all civil liberties or speech, association, worship are denied. It is the Hindus alone who are banned from having any share in the public services or any voice in the administration of the state. The Moslems enjoy all civil liberties with a vengeance, monopolise public service and offices and control all administration in spite of the fact that not they but the Hindus contribute almost all the revenues and taxes that replenish the state treasury. It is the Hindus alone who are threatened with extermination as a Race, Religion and Culture. The Hindu Mahasabha therefore refuses to fight under lying colours of a common Hindu-Moslem movement and means to enter the list in defence of their Hindu brethren in the state under an unalloyed Hindu Flag. Whether this attitude on the part of the Hindu Mahasabha is called by the tyrants or the pseudo-Nationalist Congressites as anti national or communal or parochial or otherwise—we care a fig for the name.

If the Moslem gentlemen who have discovered themselves overnight to be “National” do really care to avoid a breach and usher in an era of communal amity in the state, then they should forthwith call upon the Moslems to disband their fanatical organizations like the Khaksar Gundas and address the Nizam to guarantee equality of treatment to all communities alike not in words but in fact and introduce a fully representative Government guaranteeing at least 75 per cent representation in the Legislatures and in the public services as well to the Hindus who constitute 85 per cent in the population of the state. This is the only efficacious and truly national way of avoiding any breach of communal harmony and not the threat which the statement tacitly holds out to the Hindus in case they persist in offering civil resistance.

India's Foreign Policy

Br Savarkar, the President of the All India Hindu Mahasabha addressed a mammoth meeting at Poona attended by more than twenty thousand people on the subject of "India's foreign policy". In the course of his speech he strongly deprecated the tendency on the part of some of the Congress leaders to denounce Germany and other powerful Nations in the world on account of the particular political isms they contributed to.

He observed India's foreign policy must not depend on "isms". Germany has every right to resort to Nazism and Italy to Fascism and events have testified that those 'isms' and forms of Governments were imperative and beneficial to them under the conditions that obtained there. Bolshevism might have suited Russia and Democracy as it obtained in Britain to the British people. The sound principle in politics lays down that no form of Government or political "ism" is absolutely good or bad under all circumstances to all people alike. Who are we to dictate to Germany and Japan or Italy or Russia to choose a particular form of policy of Government simply because we woo it out of academical attractions? Surely Hitler knows better than Pandit Nehru does what suits Germany best. The very fact that Germany or Italy has so wonderfully recovered and grown so powerful as never before at the touch of the Nazi or Fascist magical wand is enough to prove that those political "isms" were the most congenial tonics their health demanded. India may choose or reject particular form of Government, in accordance with her political requirements. But Pandit Nehru went out of his way when he took sides in the name of all Indians against Germany or Italy. Pandit Nehru might claim to express the Congress section in India at the most

But it should be made clear to the German, Italian, or Japanese public that crores of Hindu Sanghatanists in India whom neither Pandit Nehru nor the Congress represents cherish no ill-will towards Germany or Italy or Japan or any other country in the world simply because they had chosen a form of Government or constitutional policy which they thought suited best and contributed most to their National solidarity and strength.

Continuing, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha said, "So far as the Czechoslovakia question was concerned the Hindu Sanghatanists in India hold that Germany was perfectly justified in uniting the Austrian and Sudetan Germans under the German Flag Democracy itself demands that the will of the people must prevail in choosing their own Government. Germany demanded plebiscite, the Germans under the Czechs wanted to join their kith and kin in Germany. It was the Czechs who were acting against the principle of democracy in holding the Germans under a foreign sway against their will, England's pretension that they sided the Czechs because Democracy was in danger was thus a mere eye wash, and a stunt. Had the Cry raised by England of 'Democracy in Danger' been sincere she Should have first withdrawn her army of occupation from India- and left Indians free to organize themselves into a free and democratic state..... The fact is that when Germany was weak they partitioned in piece-meal. Now that Germany is strong why should she not strike to unite all Germans and consolidate them into a pan-German State and realise the political dream which generations of German people cherished.

The President of the Hindu Mahasabha wanted to assure all Nations in the World that the Hindu Sanghatanists maintained a neutral attitude with regards to all nations in the world in respect to their internal affairs or mutual relations with each other. " ANY NATION WHO HELPS INDIA OR IS FRIENDLY TOWARDS HER STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM IS OUR FRIEND ANY NATION WHICH OPPOSES US OR PURSUES A POLICY ENEMICAL TO US, IS OUR FOE TOWARDS THOSE WHO DO NEITHER, INDIA MUST MAINTAIN AN ATTITUDE OF PERFECT NEUTRALITY REFUSING TO POKE HER NOSE UNNECESSARILY INTO THEIR INTERNAL OR EXTERNAL POLICY. The same rule holds good with our attitude towards England in so far as our free activity is concerned. It is for England to choose.

Approach Hindu Sanghatanist leaders & not the Congressites.

“ From more or less reliable reports it seems that Sir Akbar Hydari and some other Moslem gentlemen in the confidence of the Nizam are busy negotiating with some of the leaders of the Indian National Congress to find out a way to allay the civil disobedience movement in the Bhaganagar State ( Hyderabad state ). If the Nizam Government have really seen the wisdom of conciliating the Hindu Civil Resistance it is a well-come change. But then we must make it plain to Sir Akbar Hydari that he is directing his negotiations to a wrong address.

For, it is the Hindu Sanghatanists inside and outside the State that have been agitating for years against the fanatical oppression directed against the Hindus in the Nizam State. It is again the Hindu Sanghatanists who have launched the campaign of defying the tormenting anti Hindu laws and rules in that state and are bearing now the brunt of the fight. The Indian National Congress cannot claim to be even a sleeping partner in the concern. It has never uttered even a word of protest against the Moslem tyranny in the Nizam State and is still persisting in this guilty silence and apathy. Not only the Hindu Sanghatanists but even the state Congress that is putting in a fight, has nothing in common with the Indian National Congress but a part of the name and has publicly disowned any connection with the latter; while the few honest patriots who happened to be members of the Indian Congress and yet have joined the civil disobedience campaign led by Senapati Bapat of Poona are not owned by it in this activity of theirs.

Under these circumstances, if fighting shy of approaching the Hindu Sanghatanists Sir Akbar Hydari hopes to bring about settlement with the Congressite leaders only he will be counting without his host. The Hindu Sanghatanists are the party aggrieved, it is they who must receive satisfaction. They place no faith whatever in the Congress leaders of the Gandhist brand so far as Hindu interests are concerned. Just as Gandhiji assured the Frontier Hindus only the other day that they could safely rely on the Khudai-Khidmadgars for their protection against the outrageous raids of the Moslem tribes, even so who knows if his henchmen like Mr Bajaj may not advise the Hindus in the Nizam State to rely on and trust to the tender mercies of the Khaksars in the Nizam State.

Consequently, if Sir Akbar Hydari wants really to come to terms and is not trying to use the Congress leaders as an eyewash, he should forthwith approach the Hindu Sanghathanist leaders representing the Hindu Maha Sabha Aryasamaj, Sanatan Sangha and the Hindu Swantantrya Sangha in the Nizam State. Their terms also are definite. The Nizam Government must guarantee, not in words but in practice, full and equal civil liberties to the Hindus along with other communities in the state and at least a 75 per cent representation in the public services and in a responsible Legislature which should be immediately granted.

We assure the Nizam Government that the Hindu Sanghathanists are as eager to welcome peace if it is honourable as determined they are to carry on the struggle if it is inevitable.

The Hindu Civil Disobedience movement in Nizam State.

A summary of events that led to it.

The most fanatical and outrageous treatment to which the Hindus have been for years subjected in the Nizam State with a definite policy of exterminating them as a Religious, Cultural and Political entity and turning the state entirely into a Moslem one is so well known as to render any more proof as ridiculous an excess as to try to show by candle what is obvious in broad day-light. We shall therefore pass on to retrace how, with a view to end this persecution of the Hindus, the Hindu Sanghata-nists had first exhausted all constitutional avenues and failing in that objective how they have at last been forced to resort to a Civil disobedience Movement today.

(1) The credit of drawing pointed attention to this ill treatment of the Hindus before any one else did it and coming forward to oppose it with tooth and nail must go to Aryasamajist section of the Hindus in that State. Hundreds of them have gone to jail, had been harassed by the Mōslēm Gṛndās and the Mōslēm Police as well in this year alone a dozēn of them have been murdered in cold blood by Moslem mobs while the Moslem culprits as a rule escapēd scot free.

( 2 ) The Hīndu Māhasabha (also) took up the question in hand and deputed its reporters to study the situation on the spot some five years ago. They published a detailed report of the persecution to which the Hindus as Hindus were subjected to. Copies of the report were made public and submitted to the Nizām and to the Central and British Governments—but no notice was taken of it. Year after year the Hindu Mahasabha Sessions went on passing resolutions condemning the fanatical persecution and calling upon the Nizām to put a stop to it. Last year at the Karnavati ( Ahmadabad ) Session the Hīndu Mahasabha decided to send a deputation including in its personnel Messrs Munje, Bhai Parmanand and others. But no permission was granted to that or any other representations. Nevertheless Bhai Parmanand sought a personal interview with Sir Akbar Hydari the Prime Minister who as such was mainly responsible for this anti Hindu policy. He was so far from promising any redress that he actually denied

Hindu Sanghatanist Bodies presentations to the Nizam, consequences but a deaf ear
all. Attempts to move went on the part of the also made but they too ults.

Meanwhile every dawning of Moslem Riots, assaults mazaars, murders of Hindu kidnapping harassing of conversion of hundreds
The whole atmosphere of those tyrannised, them State At last the could bear it no longer
bha, the Aryasamajists, fact all sections of the decided upon offering civil into the State to ruined and helpless try-men. Some of the ate had already defied the faced the consequences of resisting anti-Hindu Farmans' In Maharashtra alone not less than one thousand meetings were held to denounce the Nizam under the auspices of the Hindu Sabhas at almost all towns. The Hindu Mahasabha sent its reporters once more a couple of months ago to the state and unnoticed the collected substantial news which revealed that the state of things was even worse than what was known outside. This latest report was also given a wide publicity by the Hindu Mahasabha in press and from platform throughout the Country. At Poona a "Hindu Civil Disobedience Mandal" was formed under the Presidentship of Sjt G V Ketkar Editor "Maratha" and conferences after conferences of the Hindu Sanghatsanists backed up the civil disobedience movement, appealed for funds and began to enlist volunteers to fight out the cause of the Hindus in the Nizam State.

(4) It should be noted that through these years and in spite of the fact that the story of this unbearable barbarous and fanatical persecution of the Hindus in the Nizam State had been perturbing and agitating the public mind all over India the Indian National Congress did not do so much as to raise its little finger in protesting against this Moslem tyranny. Kind souls ! They had to shed so many tears in sympathy with the harassed Arabs in Palestine, the Abbyssinians, the Czechs and almost everybody in the World but the Hindus that they could hardly spare a single tear to shed over the bloodshed and persecution of thousands of Hindus in Hydrabad or Bhopal state - even in the name of the so-called " National " civil liberty. Mr. Bose the President of the Congress confessed only the other day that he was extremely distressed over the persecutions of the subjects in Mysore, Travancore, Rajkot and other Hindu States But a true " Nationalist " that he was he did not touch even with a pair of tongs the incomparably more outrageous and Aurangjebian persecution to which the Hindus were subjected in the Nizam or Bhopal state The reason for that is not far to seek. The Nizam and the Bhopal States are Moslem States The tyrants are Moslems while the tyrannised were only, Hindus. How can then an " Indian Nationalist " of the Congress brand take the side of the Hindus, when it is a Moslem who oppresses them ! It would be " communal ", an act of high treason against Congress " Nationalism ! " So Subhas Babu kept himself preoccupied with, relieving the wounded in China, the "Nationalist" Poet Ravin Bāhn could not spare a couplet in condemnation of the Nizam, as all legions of his sonnets had to be dispatched to enable the Czechs in warding off the mighty boards of Herr Hitler while Gandhiji could only assure the Hindus that Bhopal was "a veritable Ram Rajya!" It is one of those Gandhist lies which are donhly disgraceful and dangerous as they go forth swearing, by truth, absolute and nothing but truth.

(5) But in spite of this guilty silence of the Indian Congress, the Hindu Mahasabha and the Aryasamajists brooght the agitation, they unceasingly carried on for years in the past, to a pitch and the campaign of the civil disobedience was lannched from inside and 'outside the State. Senapati Bapat, the veteran Maratha Patriot, with Mr Bhuskute and some other Socialists in Poona who were not stupid enough to fail to see that it was but a human duty and essentially a national one to help the victims even when they were Hindus against fanatical aggression even when it was a Moslem one, joined the struggle colaterally as defend ants of human civil liberty. Mr. Bapat, with his comrades, entered the state in spite of the ban, and defied the Nizam. Some of them are already under arrest. "The Hindu Swatantrya Sangha" in Hyderabad has been sending forth batches after batches offering civil resistance, taking out processions, holding meetings in spite of the Farmans to the contrary, and thousands of people are already facing lathi charges, police assaults and arrests for sympathising with and rallying round the Hindu movement. The State Congress, a body which is in no way connected with the Indian Congress and should not be confounded with it, is carrying on the struggle on a third flank under its "Non-communal Flag." But this mere change of name could not avail much, and Nizam Government has banned and branded the State Congress too as communal. In Poona, the "Hindu civil disobedience Mandal" started by Hindusanghatanists in Maharashtra and presided over by Mr. Ketkar has also taken field and batches under its Hindu Flag have already gone forth to the Nizam state to defy its humiliating Farmans. Thus the struggle is thickening on all sides and after the all-India -Aryasamaj rally at Sholapur and the Annual

Hindu 'Mahasabha Session' at 'Nagpur' both to be held during the next Christmas week, the 'struggle' is 'almost certain' to 'spread' all over the 'country' and the 'Hindu Sanghata' nists through 'India' presenting 'a Pan-Hindu front & under a Pan-Hindu banner will march on to liberate their co religionists and country men held under bondage in the Nizam state

Unless, indeed, in the meanwhile the Nizam grows wiser and relinquishes his mad Pan-Islamic ambitions to root out the Hindus May he learn a lesson in time from the miserable fate which not only his own ancestors but even the mighty Aurangzeb met in his campaign to Moslemise all Hindusthān when the avenging Hindu forces of the Marathas engulfed him and his Moslem Empire in one common grave

We still hope even in spite of hope, that the Nizam guarantees; not in words but in practice, equal and full civil liberties to the Hindus along with other communities in his state and a representative Government based on population proportion as soon as possible This is the only way to bring about lasting

CONGRESS CANNOT DELIVER GOODS OF HINDUDOM.

In view of the general talk in political circles that a Round Table Conference may be called in near future, Mr. Subhaschandra Bose the President of the Congress has made a statement to the effect that no other party in India should be called or consulted at such a conference than the Congress as 'That is the only body that can deliver goods.'

In this connection we must point out to Mr. Bose that his claim may be true with respect to the goods that belong to the Congress. But the Congress cannot pilfer and deliver goods that do not belong to it at all.

Again, will Mr. Bose make it clear to substantiate his claim that the Congress must be the only party to be consulted at a Round Table Conference as the sole representative of the Indian people, whether the Congress has received any charter from Mr Jinnah and the Moslem League to represent the Moslem interests alone? As things stand, the only way that will entitle the Congress to represent Mr Jinnah and the Moslem League seems to be no other than entitling Mr Jinnah and the Moslem League to represent the Congress itself at the Round Table Conference at the exclusion of everyone else including Mr Bose

But, whatever be the understanding between the Moslem League and the Congress the Hindu Mahasabha must enter a stern protest against this attempt on the part of Congress to arrogate to itself the right of the representing India to the exclusion of all other parties in the land. For, so far as the special interests of the Hindus are concerned the Hindu Mahasabha alone can represent them and the Congress in particular is the last body that can arrogate to itself that right.

If Mr Bose means to advance the argument to prove the Congress credentials on titling it to represent the Hindus too, that it was a Hindu electorate which sent the Congress representatives to the Legislatures in the last election in an overwhelming majority then he should remember that any such argument is vitiated in this case ab-initio. Firstly, because the elections were not fought by the Congress on this issue of representing Hindu interests as differentiated or opposed to the interest of any other community in India but were on the contrary fought on a spacious promise on the part of the Congress to reject the communal award and hold the scales even from a truly National stand. Secondly and more emphatically because whatever trust the Hindus have placed in the Congress has been faithlessly betrayed by its hugging to the communal award, by cowardly failure to check even the anti-national pretensions of the Moslem and its treacherous disregard even to the Nationally justifiable claims of the Hindus subjecting the Hindus to unbearable humiliations in all cultural, Social, religious and political spheres. Witness for example the good advice and mocking assurance Gandhiji has given to the Hindus in the Frontier Province that their life and property were safe in the hands of the Khudai-Khidmadgars, that is the very Moslem Organization, which has openly been accused by responsible Hindu leaders in that province as being thoroughly anti-Hindu in its designs and looting and killing the helpless Hindus there and it is the head of this communal Moslem organization Mr Gaffarkhan who is bossing the Congress Government in that Province.

We must warn, therefore, all those who are concerned and draw pointed attention of the Indian Government in particular to the fact that so far as Hindudom is concerned no agreement, engagement or contract entered into between the Congress and the Moslem League or the Congress and the British Government at a Round Table Conference or otherwise can be binding on the Hindus unless and until the Hindu Mahasabha is consulted in the matter on equal footing and sanctions it of its own free will

MESSAGE TO HINDU YOUTHS IN THE NIZAM STATE.

“Hindu youths! Hold on and assert your right to sing VANDE MATARAM! What of the Nizam,—even the British had to learn to listen to it in India. Let every Hindu home ring with VANDE MATARAM! Let thousands of Hindus resound every street and every chawki with the Vande Mataram song. Do not care a fig for those who dub the Hindu Sanghatan movement as communal: for Hindus are a Nation by themselves, thirty crores strong!—how can their movement be communal! It must be National, for Hindusthan is pre-eminently a Hindu Nation. We will allow other Indian sections equal civil rights but no preference or predominance over Hindus. Hindu Youths! All Hindudom is one and indivisible. Do not listen to the treacherous advice that tries to divide Hindus as those in the Nizam State and those out of it. It is sheer non-sense. Your grievances are ours and ours are yours. Uphold the Hindu Nation and the world and refuses to be browbeaten by any non-Hindu powers in its own land, our own Hindusthan! Flout the ban on VANDE MATARAM till it is quashed!"

Hindu Maha Sabha & the Hindu Kingdom of Nepal

'On behalf of the Hindu Maha Sabha I convey to his Majesty the King of Nepal; and our countrymen thereof the sense of intense pride and love which all Hinddom cherishes towards that our only Independent Hindu Kingdom in the World and in view of the recent developments in the far East brought about by the Sino-Japanese War most anxiously exhorts his Majesty the King of Nepal so to train the Citizens, to increase and reorganise the Forces and especially the Aerial Arm of it and to bring the Kingdom to an up-to date Military and Aerial efficiency as to render Nepal invulnerable to Alien land and air attacks in future'

A Statement on The Jewish International Question

While cherishing nothing but good will towards the Indian Jews who have been citizens of India for centuries in the past and who have already developed an intimate linguistic, cultural and civic affinities with the Hindus in India, I denounce most emphatically the proposal now and then discussed in the Congress quarters of inviting the non-Indian Jews from Europe to colonise Cochin and some other parts of India. Even if there be any thinly populated parts in India we ourselves require them to relieve the pressure of over population in almost all parts of our own country. Moreover the Hindus have already paid too heavily for the suicidal folly of allowing colonies of alien and racially, religiously and culturally heterogeneous people in India without let or hindrance in the past to commit that National folly again.

Nevertheless I have every sympathy with the Jewish community in Europe and elsewhere in their distress and assert that the best solution of the Jewish question can only be found in an unrestricted recolonization of Palestine by the Jewish people to whom alone it belongs of right as their Mother Land as well as their Holy Land, the land of Moses and David and Solomon from time immemorial. It is the Arabs who forcibly and ruthlessly, deprived the Jews of their birth right and, drove them out of, Palestine. The statement of Gandhiji and others, that Palestine belongs to the Arabs in justice, and the Jews are aliens there is due either, to an amazing ignorance of history or to a deliberate and cowardly mis-representation of facts with a view to placate the Indian Moslem. Consequently I call upon the British Government to continue their policy of re-establishing, the European Jews and enabling them to raise a strong Jewish Nation once again in Palestine—their real Mother Land and Holy Land.

Statement regarding the Release of Political Prisoners.

We must express publicly even, though our means to day may be different from those they used,—our grateful appreciation of the patriotic motives and untold sacrifices of all those heroic soldiers men and women who fought in the cause of Indian Independence ever since 1857 whether as armed revolutionists or unarmed civil resisters and exhort all patriotic parties to try their best to compel the Indian Government to release forthwith and unconditionally those of them who are still rotting in the Indian jails or in the Andamans and recall those driven to exile including Messrs Chatteropadhyaya, Barrister Rana, Rashbehari Bose, Hardayal, Mahendra Pratap and others with assurance of a full political amnesty.

FULL SUPPORT TO BHAGANAGAR STRUGGLE

In view of the fact that the Hindus in the Hyderabad State, are not enjoying religious liberty and other civic, cultural and political rights and that the Government of H. E. H. the Nizam has taken no steps to concede the legitimate demands of the Hindus and has thereby compelled the Hindus in and outside Hyderabad to resort to civil Resistance, the Hindu Mahasabha, records its full support to the civil Resistance, movement started against the Nizam's Government and calls upon all Hindus to continue it vigorously and actively until all the rights are conceded to the Hindus in accordance with their numerical strength in the state.

I condemn & censure the attitude of the Congress authorities in weakening the movement by advising the State Congress to suspend the movement and out of fear of Muslim opposition and thus once again betraying the fundamental rights of the Hindus. 81-12-38

Late Shri Sayaji Rao Maharaj-an Ideal Prince

Hindustan all over India conveys its condolence with your Highness, on the death of Your Highness' illustrious Consort—the Late Shrimant Sayaji Rao Maharaj. He was an ideal Prince. His most affectionate memory cherished by crores of Hindus all over Hindustan is the only solace which I, as the President of the Hindu-Mahasabha can offer to Your Highness in this sad bereavement.

All Hindndom and Maharashtra in particular will doubtless extend to the Heir Apparent Shrimant Pratap Sinha Gaikwar their most affectionate loyalty and wish him a reign even more glorious than that of His departed illustrious Grandfather.

President, Hindu-Mahasabha.

SIKHS JOIN THE BHAGANAGAR STRUGGLE

Swatantrya Veer Br. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha has sent a letter to Sardar Tarasinghji, the President Shiro, many Gurudwar Prabandhak Mandal, Amritsar conveying the Hindu Maha Sabha's grateful appreciation to the Sikh brotherhood of their resolve to send some Jathas to offer civil resistance to the Nizam in defence of the righteous Hindu cause in asserting their civil liberties and expressed his confidence that if but Sañatanists, Aryasamajists, Sikhs, Jains and all other constituents that go to form Hindudom as a whole and claim this Bharatawarsha to be their common Father Land and Holy Land learn thus to present a common Hindu Front in combating common dangers whether Religious Cultural or Political, the Hindu Nation will soon recover all the prestige and power it lost and realise the glorious destiny that awaits in future

No Suspension of C. R. Movement

"In order to remove misapprehensions and suspense on the part of Hindu Sanghatanists all over India caused by the mutually contradicting news published in the press regarding the Civil Resistance Movement against the Nizam, I have to state unreservedly and definitely that so far as the Hindu Maha Sabha is concerned it is not going to suspend, much less call off, the movement unless and until the reforms which the Nizam Government has been promising to the public to introduce before long are actually announced and the Hindu Maha Sabha is in a position to judge if they concede in some substantial measure, if not in full, the by demands put forward in the resolution adopted the Hindu Maha Sabha at its Session at Nagpur

Nevertheless I assure the Nizam Govern ment that although an eye wash or delay can only worsen the discontent and disorder in the State yet a really well-meant, actual and speedy announcement of substantial reforms will only be welcomed by the Hindu Maha Sabha and Hindudom as a whole as an act of far seeing statesmanship and grace on the part of the Nizam Government, not as a sign of weakness but as a proof of real strength that lays its foundation on justice, content and willing attachment of citizens to the state they comprise. The sooner the Nizam Government puts an end to the just content and consequently inevitable unrest that are corroding the fabric of the Nizam State, the stronger will the Government grow and better the title of H. E. H. the Nizam as a ruler who really deserves to rule"

Dharmveer Bhopatkar Joins the Struggle

"To Bhopatkar's letter last week informing Nizam Government of his intention to offer civil and non-violent resistance the Nizam Government's latest reply has virtually admitted

they could not guarantee security from mob violence in Nizam State. Against this astounding reply which amounts to veiled violent threat Hindn Maha Sabha records its strongest protest. Civil Resisters may be dealt with under what ever laws prevail under Nizam Government. But no Government can resign its legal authority to mob-violence. The responsibility of communal tension lies primarily and entirely on anti-Hindu policy of Nizam Government. Bhopatkar comes to protest and oppose it with peaceful resistance. So responsibility of any mob-violence and consequent criminal assault on his party will lie on the Nizam Government alone which is dutybound to order the Police and Military to see that legal functions of Nizam Government are not usurped by violent mobs. Please take serious note of this as the results of abdicating Government's legal power to mob fury can not but exasperate discontent and disorder in the state instead of terrorising Civil Resistance Movement. Removal of just grievances of the Hindus can alone restore peace and content.

Hindu Sabha and the Hindu States

"In view of the misrepresentation indulged in by some news-papers regarding my views about the Congress Civil Resistance Movement in Rajkot, Jaipur, Travancore and some other Hindu States, I am constrained to issue this statement that I as the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha am bound to and do stand by the resolution regarding the Hindu States passed by Hindu Maha Sabha. The policy of the Hindu Maha Sabha towards the Hindu States is of benevolent non-intervention. It cannot therefore, countenance any movement aimed at the Hindu States only and jeopardising their existence or strength so long as the Hindu interests on the whole are not adversely affected by any event in the States.

In view of this policy the Maha Sabha cannot be a party to the campaign which the Congress seeks to launch on against the Hindu states alone, on flimsy ground and deprecates it as inopportune, anti-Hindu, and mischievous in as much as it deliberately overlooks the mal-administration and the atrocious persecution to which the Hindus are subjected to in Moslem states and dares not (to) raise a finger against them

THE HINDU STATES

The Maha Sabha earnestly wished that the Hindu States which on the whole are incomparably more considerate than the Moslem States with regards to the Civil and Religious liberties of their subjects and in some cases like Mysore, Travancore Oundh and above all Baroda have introduced more progressive reforms, educational, social, economic and political than British presidencies could do in cases even under the Congress Ministries, will stand firm and well organised, will remove on their own initiation the just grievances of their subjects, will introduce well meaning and constitutional representative institution, take the loyal subjects into their confidence, bringing them up to an up-to-date military and administrative efficiency in so far as it is possible and thus increase the prestige and consolidated power of the Hindu Flag that still flies on their Capitals

History abound with instances which show that great patriotic leaders come out of the princes also as out of the commoners

When Hindusthan is free and comes to her own, the states too will and must join hands with us all to remove any artificial barriers that stand on her way of unity in so far as it contributes to the strength of Hindudom as a whole,"

A great error of judgment

While several of the stringent measures adopted by the District Magistrate of the Sholapur district to check the recent riot there with promptitude are appreciable yet the great error of judgement he has committed in calling upon the Arya Samajists to remove their camp from the city and leave the district itself instantly cannot but be condemned as unjust, panicky and fraught with dangerous consequences. Because it amounts to an indirect invitation to the Moslem rowdism all over India just to stage a riot as an effective means to persuade the Government to ban the peaceful activities of the Arya Samajists and Hindu Maha Sabha civil resisters camps at any place and at any time.

Even the Government communique admits that at Sholapur the Moslem came out of their mosque and attacked violently the Arya Samaji Jatha which was perfectly within its right to pass in procession by public thoroughfares. The small Jatha was not even accompanied by any musical party and yet the Moslems came out of the Mosque gave their own orders, took the law in their own hand and with lathis attacked the unarmed and peaceful small Hindu Procession. But the Magistrate let these offenders alone and ordered the peaceful Arya Samajist camp to get dissolved and leave the district instantly. If the presence of any undesirable and aggressive section was to be banned in the district, he should have called upon the violent Moslem propagandists inside and outside district, to leave it instantly and a hot bed of violent aggression and fanatical gundaism. But instead of that the Magistrate banned the Arya Samajist Camp which had ever been faultlessly immune from any act of violence or illegitimate aggression.

Government and Governments of other Provinces will not follow up this blundering policy of unwillingly encouraging the Moslems to resort to Violence and riots by making them believe that, that is, not only an effective but even a legitimate way of closing up the camps of Hindu Civil Resisters all over India. If the provincial Governments fail in this, the Nizam Civil Resistance movement far from being unnerved will only be accentuated and may perhaps be compelled to develop into an All India campaign of peaceful civil resistance by the Hindus to any such unjust and anti-Hindu bans proclaimed by provincial Governments themselves in the so-called British Indian Territory.

I therefore, request the Bombay Government in particular and as a case in point, to abide by the impartial, neutral, legitimate and far sighted attitude which they have hitherto adopted towards the Nizam Civil Resistance movement and while suppressing violent aggression on the part of any-one to leave the Hindus free to continue their legitimate activities while they are within limits of such civil liberties which obtain as of right under the Provincial Governments and which the Moslems too can and do enjoy in this Province even with a greater latitude than the Hindus do.

Civil resisters brutally treated

"The harrowing tale that reached us last week from Aurangabad jail of wholesale starvation of hundreds of Hindu Civil Resisters for days together is now followed by brutal and sustained lathi-charges on those hundreds of Civil Resisters pent up in that prison. It is said that the sudden influx of some seven hundred civil resisters under the lead of Mahashaya Krishnaji upset the jail authorities and the wretchedly incompetent administration of the Nizam Government could supply neither food nor water and consequently some eight hundred civil resisters, Arya Samajists and Hindu Sabhants could get neither food nor water for two days. This starvation naturally caused bitter complaints and the reply on the part of the Nizam jail authorities was brutal lathi-charges. Some hundred civil resisters were seriously wounded. Most reputed leaders like the Hindu Sabhant Mr. Dhondu Mami Satho and others have been so inhumanly assaulted that their lives are in danger. Not only that but even after the

lathi-charges and locking up the prisoners in cells many of them were individually assaulted in their respective cells till they fell broken and bleeding on the ground.

Was not the Nizam Government knowing weeks beforehand that big Jathas were to enter the State under Mahashaya Krishanji and others? If so why did it not replenish its jails' stores with sufficient food and water supply? Was it beyond its resources. Or was it a deliberate and diabolical scheme to starve and hammer out the hundreds of Civil Resisters into surrender?

If Nizam Government knew that its resources or wretched administration was really so incompetent to supply room food and water to its prisoners inspite of a fortnight's notice of their coming to defy the anti-Hindu Laws in the state why did the Nizam Government arrest them at all? Even barbarous states feel it a moral duty to feed even the criminals they imprison and sentence. Even under armed warfare each belligerent is held responsible by public code of war to give human treatment to the respective armed prisoners of war. But here hundreds of Hindu Civil Resisters unarmed immune from the slightest tinge of crime enter the Nizam State having informed of their intention to do so weeks ago only to assert the right of fundamental civil liberties, they are formally arrested by the Nizam Government pent up in the prison which gets so overcrowded as to render the black hole myth a relative reality and then for two days denied food and water as if of a right by being told that their sudden influx is responsible for breaking down the Jail's capacity and stores and when the starved hundreds of Hindu civil resisters demand in a body-not luxuries but mere food and water these are outrageously lathi-charged on mass and then again individually assaulted in their cells with lamps out in darkness, so mercilessly and bloodily that their very lives are held in suspense

If the Nizam Government's resources are really so poor or its incompetence so great can that be an excuse for such monstrous and bloody lathi-charges? Why did it not set them all free if it knew it can afford neither room nor food even water for them?

The fact therefore seems to be that this richest and biggest Moslem State in India could afford to feed its prisoners - but this Moslem state being also, the worst, and, the most fanatically anti-Hindu, has committed this outrage in pursuance of a deliberate and diabolical policy to intimidate the Hindu movement to assert the birthrights of Hindudom in that State.

The only effective response therefore that ought to be returned to this challenge of the Nizam Government cannot but be the still more vigorous intensification of the Hindu movement to assert our birth rights in that State. Request would be humiliating, protest futile. Let Sanatanists, Arya Samajists, Hindu Sabhais, Sikhs, Jains and others who constitute Hindudom as a whole, rise up and march on the front not only in hundreds as was done up till now, but, in thousands to press on, this Civil Resistance Movement and defy the anti-Hindu laws in the Nizam State

And especially, Oh ye millions on millions of my Hindu brothers who reside in the Nizam State, would it not be cowardly and treacherous on your part to continue unconcerned and peep witnessing passively your coreligionists and compatriots who enter the State to liberate you getting assaulted¹ outrageously by Moslem fanatics till hundreds of them fall broken and bleeding before your eyes from day to day? Arise then in your millions and join ranks to press on this Dharma Yuddha. Defy the anti-Hindu bans in every town and village, resort to local Hartals to protest against such atrocities, declare a social Boycott against Moslem gundaism, that is running rampant throughout the Nizam State. Let the Hindu youths in that state go on a general Strike in their thousands and paralyse the educational institutions sponsored by the Nizam which aim to humiliate Hindu Culture and Hindu Honour. If the Hindus from outside the state could enter it in their thousands and face untold miseries, starvation, imprisonment and even death in defence of Hindu honour, the Hindus inside the state must come forward in their millions to assert their birth rights and continue this fight to its better end!'

Indore ruler banishes Untouchability

'I as the President of the Hindu Mahasabha beg to express the greatful satisfaction

which the Sanghatanist Hindus must have felt all over India to the orders which your Highness was recently pleased to issue to banish untouchability through your state. Your Highness has been more thorough-going in stamping out that curse than almost all states in as much as your Highness has not only thrown all state temples and public wells etc open to the so-called untouchable caste but has even included hotels, restaurants and other such premises and public services in detail and by special mention amongst those places where no one can henceforth be denied entrance on the ground of untouchability based on birth alone.

Your Highness has by this bold and just step once more falsified that swaggering condemnation of those persons who think that the Indian Princes must all be incapable of initiating any reforms or doing any public good social or political and has proved that Hindu Princes if but once awakened to the sense of public duty are in a position to effect far reaching reforms which even the Congress Ministers did not as yet dare to face.

Nevertheless, I beg to draw your Highnesses's attention to the fact that there is always a danger attending Government orders of such type to be nullified by the tacit opposition to them lurking amongst many an executive official therefore, I hope that your Highness will be kind and vigilant enough to see that these orders are strictly executed as well in the spirit that they have been issued throughout your state in every detailed case'

Leading Americans Begin to take Interest in Hindu Maha Sabha Politics

Br. Savarkar's Telegram to President Roosevelt has aroused much sympathetic curiosity in America regarding the Hindu Maha Sabha organisation which for the first time is looming so large on the horizon of the American thought and Press.

It is rather amusing to note that the American press has nick-named the Sanskrit word "Hindu Maha Sabha" as 'An All India National Organization to Safeguard Hindu Right.' The American press and the reading public could naturally make neither head nor tail out of the novel word "Hindu Maha Sabha."

Mr M. M. Gross writes to Swatantrya Veer Savarkarji in appreciation of his telegram to President Roosevelt and addressed the letter thus - "Hon'ble Mr V D Savarkar, President All India National Organization to safeguard Hindu Rights."

During the course of this voluntary appreciation the well known American gentleman proceeds thus - 'Just a line to let you know that there are others who think as you do. Your telegram to President Roosevelt of my country was very clearly put.

Although there are many who believe as you and I, very few have the courage to voice their feelings as you did. Keep up the work, there will soon be an Inter-National day of peace."

Another American gentleman of note writes "Dear Mr Savarkar, we have noted with a great deal of interest your recent fight to bring to the attention of the American people the armed invasion of India by the British. It has also occurred to us that your organization, so far from this influential country, would do well to publicize the movement more here through an American organization who understands publicity and the American mind."

A Message to the Special Shiva Mandir issue of (Maha Veer)

I congratulate you on your issuing a special SHIVA MANDIR issue of the "Mahaveer."

The sacrifice, courage and continuity with which the Hindus have so long asserted their right of freedom of worship and resisted the unjust and unwarranted and insolent encroachment on that right in the Shiva Mandir case cannot but contribute to strengthen the Hindu Sanghatan movement as a whole. In fighting out a local grievance you are all fighting out a Pan-Hindu struggle, vindicating a fundamental question of civil liberty. All Hindudom is indebted to Mr. Vyas Shastri, Mr. Chandra Gupta Vedalkar, Shiva Hare, the Mahavir Dal, the Sadhus and every one leader and sufferer who have carried on the struggle so bravely as to instil a new life and intensify self confidence in the Hindus all over India.

That even the Sadhus and Mohants should come forward to defend Hindutva is a sign full of import and peculiar and hopeful feature of your agitation. Your agitation has thus opened a new page in the history of modern Hindu Sangathan movement. I thank the Sadhus. It is today that they have justified themselves as Sadhus indeed.

Thank God, that by demolishing a tiny Shiva mad hut at Delhi the anti-Hindus have aroused the Shiva, the Rudra, himself in the hearts of crores of Hindus. No longer will they dare to trample legitimate Hindu feelings so lightly again as they used to do. The Hindu is awakening and has learnt to dare. This straw shows the new direction of the winds that blow. Let them gather strength and grow into a storm, a whirlwind.

Continue the struggle with all legitimate and legal means and let the Hindus never again commit the serious and suicidal mistake of voting for the Congress tickets who are sworn to betray Hindu cause even when it is just-but vote only for those Hindus who swear to stand by Hindu rights and respect Hindu sentiments. If but the Hindu Electorate learns to do that and captures all political bodies 55 per cent of the grievances they suffer from, today, could be redressed by our own strong arm.

CRUSHING REPLY TO SIR

KISHAN PRASAD

Sjt SAVARKAR'S REJOINDER

The following statement is issued by Br. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha, in reply to the Article published by Maha Raja Sir Kishan Prasad of Hyderabad regarding the Hindu Civil Resistance Movement —

In spite of the personal respect which every Hindu feels for the elderly, noble, and highly placed Maha Raja Sir Kishan Prasad, we cannot but denounce the statement he has recently issued crying down the Hindu Maha Sabha and Arya Samaj Civil Resistance movement against the intolerably anti Hindu policy of the Nizam Government as untrue timid and treacherous His charges against the Arya Samaj in particular are not only baseless but base For if during the last fifty years or so any section of Hindndom had really proved itself to be the Defender of the Hindu Faith, Culture and Community it is the Arya Samaj that has done so

Neither the Hindu Maha Sabha nor the Arya Samaj has launched this civil resistance movement in a light mood Thousands of Hindus groaning under the Nizam Rule had for years been calling upon the Hindu Maha Sabha to come to their rescue Just on the very eve of the Civil Resistance movement the Maharashtra Provincial Hindu Sabha had deputed trusted workers to investigate into the grievances of our co religionists in the Nizam State and they, after studying the situation on the spot had published reports full of unimpeachable facts and figures to substantiate that the condition of the Hindus was actually worse than what had come to light The leaders of the Civil Liberties Union who hail from the state itself, have borne ample testimony to the same fact Nay, the Hindu leaders who now under the spell of the State Congress are persisting in a guilty silence had only the other day been loudest in condemning the Nizam Government's policy as most detrimental to Hindu interest and dictated by Moslem fanaticism. Does the Maha Raja Sir Krishan Prasad venture to say that he has any better right to represent the Hindu feeling than these thousands of aggrieved Hindus in the State?

But apart from all that, the very statement of Maha Raja carries with it its own refutation. During the course of the statement, he boastfully asserts that he and his ancestors had ever gloried in living contentedly under the subjection of the Moslem rule for generations together. The long subjection of the Hindus in Hyderabad State is a historical fact and one can understand if a Hindu tolerates it is an inevitable evil. But, what are we to think of a Hindu of the eminence of the Maharaja who glories in the fact, that his Hindu ancestors had been contented slaves throughout centuries under the political domination of the Moslem? Is it not a fact that it is these contented Hindu slaves who proved traitors to the Hindu cause in the past, fought for their Moslem masters against the emancipating forces of the Maratha Empire and enabled the Moslem rule to survive in Hyderabad? The Nizam was defeated in battles after battles at Bhopal, Udgir, Kharda and the Marathas liberated Hindu Provinces from Nagar to Nagpur and from Nagpur to Orissa from the grip of the Moslem Rule. But it is to the treacherous assistance of these contentedly slavish "Ancestors" that gave the Nizam Government the long lease of life it enjoys. Otherwise the forces of the Maratha Empire would have freed the Hindus in Hyderabad long ago and spared them their present servitude. Instead of hanging his head down in shame at the thought of this continuous political and racial subjection of the Hindus to Moslem domination, the Maha Raja parades it as if it was an additional feather in his cap. This one fact proves as no detailed Hindu grievance can ever do the thoroughness with which the anti-Hindu policy of the Nizam Government has succeeded in emasculating the Hindu spirit in the dominions and how not a vestige of self respect is left even in the best of them by the age-long serfdom to which the Moslem Rule had reduced them.

It is this supreme task and not only the removal of local and detailed minor grievances of the Hindus,—this task of emancipating the Hindu mind from this slavish mentality that the Hindu Maha Sabha had set before itself. The Maha Sabha demands that the Hindus in the Nizam Dominions must be allowed all Civil Liberties in equal measure in common with other non-Hindu citizens so that they may grow to their full height as self respecting men who would not tolerate anything that implies racial inferiority or humiliation to which they are subjected as Hindus.

So far as the right of representing our Sanātani Section which the Maha Raja wants to monopolise is concerned, it cannot be better refuted than by pointing out to the one single fact that the President of Warnashram Swarajya Sangha of Maharashtra and the leader of the Sanatanists all over India—Dharmaveer Vishwas-rao Davre is rotting even at this moment in the Nizam's jail under the very nose of the Maha Raja, for, championing the cause of the Hindu Maha Sabha and Arya Samaj civil resistance Movement. The spirit of the real Sanatan Dharma is represented by Dharma Veer Dave. What Maha Raja Kishan Prasad represents in his article is not the spirit of Sanatan Dharma but of Sanatan slavery : He is playing that part to-day which Raja Mansingh played so ignobly in days gone by when he posed as the leader of the Rajputna in lieu of Rana Pratap.

It is not even now too late for the Maha Raja to repent, to go in sack-cloth and ashes and as a gentlemen bold enough to make amends for this untrue and treacherous article by boldly confessing the truth

HINDU MAHA SABHA—NIZAM CIVIL RESISTANCE MOVEMENT

News Bulletin: From 15-6-39 to 30 6-39

(1) After the most inhuman and barbarous Lathi-charge made by the Nizam Police and Jail Authorities on the 12-6-39 on 800 Hindu Maha Sabha Civil Resisters now imprisoned in Aurangabad Jail including Sjt. Dhondu Mama Sathe, one of the famous Hindu Sabha leaders from Poona, the Civil Resistance movement instead of being cowed down as the Nizam Government expected, had grown intenser still

(2) On the 15-6-39 to challenge the inhumar

man lathi-charge a new Jatha of 50 Hindu Maha Sabha Civil Resisters was given a grand send off by the Bombay Hindu Sabha in a mammoth meeting at Dadar and on the same day those 50 Civil Resisters were sent to the Nizam State to defy the anti-Hindu Bans of the Nizam, under Hindu Maha Sabha-Flag

(3) On the very day that is 15-8-39 a Jatha of 100 Hindu Sabha Civil Resisters was given a warm send off at Nagpur in one of the grandest meetings attended by some 12000 people and was sent to the Nizam State for offering Civil Resistance at once, under the leadership of Sjt. Ambookar (Pleader) one of the famous Hindu Sabha leader of C P

(4) On the 17-8-39 a batch of 50 Hindu Sabha civil Resisters was sent by the Poona Hindu Sabha under the leadership of one of the prominent Maratha leader Sjt. Bapnrao Joshi of Mahad after giving it a grand send off in a large crowded meeting

(5) Owing to the Ban proclaimed by the Congress Government in Mndras against meetings

Processions etc. regarding the Nizam Civil Resistance movement a batch of some half a dozen Maratha Civil Resisters under the Hindu Maha Sabha Flag was sent to Madras by the Bombay Hindu Sabha to defy the Anti-Hindu Bans of the Madras Congress Government.— These Maratha Hindu Sanghatanists stirred up the Hindu Community at Madras and a big meeting attended by some ten thousand people under the presidentship of Dr. Varad Rajalu Naidu was held at Madras on the 26-6-39 in which a resolution was passed condemning the Madras Congress Government for their anti-Hindu attitude and asking them to raise the ban put on the Hindus. This meeting was held inspite of the Congress ban, on the Tilak Beach, but no one was arrested.

Again on the 27-6-39 a big meeting was held and in addition to that meeting a big procession was taken out in Madras in which some ten thousand Hindus took part with hundreds of Hindu Maha Sabha flags waving and raising slogans "Hindu-Dharma-ki-Jay, Hindu Sabha-ki-Jay, Swatantrya Veer Savarkar-ki-Jay." Again there was no arrest on the part of the Madras Congress Government.

On the very next day a third mammoth meeting was held but without any arrest by the Congress Government. Thus the Hindus in Madras Province are enthused with the Hindu Sanghatan spirit and now they have begun to organize Hindu Sanghatan movement throughout Madras Province.

(6) On the 29-8-39 While Rajgopalcharya the Minister of Madras was leaving Bombay for Madras after attending All India Congress Committee, he was shown black-flags by Hindu Maha Sabhats on the Dadar Station asking him either to resign his post or raise the anti Hindu ban.

The same kind of black-flags demonstration was displayed by large Hindu Maha Sabhats Maratha Crowds on every station Karkhe, Bhambrda, Poona etc, asking him either to resign the post or raise the anti Hindu ban.

Thus this movement is getting stronger throughout India on all sides instead of being cowed down.

(7) Not only that: it has already made it self felt in England too. Some Maratha leaders like Messrs. Tahmankar and others in England have formed a Nizam Civil Resistance Committee in London, printed booklets, written and published articles defending Hindu Mahasabha movement and it was through their incessant efforts that questions were raised in the British Parliament by Messrs Wedgewood & other Members of Parliament calling upon the British Government to intervene and compell Nizam to yield.

(8) On the 29-6-39 Lokanayak Ane, Sjt. Ghanashyamdas Gupta, President of the Arya Samaj and Speaker of the C. P. Council held consultation with Veer Sevarkarji in connection with the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement. Thus the Hindu Maha Sabha and the Arya Samaj are working hand and in close co-operation.

PLEASE NOTE — The number of Civil Resisters sent by the Hindu Maha Sabha to the Nizam front to defy the anti-Hindu bans in that state is 3700 (Three thousand seven hundred) up-to-date.

The total amount of funds spent on this movement up-to-date by the Hindu Maha Sabha is approximately Rs 70,000/ (Rupees seventy thousand)

THIS IS THE WAY TO A REAL NATIONAL UNITY

(It is a very encouraging sign to note that many leaders of the Shias in Lucknow have not only expressed a wish to join the Hindu Sabha but pending sanction from the President some 43 have already enlisted their names in Lucknow as members of the Hindusabha there. The Shias in a conference had voluntarily assured the Hindus that they would undertake not to slaughter the cow and acknowledge the right of the Hindus and all citizens alike to play music on public roads.

In a letter addressed to the Lucknow Hindusabha Veer Savarkarji, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha expressed his grateful appreciation of this truly National attitude which the Shia Community has taken up.).

The President proceeds to state in the letter," "It is really very encouraging to see that so many of our brothers in country belonging to Shia community should have taken such a patriotic attitude and should have voluntarily decided to allow the Hindus to play music along public roads without any disturbance and to cease to offer cow sacrifice or slaughter kine which even from economical point of view is on the whole harmful to an agriculturist country like ours. The Hindu Mahasabha on the other hand will ever be ready, most ungrudgingly, to respect the religious feelings of our Shia compatriots, appreciate this their generous behaviour and in spite of the civic right of citizens to play music on the public road will never exercise it in a way to harass our brother non-Hindu communities by deliberately standing in front of the mosques and keep playing music by way of challenge. The Hindumahasabha is fully prepared, nay, most eager to join hands with such a patriotic and justice-loving people as those of the

Shia brethren who have adopted this truly patriotic attitude and all communities Hindus and non-Hindus can be welded together into a common Indian Nation, if but all our non-Hindu brethren come to adopt such an equal and honourable formula of unity

It is still more gratifying to see that our Shia brothers at Lucknow at any rate some of them wish to join the Hindu Sabha itself as a token of their brotherly sympathy. But according to the Hindu Mahasabha constitution, it is open to Hindus alone and a Hindu is naturally and necessarily defined as 'One who owns India not only as a Fatherland but even and along with it as his Holy Land i.e. the land of birth of his religion. This will perhaps stand in the way of our Shia brethren who are generous enough to wish to join the Hindu Mahasabha as members. Under these circumstances the best way would be that both of us the Hindus and our Shia brethren should keep their respective organizations all those points which touch their common interest unitedly and as allied communities bound together by the patriotic ties of a common nationality and common Nationalism.

Please to convey my sense of deep appreciation of this generous offer on the part of our Shia brothers. I want to know definitely from you whether it is a fact that the All India Shia Conference has passed resolutions referred to above or it is the Shia association of Lucknow only. Any how you should assure our Shia brethren there that the keeping of the Shia organization and the Hindu Mahasabha organization separate for convenience sake can in no way stand in their way of mutual co-operation, of developing a common National life and of welding themselves into patriotic love.

MR. TAMHANKAR AND THE NIZAM CIVIL RESISTANCE MOVEMENT IN ENGLAND

The credit of rousing up the British Parliamentary Circle out of its culpable indifference towards the Hindu struggle in the Nizam State goes to the pioneering efforts of Mr. Tamhankar whom the Hindu Sabha of Poona had charged with that special mission of carrying out the propoganda in England.

He found that almost all dailies in Great Britain were unwilling to say anything against the Nizam. Some of them it was rumored, were paid by the "Richest State" in India—the Nizam Government.

He distributed literature, interviewed prominent Members of Parliament and Journalists, issued tracts depicting with facts and figures the terrible tale of systematic and fanatical oppression which the Hindus were subjected to in the Nizam State.

At last one or two journals opened their columns to him. Mr. Wedgwood M. P. came kindly forward to raise a question in Parliament.

Mr. Tambhankar, in the meanwhile, gathered round him a band of Hind Sanghatanists in London and formed a regular Committee to acquaint the British public to and agitate against the Nizam's anti-Hindu policy and keep them informed from the day to day news of the tough campaign, the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement, that was being fought out by the Hindus and of the inhuman and barbarous means—riots, gun-dism, lathi-charges, starving out the prisoners.

upon which the Nizam Government had resorted to kill the Hindu Dharma yuddha, the fight against their Civil and Political servitude. This Hindu Committee in London is now organizing public meetings and trying its best to compel the Paramount Power to intervene and bring the Nizam to his senses.

"Hyderabad Reforms"

"I welcome the announcement of Reforms by the Nizam Government as a wise move betokening on their part the change of heart for better.

In spite of the ugly fact that Reforms are tainted from the beginning to the end by an underlying assumption that the Moslems though in a 10% minority in the state are to be politically recognised on an equal basis with the Hindus who form a 90% majority, not on account of any special merit but only because they are Moslems, which assumption belies the Nizam's professions of treating all his subjects with equal justice irrespective Race or Religion and in spite of the fact that the seemingly disinterested claim in theory advanced by the Government that they have framed electorates on economical and functional basis in order to eliminate all communal bias stands exposed in fact by the astounding self contradiction which insist in the very next breath on reserving 50% seats in the Legislature for Moslems as moslems, I still feel no hesitation in stating that even these Reforms, halting as they are, do constitute a substantial advance over the old rotten order of thing and open out a Constitutional channel which if the Nizam Government would only help the Hindus in all sincerity to work out may lead to future expansion and fuller freedom

Thanks to the brave sufferings and sacrifices undergone by those thousands of our Civil Resisters, the Hindus have succeeded at last in effecting a constitutional breach in the citadel of fanatical nutoeracy wide enough for a triumphal march of forces of progress into its very heart

And therefore I reiterate the hope expressed by H. E. H. the Nizam in "a spirit of accommodation and response" for which he pleads and assure him that the Hindus will never be found wanting in responsive co-operation with the Government to bring about restoration of peace and amity provided that the peace and amity are not to be 'bought' at the cost of their birth rights as Hindus or subjection to any Racial humiliations in future.

In as much as this announcement of Reforms on the part of the Nizam Government makes it incumbent and advisable to review and reconsider the attitude of the Hindu Maha Sabha in future towards this question, I have already called an emergent meeting of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha as well as a meeting of the all India Nizam Civil Resistance Committee on the 30th July, 1939 at Poona.

The announcement of the Reforms is already bound to relieve to a great extent the keen tension that led the Hindus to fight out a grim struggle up-to-date and if but the Nizam's Government orders immediately a graceful release of all the Hindu Civil Resisters, rank and file, Hindu Sabhais or Arya Samajist, before the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha meets at Poona, such a chivalrous act on the part of the

Nizam cannot fail to restore a peaceful and friendly atmosphere and to persuade the Committee to suspend the Civil Resistance Movement and extend a hearty co-operation with the Government of the Nizam in working out a progressive, peaceful and glorious future for the State." 19-7-39

Bhaganagar Struggle Suspended.

The following Resolutions drafted by Veer Savarkar, were passed at an emergent Meeting of the Hindu Maha Sabha Working Committee held at Poona on the 30th July, 1939 Regarding the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement—

Resolutions:—

(1) Whereas the campaign of Civil Resistance against the anti-Hindu Policy of the Nizam Government launched and conducted so valiantly up-to-date by the Hindu Sanghatanists all over India has succeeded to a great extent in welding Hindu Sabhais, Arya Samajists, Sanatanists, Sikhs, Jains and all other constituents of our Hindu—Nation so as to present a consolidated Hindu—front for the first time in the recent history of our race, has roused Pan-Hindu consciousness throughout the land which had let them all to fight out this struggle with unparalleled enthusiasm under a common Hindu banner in defence of Hindu rights and in vindication of Hindu honour and has succeeded in baffling

Any 'delay' or 'failure' in "this 'cannot but be a source of further irritation' and affect adversely the attempt to usher in a period of cordial co-operation and constitutional progress"

(3) "The Working Committee draws pointed attention of all Hindu Sanghathanists in the State and outside to the important fact that the above suspension of Civil Resistance can only mean the beginning of an intensive and constructive constitutional movement. The Hindus in the State should immediately form a Hindu Party to rouse, to educate and to consolidate their forces so as to be able to guard Hindu interests, Political, Social and Religious and press on to secure further constitutional expansion"

(4) "This working Committee pays a worshipful tribute to the memory of the martyrs who laid down their lives in the Dharma Yuddha against the Nizam's anti-Hindu designs and expresses its abiding gratitude towards all those Hindu Sanghathanists who had gone to the front and braving tortures, deadly assaults and imprisonments fought in defence of the Hindu cause. It also records its sense of appreciation of those hundreds of thousands of Hindu Sanghathanists, who each in his own way whether by financing propogating or supporting the movement participated in it and special indebtedness to Sgt. Y. D Joshi of Hyderabad, Mahatma Narayanwami, Dharmaveer L. B Bhopatkar, Dharmaveer Davre, Chandkaranji Sharda and such other most prominent leaders who led the Hindu Sanghatanist Jathas to fight.

(5) The Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha whole heartedly supports the Arya Samajists in their demands for clarification of the Religious points by the Nizam Government.

Arya Samajists Follow The Suit

"I appreciate whole heartedly the decision, arrived at by the Aryasamajists Council at Nagpur calling off the Civil Resistance Movement and gratefully acknowledge on behalf of the Hindu Maha Sabha their thankful recognition of the co-operation of the Maha Sabha in the fight, which they have telegraphically conveyed to me. Thus the pan-Hindu forces continued solid and united throughout the struggle and have come out of it with flying colours to the chagrin of all who wished it otherwise

Bravely indeed did the Arya Samaj face the ordeal and it has come out of it not only unscathed but with added vigour and glory. It has proved to a hilt that the great Mission of Hindu Sanghatan which Maharashi Dayanand Saraswati founded was not entrusted into unworthy hands.

It must also be noted here that the fact that the Ary Samaj Council had suspended the civil resistance movement on their front, weeks before the Hindu Maha Sabha suspended it on its front after the formal decision of the working Committee at Poona and the fact the Nagpur the Arya Samaj Council has definitely and altogether called off their movement while the Hindu Maha Sabha has only suspended it in a spirit of responsive co operation to test the Reforms and see if they could be actually worked out into a progressive and peaceful constitutional expansion so as to safeguard all legitimate Hindu interests, taken together with a comparison of the tone of the Arya Samaj resolutions at Nagpur and the tone of the Hindu Maha Sabha resolutions at Poona to constitute a smashing reply to those mock-heroics which some Congress hirelings indulged in just after the response which the Hindu Maha Sabha had only conditionally extended to the announcement of the Nizam Reforms. Today the attitude of responsive co-operation which the Hindu Maha Sabha took stands doubly justified beyond all interested cavil.

I also appreciate the wise step which the Nizam Government has taken and which was already pressed for by a resolution of the Working Committee at Poona, in clarifying the points justly raised by our Arya Samajist brethren. Although nothing very substantial is added beyond what was already covered by the Reforms yet even its reassertion with a view to meet some sincere doubts on the part of Arya Samajists speaks a spirit of conciliation on the part of the Nizam Government and it augurs well to induce goodwill on all hands.

Now, two things at least are indispensable to let the curtain fall on this trying struggle and let bygones be bygones.

Firstly, the anarchical anti-Hindu and bloody orgies which the organised Moslem Gundas indulge in every now and then throughout the Nizam state and set the very capital ablaze with murderous chaos must be ruthlessly suppressed, the criminals disarmed, disbanded and chastised. I am sure that at least the far-sighted Moslem leaders cannot fail to realise that the continuation of such murderous Moslem outbreaks and reigns of terrors must in the long run prove more detrimental to Moslem interests themselves than to the Hindus and render incalculable disservice to the Nizam Government itself which they profess to serve.

Secondly, H. E. H. the Nizam should be pleased to grant a general and immediate amnesty to all Hindu Civil Resisters whether—Hindu Sabhants, Arya Samajists, Sanatanists Sikhs or others and whether they hail from inside the State or outside, such a graceful act on the part of the Nizam Government bringing a joyous news to thousands :of homes in the state and outside will doubtless conduce goodwill all round and contribute much to usher in an honourable peace, co-operation and amity for which we all so sincerely long."

Message to Bengal Hindus.

I congratulate you all on the formation of a common Hindu Front in Bengal under the auspices of the Bengal Hindu Maha Sabha. The realization by the Hindus of Bengal that the first and foremost duty of the Hindus consists in being true to their Racial existence as Hindus bound together by the strongest affinities of a common Culture, of a common Past, of a common Ancestral Heritage and above all and summing up all, of a common Father Land and Holy Land,—the realization of being a Nation by themselves,—constitutes in itself a giant's step firmly set on the path which is bound to lead if but devotedly and doubtlessly followed up to a mighty and glorious, destiny

Henceforth let the Bengali Hindus never deviate let them view every question whether Religious, Social and above all political through the Hindu point of view alone. Let the false Gods set up by the territorial Nationality be dethroned once for all

The recent decision of the Working Committee of the Indian National Congress at Wardha which calls upon the Hindu Members of the Congress Committees to withdraw themselves from any connection with the Hindu Mahasabha Committees has once more made it clear that the Congress Ideology is not only incapable but positively antagonistic to any effort on the part of the Hindus to form themselves into a mighty Nation amongst the Nations of the World

Good-bye to the Congress! It has served its purpose well in the past and is of no use in the future the path to renaissance of Hindudom is neither identical nor parallel to the path the Congress treads and is bound to tread.

It is therefore, a matter of special congratulations that at this very critical moment the Hindus of Bengal should have definitely come to realise their essential and genuine National Soul and should have formed themselves into a consolidated Hindu-Front. It is a splendid beginning and I most anxiously wait to see that the Hindus of Bengal continue to hold fast to the Ideology of the Hindu Maha Sabha, form themselves into a Hindu party contesting all Elections under the Hindu Maha Sabha Flag and capture whatever Political power has fallen to the lot of the Hindu Electorate in Bengal and get it concentrated into the hands of Hindu Sanghathanists alone. If but they can do this, Hindudom in Bengal may yet prove to be the dominating factor in the Land and grow from strength to strength.

The Policy of the Hindu Party with Special Reference to Sanatani Brothers

(1) The principle with regards to the Political constitution will be "one man one vote." Moslems will not be allowed any weightage, special representation or any privilege over and above what the Hindus enjoy

(2) Every citizen whether he belongs to the majority or minority will be protected in following his personal religion, in learning his language and cherishing his culture in so far as he does not infringe the equal liberty of others to do so and does not violate public morality and public good of the Nation as a whole.

(3) Hindi, pure and based on Sanskrit (संस्कृतनिष्ठ), shall be the National language of the Hindus and Nagari the National Script. The Moslems will be allowed to have Urdu Schools of their own and adopt it as their communal tongue and Government will spend as grants and scholarships etc. a sum on Moslem schools etc in proportion to their contribution in taxes and the population at those localities.

(4) Music will be allowed to be played on public roads in case of all; the only restriction will be that no one plays it deliberately in front of places of public worship by way of challenge by stopping opposite them with an intention to annoy the congregation.

(5) The Hindu Party will reduce the overwhelming number of Moslems in the Police and the Army and in Public Services in general. Either the principle of merit alone or the population proportion will be the guiding spirit in recruiting all public Services including the police or the Army.

(6) The Forces on the North West Frontier will be overwhelmingly Hindu to guard against extra-territorial betrayal by Moslem Soldiers.

CONTRAVERSIAL POINTS

(7) The Hindu Party undertakes not to thrust any purely Religious or Religio-Social Reforms on our Sanatani brothers by force of new laws. On the other hand members of both the Reformists and the Sanatanists will be free to propagate and practise their own views in their personal or collective capacities by means of pure persuasions.

Thus the Party will not introduce or support compulsory Legislation regarding Temple Entry by the untouchables etc. in old temples.

beyond the limit to which the non-Hindus are allowed by custom as in force today.

(8) So far as the untouchables are concerned, they shall have equal rights with other, to all Government institutions, Government public services, Government building, public roads, public conveyances, public courts, protection under public law, Government Schools and educational institutions. The guiding principle should be that in no case a Hindu who is customarily said to belong to the untouchable castes will be denied the rights and privileges in public life on ground of birth alone which a non-Hindu is allowed to exercise by the "Touchable" Hindus.

On the other hand beyond this public and Government sphere our Sanatani brothers are free to observe their ancient customs without the least molestations in their personal life or their special collective institutions such as Sanatani Schools, Clubs, Halls, Temples etc. They too should grant the same liberty of action to the Reformists within similar limits i.e. in exclusively Reformist institutions functions and personal life.

(9) Any other point outside those mentioned above on which Sanatanist representatives on the Parliamentary Hindu Party may not agree should not be made a party question and each member will vote according to his convenience.

CELEBRATE THE HINDU NATION DAY

It is proposed that to commemorate the successful struggle of the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement fought out by the Hindu Sanghats nists all over India a Pan Hindu-Day should be observed all over India under the auspices of the Hindu Maha Sabha. The Head Office of Sarvadeshik Arya Samaj at Delhi has approved of this proposal. Leaders of Sanatanists and other constituents and institutions have also appreciated this idea in personal conversation and exchange of thought informally carried on. Hence this circular letter is being formally sent to all Provincial Hindu Sabha Offices and some Sanatanist, Arya Samajist organizations and leaders including those of our Sikhs, Jains and other constituents of Hindudom.

(2) Apart from the detailed demands as to the freedom of worship, freedom of Association, freedom of speech and representation, to the Legislatures which the Nizam has been compelled to acquiesce in, - owing to the agitation and the Civil Resistance of the Hindu Sanghatanists the chief success we have achieved is the Moral Victory we have secured in presenting a common Hindū Front. Ever since the fall of the last great Hindu Empires of the Marathas and Sikhs there never had been during the last 75 years at any rate such a demonstration on such a large scale of a Pan-Hindu Unity, strength and power of Resistance in defence of a purely Hindū cause. In fact it was taught to us by our enemies and believed by ourselves in a mood of self-forgetfulness that the Hindus being divided in castes, sects, creeds, provinces etc. were incapable of uniting and presenting a common Hindū front and in fact the very consciousness of Hindu Nationality was looked down as if it was a sin and a crime. But outstanding feature of this Nizam Civil Resistance movement consisted in knocking down this demoralising lie and therefore, we succeeded in uniting under a common Hindū Flag—millions of Hindu Sanghatanists—whether Hindu Sabhais or Arya Samajists, or Sanntanists, Sikhs, Jains, Brahmins, non-Brahmins, Kashmeres or Madrasis--and could sent to the front thousand upon thousand of Hindu Civil Resisters to defend their co-religionists and countrymen in the Nizam State under a common Hindu front. This regeneration of a pan Hindu consciousness : this realization that we Hindus form by ourselves a Nation, Racially, Linguistically, Religiously, Culturally bound together into a Nation possessing a National Soul constitutes a Moral Victory we have won in this fight.

(3) In order to assert this outstanding fact the Pao Hindu Day to be observed on the DASARA (VIJAYA DASHIMI) on 22nd October should be named to "Hindu Nation Day" (हिंदु राष्ट्रदिन). On that day there should be the Hindu Banners raised on every Hindu Sanghatanist house, Prabhat Pheries and Processions should be taken out and a Meeting should be held at every locality in which after honoring the Civil Resisters present at the Locality, a Rakhi Bandhan Ceremony should take place. Every Hindu in the Meeting should tie the Rakhi round the wrist of at least five Hindus and the President will read a common resolution which will be framed and forwarded by the Head Office. The whole meeting then will rise up and take a vow that we Hindus being a Nation by Ourselves determine henceforward to view all Political, Territorial, Social and Economical questions, National and International only through the Hindu Point of view-whether they help or harm the Hindu cause, the strength of the Hindu Nation. Detailed programme will be left to the Local Hindu Sabha

(4) You are requested to let us know immediately whether your Provincial Hindu Sabha and individual leaders appreciate of this proposal, within a week at the latest. After hearing from all, a final order to observe this Pan-Hindu Day on the next DASARA " and the common Resolution will be issued from this Head Office to all Hindu Sabhas throughout India. In the meanwhile you should keep all your Hindu Sabhas ready throughout your Province.

UTILIZE THIS UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

"I exhort our Legislatures as well as the Capital and Labour in the Country to utilise this unique opportunity of a European war to capture and stabilise the demand for those thousand and one foreign articles which used to pour in our market but which will now automatically ebb out while those very European Countries have got themselves involved in war. What twenty years of "Swadeshi" preaching or efforts to prohibitive duties on foreign articles could not have done in uprooting the foreign formidable competition which used to kill our infant industries, could be achieved in a couple of years if but our Legislatures, Capital and Labour co-ordinate their efforts in a spirit of patriotic and mutually just accommodation and both by working up the existing and by starting new industries and manufactures at full speed, replace these foreign articles by Swadeshi ones and capture the market for them while it is unoccupied by foreign supply."

MEERUT HINDUS DETERMINE TO FIGHT FOR THEIR RIGHTS.

"In order to contradict several mis-statements appearing in news papers I have thought it advisable to lay facts before the public in connection with 2nd October and the anti-Hindu partiality of the police in their failure to check Moslem aggression and their deliberate trampling upon the legitimate rights and civic liberty of the Hindus at Meerut.

In response to pressing requests of the Hindu Sanghatanist public in U. P. I. visited Meerut to support the Hindu Sabha candidate to the ensuing election to the U. P. Legislature, on the 2nd October. After addressing two crowded meetings I was taken in a huge Hindu-procession as a part of the preannounced reception programme. The procession was taken out under the permission of the police authorities and was proceeding through the sanctioned public route accompanied by the D. S. P. but with only a dozen of police men. As soon as it reached the Goodri Bazaar, the Hindus stopped the music in front of a local mosque in conformity with the local understanding. But in spite of all this, large Moslem mob armed with lathis poured in and blocked the way demanding that the Hindu Procession must not pass at all by the route as it was lined by Moslem quarters. They were evidently there with a premeditated and preorganized riotous purpose. The Hindus very naturally resented this insult, informed the Police of this unjust and illegal obstruction and pressed on. But what did the police do?

The D S P admitted he had no sufficient force to repel the sudden resistance of a nearly thousand Moslem rioters and called upon the Hindus to wait till sufficient police force arrived on the scene. The Moslems continued their attack and the Hindus repelled them in self defence till the expected batch of nearly a hundreds armed police came to rescue but whom?

In the meanwhile hundreds of Hindus with lathis poured in to defend the procession and their legitimate rights from all parts of the town. The shouts of Hindu Dharma-ki-Jay, Hindu Rashtra-ki-Jay, kept resounding the air. This determined demonstration, of righteous indignation, on the part of the Hindus, I admit pleased me most. I said to myself "Thank God after all the self-assertive spirit is gradually descending on the heart of the Hindu Race throughout India."

The City Magistrate, the District Magistrate and other officers saw it on their arrival and admitted it to me in so many words that the Hindus were keeping themselves all along within legitimate grounds and that the armed Moslem mobs, were bent upon riot had stored up their shops and balconies with stones, lathis and knives and "Therefore, they advised, the Hindus should give up to carry on the procession any further."

I vigorously protested against this 'advice' and maintained that the duty of the Police was to protect the legitimate civic right by chastising the aggressors and not vice versa.

But the police authorities thrust their armed forces between the Moslem mob and the front of the Hindū procession and kept marking time. It was then the Police and not the armed Moslem rioters who held up the Hindu Procession. Nay, they actually covered the armed Moslem rioters and fronting the Hindus every attempt of the Hindū Processionists to step on was held up by the fixed bayonets of the Police themselves.

My carriage was of course the chief objective aimed at by the Moslem rioters. But the Hindus in their hundreds guarded it at the imminent risk of their lives. This dangerous situation continued for some two hours in the night. The D. S. P. then asked me to request the Hindus to hand over their lathis to the Police. I refused to do so pointing out that the Police should have disarmed the Moslems first and allowed the procession to proceed. Instead of that, what justification on earth there could be in disarming the Hindus and leave them utterly defenceless when the police clearly admitted they could neither control nor disarm nor disperse the Moslem Rioters? The Hindus too when called upon by the police officers refused to surrender their lathis.

Later on the officers "Advised" me to get down the carriage of my will and leave the procession to avoid further bloodshed. 'The Hindus' they said "Are stiffened owing to your attitude in the main" The hint was plain enough and in order to disprove the implication I questioned the surrounding hundreds of Hindus if they would accept 'The advice' of the District Magistrate and disperse of their own accord as he had definitely refused to let the procession go further. A thousand throated voice arose "No, if the police cannot execute their own orders under which they allowed the procession by this route in face rioters' threat of the Moslems, let them at least cease to cover the Moslems and withdraw. We will face the Moslems and proceed as best as we can."

At last the City Magistrate told me that he had no other course but to order the Hindu processionists to disperse and if they refused, to force them to do so. He forthwith ordered me orally to get down the car. With a view to avoid all future provocation either official or public I rose in the car and informed the public in the presence of the Magistrate that I was being forced to take myself down and escort out of the procession. But so great was the rush of the Hindus to prevent the step that the police failed to make way with me. There upon they suddenly formed a line and made a general lathi charge on the Hindus on all sides till they effected cleavages in the formed procession and pressing back the disjointed Hindu groups forced them to disperse - while they let the aggressive and armed Moslem mobs alone and enmassed.

The police claimed that they had orders to avoid bloodshed and communal clash at any cost. But it may be asked, if armed dacoits pounce on a peaceful locality is it duty of the police to subject the peaceful citizens to lathi charges to compel them to keep quiet and leave the dacoits free to loot at will and go scot-free with their ill-gotten gains to avoid bloodshed and civic clash. Again who issued this order to the Police dictating such a preposterous definition of their 'Duty'?

The moral of this incident at Meerut is plain. The police at Meerut, as at Cawnpore, Benares and at several other places in U. P. failed to protect the Hindus under the orders of and in pursuance of the set policy of the Congress Government in U. P. to ignore Hindu rights and victimise them to placate Moslem aggression. The Hindus are paying for their own folly of voting for the Congress candidates in the last election and raising an anti-Hindu body to Governmental power. If there had been a strong Hindu Sanghatanist Government at the head the police could never have dared to trample on Hindu rights. Let the Hindus in U. P., therefore, take this lesson to heart and refuse to cast a single vote in favour of any Congress candidate, and elect only devoted Hindu Sanghatanist representatives to Assembly. If but the Hindus do this, they can capture the political power and be masters in their own house. That is the only way to safeguard the political, religious, 'cultural' linguistic and 'other' interests of Hindus.

Will the Hindu Sanghathanists at Meerut including Hindu Sabhants, Arya Samajists, Sanatanists, Jains and other devoted Hindu parties make a beginning in this right direction, cast all their votes in favour of the Hindusabha candidate, in the ensuing election and refuse to vote for the Congress candidate who, bound, to the anti Hindu discipline of the Congress can never defend the Hindu cause as independently and boldly as a candidate not subject to the Congress discipline and pledged avowedly to safeguard legitimate Hindu interests can be expected to do"

Draft of the Resolution to be adopted at the Meeting

HINDU-NATION-DAY

AS DRAFTED BY VEER SAVAKARJI

"The song that nerves a Nation's Heart

This Meeting of Hindu Sanghathanists — including the Hindusabhants Arya Samajists Sanatanists, Sikhs, Jains, Langayats and

 all other constituents of Hindudom, met to commemorate the successful termination of the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement proclaims that.—

(1) Apart from the detail demands which the Hindu Sanghatanists had compelled the Nizam Government to grant, the real and abiding success that the Nizam Civil Resistance Campaign has achieved is the Moral Victory which, for the first time during the last hundred years at any rate, the Hindus have been able to record. For, this Dharma Yuddha, this fight for the righteous Hindu cause, proved to demonstration that in spite of castes and creeds sects and sections, Hindudom as a whole does still pulsate with a common National Being. Behold the thousands, on thousands of Hindus, leaving their hearths and homes, their dearest and nearest, marching on even at the risk of their lives to the rescue, of their co-religionists and compatriots in the Nizam State whom they had perchance never seen or known personally. The Punjabees and Sindhis, Bengalis and Beharis Marathas and Madrasis, Brahmins and Bhangis

Sanatists, Aryasamajists, Sikhs, the rich and the poor—everyone who was proud of being a Hindu marched on under a common Hindu Banner for the vindication of Hindu Honour and faced untold miseries, outrageous riots, bayonets and lathi-charges, hunger and thirst and even death but kept asserting to his last breath, "Hindu Dharma-ki-Jay ! Hindusthan Hinduonka !"

This struggle was but a test case to begin with the prospective pan Hindu movement and we Hindu Saughatanists have not only come out with flying colours out of this testing ordeal, but have recovered and actualized through this struggle our racial and cultural homogeneity, our Real National Self which under a swoon of self forgetfulness during the last hundred years or so was all but obliterated

(2) It is to emphasise this Moral victory that we consecrate this day as the pan-Hindu National Day and do solemnly reassert and proclaim to ourselves as well as to all other Nations that we Hindus—who own this Bharat

 Bhoomi, this Land which extends from the Indus to the Seas, as our Father Land as well as our Holy Land, the cradle of our Race and Religion,—constitute a Nation by ourselves !

Ever since the Vedic seers and sages chanted the sacred hymns on the bank of Saraswati the History of our people for the last five thousand years and more had been down to this day welding and consolidating all our ancestral races, religions, languages and cultures into this consummation,—to bring in to being a homogenous Hindu-Nation ! and from this day onwards too we solemnly aver that we will pre-eminently view and shape all our political social and national activities in such wise as to strengthen Hindudom as a whole and strive even unto death to get our “Hindusthan”—our Father Land and Holy Land—stamped indelibly on the map of the Earth as the independent, unitary and mighty Nation of the Hindu Race ! !

(3) To solemnize this our resolve we perform today the sacrament of RAKSHA

BANDHAN Let the silken tie of a will to unite' bind, heart to heart and mind to mind, all Hindudom into one indivisible National Being and let us all proclaim with one voice—Hindu Rashtra-kī-Jay ! Hindusthan Hindnonka ! !

Interview With The Viceroy

" In order to meet the natural demand by the Hindu Sangathanists all India to know precisely what attitude I took at the interview I had with H E the Viceroy in representing the Hindu Maha Sabha view in connection with the Indian Political situation created by the European War and also to refute misrepresentation by the anti-Hindu-Sabha press, I think it advisable to issue this statement touching the salient points I emphasised during the course of my conversation at the interview and which I am free to publish without transgressing the general convention to be observed in reporting confidential consultations -

( 1 ) The Hindu Maha Sabha feels that none of the belligerent powers in Europe including Poland and above all Russia was or is actuated by any moral or human principle as " Democracy " or "the Liberties of the down trodden" or "Political Justice and equity" beyond what suited to the self-interest of the respective Nations and States. The British claim in particular that they were out to render Democracy safe in the world cannot be taken seriously in any other light but as a political stunt so long as they continue to hold India in political subjugation.

(2) Consequently, the Hindu Maha Sabha also feels itself concerned about the issues at stake in the War in so far only as they are likely to affect the safety and interest of the Hindu Nation.

( 3 ) That is why it is absolutely necessary that the British Government should make an unambiguous declaration of granting Hindusthan The Status of a self-Governing Dominion as an immediate step leading towards the final goal and to introduce responsible and popular Government at the Centre so that the Hindus may be assured that in fighting this War they are serving the cause of their National Freedom as well

(4) Any such constitution to be immediately introduced, ought to be based on no other principle of electoral representation but the Democratic one of "one man one vote irrespective of Race or Religion, Class or Creed. But if that is found unfeasible then the second best solution should be separate electorates of Hindus and Moslems, representation being based on the proportion to population. The Hindu Maha Sabha will oppose any humiliating injustice done to the Hindus by leaving a kind of electoral Zojin as the nefarious communal award does at present. The Hindus must have full representation in proportion to their population, they will tolerate nothing less, they demand nothing more. The depressed classes alone may be given a weightage or some such special protection for a definite period of time.

(5) All citizens whether they belong to minorities or majorities will be guaranteed full freedom to follow their faith, culture and language so far as it does not infringe on the equal rights of others and is consistent with public moral and peace

(6) The grant of such a constitution forthwith will persuade the Hindus in their own interest to extend 'responsive co-operation' to the British Government in so far as the defence of India during this European War is concerned.

(7) As a task of defending India from any Military attack is of common concern to the British Government as well as ourselves and as we are unfortunately not in a position to-day to carry out that responsibility unaided, there is ample room for responsive co-operation between India and England firstly in that respect Secondly, the probable entry of Russia in the War against England may threaten India with a far more serious danger of an invasion through Afghanistan The treacherous conduct of a very large section of the Moslems in India in the Khilaphat agitation during the last Great War in 1914 has taught us a lesson never to be forgotten as it is almost sure to be repeated in any future attack on India on the North Western Frontier by any alien power. The tribes men and the Moslem forces throughout Punjab, Sindh etc are very likely to betray the Hindus and rise enmasse in pursuance of the pan-Islamic designs to carve out an independent Moslem State or Federation stretching out from Baluchistan to Kashmir to Delhi. In view of the attitude of many a responsible Moslem Organization in India as revealed by their resolutions passed in their open sessions betraying their extra territorial sympathies it would be nothing short of a suicidal and purblind step on the part of the Hindus to make light of this serious danger threatening them. Under such an emergency they will have to ally themselves with the British Forces in the common objective to avert this National calamity. In order to make co-operation on the part of the Hindus in these cases effective, the British Government should forthwith take the following steps—

(a) To guard the North Western Frontier by overwhelming Hindu Military Forces instead of Moslem ones; (b) to chastise the tribes with a strong hand and to tame them into such a submission as to render them incapable to dare again to rise or revolt or raid with a view to harass the Hindu population or threaten the integrity of the Indian Nation, (c) to encourage and help with arms, ammunition and experts the efforts to raise a force of Hindu National Militia meant to shoulder the responsibility of Indian defence, (d) To Introduce compulsory Military Training in High Schools and Colleges Throughout India as in England or Germany with an up-to-date Military Efficiency. (e) to encourage and spread the movement for starting Rifle Clubs all over India which has already been set on foot in Maharashtra and Berar (f) to modify the Arms Act to bring it on par with what prevails in England. (g) to expand on an extensive

ale Indian Territorial Force and the U T C (h) to throw recruiting open to all classes ang away with the unjust, unreal and umiliating distinction of the enlisted and non-listed classes and (i) to take in general, every op to bring the Indian Army, Navy and erial forces to an up-to-date efficiency, to spire the people of India to feel instinctively at the Indian Army will be the army of the ople of India and not of their British overds and Uodertake not to use these Indian rees in any other Theatre of war outside India ch has no direct connection with the Defence India Proper

(8) The Hindu Maha Sabha emphatically erts that as the Congress does not and cannot present the Hindus, no constitutional or ministrative settlement arrived nt behind a back of the Hindu Maha Sabha between e Government on the one hand and the ngress or the League on the other, will be

Maha Sabha & the Great war

(Resolutions drafted by Veer Savarkarji)

The Working Committee does not believe in the claims of any power among the belligerent Nations engaged in the present war in Europe, some of which are themselves Imperialistic in character and outlook to the effect that it has been actuated solely by moral and altruistic considerations apart from its own National self interests. But in view of the declaration made by His Majesty's Government that it has entered the War with a desire to safeguard the vital principles of Right and Democracy as against the rule of Force—which claim does not fit in well with Britain's Imperialistic policy towards India—and in view of the fact that no where is there greater necessity for the application of these principles than in India, the Hindu Mahasabha declares as follows --

- (1) As the task of defending India from

any Military attack is of common concern to the British Government as well as ourselves and as we are unfortunately not in a position today to carry out that responsibility unaided, there is ample room for whole-hearted co-operation between India and England. In order to make such co-operation effective the British Government should forthwith take the following steps -

(a) To introduce full Responsible Government at the Centre.

(b) To redress the grievous wrongs done to the Hindus by the communal decision both at the Centre and in the provinces, particularly in Bengal and Punjab where they have been reduced to the position of fixed statutory minority contrary to all principles of Democracy.

(c) To inspire the people of India to feel instinctively that the Indian army will be the army of the people of India and not of the British.

(d). To remove artificial distinction of the so called enlisted and non-enlisted classes, that is, the martial and non-martial classes for complete Indianization of the Indian army as early as possible.

(e). To modify the Arms Act to bring it on par with what prevails in England.

(f) To expand on an extensive scale Indian Territorial Force and the Universities training corps and for establishing such Military organizations in the Provinces where they do not exist at present and to substantially increase the intake of cadets and the Indian Military Academy and to intensify their training in all branches of Warfare so that an effective defence force may be ever ready at hand.

(2). That the Government of India should take immediate steps to encourage the Indian Manufacturing firms to start manufacture of Aero Engines and Motor Engines and implements of modern warfare so that India may be made self-sufficient and not dependent helplessly on foreign countries for the supply of implements of modern Mechanization for the Indian army

(3) The Hindu Mahasabha calls upon the Hindus throughout India to organize Hindu National Militia in their respective provinces and Hindus between the ages of 18 and 40 should in as large numbers as possible immediately enrol as members thereof

(4) The Hindu Mahasabha condemns the spirit of bargaining and of taking undue advantage of the present crisis for the promotion of purely communal interest at the expense of National well being, such as has been exhibited by the Moslem League in the statement issued by its President Mr Jinnah after his interview with the Viceroy and warns the Hindus to be on their guard and to be prepared to fight for their rights and privileges as well as for the defence of Hindusthan

(5) The Hindu Mahasabha respectfully brings to the notice of His Excellency the Viceroy that the Congress does not represent the Hindus and that no settlement will be acceptable to the Hindus if arrived at behind the back of the Hindu Mahasabha in consequence of any bargain between the Government on one side and the Moslem League and the Congress on the other.

WORDY MIRAGES"

"The Statement issued by the Viceroy regarding Britain's Policy towards India with reference to the present war situation is, disappointing to a degree. The four or five columns of the verbose statement could have well been compressed into four or five sentences so far as substance is concerned. The rest is full of platitudes.

The Viceroy refers to the old and often discarded declaration that India's ultimate goal is Dominion Status, made somewhere in 1919 A. D. It has not materialised since during the last twenty years and was almost forgotten till this war broke out. The present repetition of those same vague phrases may share the same fate, if things are allowed to drift in this manner by the Indians, till another war breaks out some twenty years hence.

H. E. the Viceroy should realise that India is sick of running after this wordy mirage. But instead insists upon it as an immediate step to be taken. A constitution based on that Status must be conceded by Britain to India just at the end of this War at the latest. A definite and the shortest time limit to the actual introduction of this constitution was the essential thing which was expected by the Indian Political World and it is precisely this very point that has studiously been omitted in the statement issued by His Excellency.

Even now it is not too late to mend. The British Government must bear in mind that India can never extend a willing co-operation unless she feels that the cure of her own freedom is likely to be served in a substantial measure by offering responsive co-operation to Britain.

The Advisory Board contemplated in the Statement is welcome. But then it has not its functions and powers defined. If it is going to be a mere appendage to serve as a comouflage to conceal autocratic high-handedness then it can only mean an insult added to injury. But if it is made to serve as a tentative measure with powers more or less equal to a Federal Board of Ministers, is entrusted without reservation with matters concerning Indian defence during the War time and if its advice carried into effect as that of a responsible Council of Ministers, it may prove a step in advance on the line of political progress. But much will still depend on its composition. The Hindu Maha Sabha must secure such a representation on it as is in keeping with the proportion to population of the Hindus

Maha Sabha's far sighted & Correct lead to the Country

THE WORKING COMMITTEE OF THE HINDU MAHA
SABHA HELD ON 19TH NOVEMBER 1939 IN BOMBAY
UNDER THE PRESIDENCY OF BAR V D SAVARKAR PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS DRAFTED BY VEEI SAVARKARJI

RESOLUTION NO 1

This meeting of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha declares that — ;

(A) The events which have happened after the last sitting of this Working Committee on the 10th of September, 1939 have only confirmed the view of this committee it had expressed in its resolution passed then in connection with the real objectives which actuated the belligerents in the present European war to engage in the fight This meeting wishes to emphasise the fact that while Gandhiji the de-facto dictator of the Congress was proclaiming in a flattering mood to the effect that he was not thinking of Indian Independence

then but was chiefly concerned with the safety of England and France and proposed to offer them unconditional help in this their crusade to save Democracy in the World, when Pandit Nehruji was calling upon India to support these great democracies in the holy war they were carrying on against imperialistic aggression on Poland and other free nations and while the leaders of the Forward Block, the Communists and other parties too were swearing by the anti-Imperialistic innocence free from all political greed on the part of Poland and Russia, the Hindu Maha Sabha was about the only organized political body in India which was bold and far-sighted enough to give the correct lead to the country and to the Congress itself in ascertaining the real motives and objectives of the belligerents by asserting through its working Committee's resolution on the 10th of September that none of the Belligerent powers in Europe whether England, Germany, Poland France or Russia had been actuated by any moral, democratic or altruistic consideration apart from its own self-interest and self-aggrandisement.

(B) Nor does the recent Statement issued by H. E. the Viceroy or the speech of the Secretary of State for India in the Parliament serve to disprove or even camouflagé this real objective. On the contrary by curious self contradiction they belie the claims which they want us to believe that the only objective which had motivated Britain to continue the War had been "to resist aggression whether against England or others, to defend Great Democratic ideals and without seeking any material advantage to lay the foundation of a better inter-National system and to secure a real and lasting peace" by making it quite clear that the British Government does not mean to grant even a Dominion Status to India immediately after the war. That is why Herr Hitler when asked by Mr Chamberlain to free Poland asked the latter in return to free India first. If the problem of minority is delaying England in India, when then the same problem delays Germany in Poland.

(C) Consequently, the Working Committee opines that India is not bound for any altruistic grounds to extend, as H. E. the Viceroy expects her to do in his statement any "moral and material co-operation" to the British Government in this war—beyond what the self defence and self interest of our Nation may demand.

RESOLUTION NO 2

This meeting of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha refuses to look upon the Dominion Status as an ultimate goal as H. E. the Viceroy has assumed in the statement but instead insists upon it only as an immediate step to be taken towards the final goal of absolute political independence and that a constitution based upon that status should be conceded to India at the end of the War at the latest. Even now it is not too late to mend. A definite declaration to that effect can also evoke a responsible and willing co-operation on the part of India. The British Government must bear in mind that India can never extend a willing co-operation unless she feels that the cause of her freedom is likely to be served in a substantial measure by offering responsive co-operation to Britain.

RESOLUTION NO 3

The Advisory Board contemplated in the statement of His Excellency the Viceroy would be welcome, if it is made to serve as a tentative measure with powers more or less equal to a Federal Board of Ministers, is entrusted without reservation with matters concerning Indian defence during the War time and if its advice is carried into effect as that of a responsible Council of Ministers. But, much will still depend on its composition. The Hindu Maha Sabha must secure such a representation on it as is in keeping with the proportion to population of the Hindus.

RESOLUTION NO 4

(A) "The Hindu Maha Sabha emphatically asserts that as the Congress does not and cannot represent the Hindu, no constitutional or administrative settlement arrived at behind the back of Hindu Maha Sabha between the Government on the one hand and the Congress or the League on the other, will be binding on the Hindus unless and until it is sanctioned by the Hindu Maha Sabha.

The Hindu Maha Sabha warns the Government the Congress, and the League, that it will oppose any humiliating injustice done to the Hindus by levying a kind of electoral 'Zejia' as the nefarious communal award does at present. The Hindus must have full representation in proportion to their population, they will tolerate nothing less, they demand nothing more."

(B) "The Hindu Maha Sabha, however, is definitely of the opinion that the so-called depressed classes alone should be given weightage or reservation or some such special protection for a definite period of time."

RESOLUTION NO 5

"This Meeting of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha calls upon the Capital and Labour in the Country to utilise this unique opportunity of a European War to capture and stabilise the demand for those thousand and one foreign articles which used to pour in our market but which will now automatically ebb ' out while ' those very European Countries have ' got themselves involved in War What twenty years of "Swadeshi" preaching or efforts to prohibitive duties on foreign articles could not have done in up-rooting the foreign formidable competition which used to kill our infant industries, could be achieved in a couple of years if but our capital and labour coordinate their efforts in a spirit of patriotic and mutuality just accommodation and both by working up the existing and by starting new industries and manufactures at full speed, replace these foreign articles by Swadeshi ones and capture the market for them while it is unoccupied by foreign supply "

" It is a matter of common knowledge that during the regime of the Congress Ministry in N W F Province led by Moslems though the outrages on the Hindus by the Frontier tribes had increased in volume and intensity, no adequate measures were adopted either to resist them or to punish the offender

" But in as much as the Government of the N. W. F. Province has been taken over directly in his hand by the Governor of that Province, the Hindu Maha Sabha calls upon His Excellency to inflict condign punishment on the Moslem tribes and to tame them into such submission as to render them incapable to dare again to rise or revolt or raid with a view to harass the Hindu population or threaten the integrity of the Indian Nation. Secondly, to guard the 'N. W. F.' Province by overwhelming Hindu Military forces instead of Moslem ones. The treacherous conduct of a very large section of the Moslems in India in the Khilapat agitation during the last great war in 1914, is almost sure to be repeated in any future attack on India on the N. W. F. Province by any Moslem power. The tribesmen and the Moslem forces throughout Punjab, Sindh etc are very likely to betray and rise en masse, in pursuance of the pan-Islamic design to carve out an independent Moslem State or Federation on stretching out from Baluchistan to Kashmir to Delhi. Under such an emergency the task of defending India against the Moslem rising cannot but be of a common concern to the British Government as well as the Hindus so long as the present circumstances continue, and situated as the latter are they will have to ally themselves with the British forces in the common objective to avert this National calamity. The British Government, therefore, must in their own interest as well, trust the defence of the N W F, Province exclusively to the Hindu Military Forces

Consequently the Hindn Maha Sabha exhorts the Government to increase the scale of the recruitment of our Sikh brethren also in the Army which has of late been most unjustly lowered'

ASSASSINATION OF RAIBAHADUR BELIRAMJI DHAVAN

"The atrocious assassination of Raibahadur Beliram Dhavan the Hindu Singer

 tanist leader of Dera Ismail Khan, has added one more illustrious name to the worshipful Martyriology of the Hindu Race Unless, perchance, it is proved otherwise all accounts to hand, up to this time show clearly that the Assassin was actuated in this crime by the creed of that murderous Moslem fanaticism which was responsible for the death of Swami Shraddhanandji and a host of other Hindu Maha Sabhait and Sanghatanist leaders.

Consequently, all that needs be said here in this connection to those who may be responsible for this crime is that it is absolutely vain on their part to hope that the Hindu Sanghatanist movement can ever get demoralized by such murderous activity. Was not there a time when in Lahore itself where this crime took place, a price was put on every Sikh Head? and they could be legally hunted and killed throughout Punjab in our Guru's time? But what was the result? The Sikh Empire under Maharaja Ranjit Singh,—which sent its avenging Hindu

 er Swami Shraddhanandji was shot ad,—but did the Shuddhi die? No ousands have been carrying on the work Shuddhi forms today a daily feature of Like every movement which has an e-mission and message, the Hindu ighatanist movement too is as yet passing ough the first phase of Martyrdom and up-till-now faced it gloriously enough ring this decade alone a thousand Hindu ighatanist leaders and followers had laid n their lives as Martyrs to the Hindu se Has it deterred the Hindus from enthusiasm of the followers of the Hindu ha Sabha? Only last week at Calcutta idreds of thousands of Hindu Sanghatanists n all parts of Hindustan gathered er its folds and reasserted their determinai to carry on the righteous fight

Amongst them was Rabiachandur

Beliramji too, And on his way back from the Hindu Maha Sabha Session he has borne witness to his plèdge and laid down his life even before he could reach his home and revisit his family. Some years ago his brother too was murdered while leading the Hindu cause. But undeterred by this, Raibahadur Beliramji continued to lead the Maha Sabha movement in his Province. Blessed indeed is the family which could send forth two such heroic Souls to defend the cause of our Hindu Race, Religion and Country.

Let this be known to all concerned that every true Hindu Sanghatanist and Hindu Sabhait accepts this pre-supposed challenge before he pledges himself to defend the Hindu cause. Every true Hindu Sanghatanist does knowingly take up his cross before he joins the Mission as a soldier of God. The unconquerable Faith with which they have been facing sacrifices even unto death uptill now shall soon enable the Hindu Sanghatan movement to pass the ordeal of fire and the chapter of Martyrdom will close and open out into the chapter of Victory

The very sons of these Hindu Martyrs will form the army of Hindu Victors

In this Faith, in the meanwhile, let the Hindu Sanghatanists face the odds, utilising all legitimate and legal means of self-defence within their reach and march on !

'CAN THEY NOT THRUST A BLESSING' ?

"(1) I feel no hesitation in noting that so far as a promise goes, the announcement made by H F Lord Linlithgow regarding the intention of the British Government of introducing a Constitution granting India a Dominion Status as envisaged in the West Minister Statute at the earliest date practicable was clear and definite

(2) The proposal of expanding the Central Executive Council by the inclusion of a number of political leaders "as an immediate earnest of the Government's intention referred to above" is also not likely to be objected to by the Hindu Sanghatanist party in general. The policy of responsive co-operation implies that every inch of ground opened out on the path of constitutional progress must be occupied and utilised with a view to further progress. The immediate expansion of the Central Executive Council can be a step in that direction provided that some of the accredited spokesmen of the Hindu Maha Sabha are included in the Executive Council with a genuine desire on the part of the Government to seek and give effect to their counsel.

(3) But the condition which the Viceroy has laid down in connection with these constitutional changes is almost sure to frustrate the practicability of these proposals and it must be clearly pointed out that it has a ring of obstructive tactics about it. If the British Government is to wait till there is a harmonious versely accepted principles of National Democracy and the rules laid down by the League of Nations in connection with the minority problem—even in spite of the dissent of any anti-National and aggressive party here and there?

(4) I may mention here in passing that it is a step in the right direction that the Government has taken in announcing that the emergency commissions to the Military Service are thrown open to all Indians alike without any distinction of class or creed. I exhort the Government to make a general announcement in the same spirit and do away with the humiliating and unreal distinction in connection with the Military Service of Listed and non Listed of Military and non-Military classes altogether and throw all recruitment to the Military, Naval and Aerial service open to all Indians alike basing selection on the only common standard of personal merit " proposal that is being discussed in the press and has been backed up, if not originally conceived and initiated, by prominent Congressite leaders to the effect that the present members of the Legislatures in the country be authorized to form themselves into a sort of a Constituent Assembly to frame a National Constitution. Because,—

Firstly, the present Legislative Members were not elected on the issue of authorizing them to frame such a constitution which should be binding on the whole Nation

Secondly, the overwhelming majority in the present Legislatures comprises of Congressite Representatives. They cannot claim themselves as a Nation. The Congress is but one of the many parties in the Country. It secured this large number of votes by raising a numbers of other slogans such as breaking the prevailing Constitution by working it out and the like. There are several other parties and interests in the Country representing crores of citizens, which being independent of the Congress have never empowered the Congressites to represent them. Nay, they have been definitely repudiating the claim put forward by the Congress to speak in the name of the whole Nation, so emphatically that the Congress leaders including their outgoing president Babu Rajendra Prasad, have themselves been recently compelled to admit that the Congress represents none else but the Congressite section of the public and is consequently but a party organization. Now if the present Legislative Members are allowed to assume the right of framing a National Constitution the presence of the overwhelming majority of the Congressite members in them will naturally succeed in getting passed a frame-work which can never be entitled to be deemed a National Constitution which could only be determined by the representatives of all parties and interests in the Nation elected with a clear mandate to frame such a fundamental National constitution. Any

Constitution framed by the present members in the Legislatures can only be a one party show, a Congress Constitution. It is a sly attempt to thrust on the Nation a "Congresssocracy" under a deceptive mask of democracy.

Thirdly, because apart from the non-Hindu Constituencies the very Hindu constituency which voted for the majority of the Congress member in the last elections has now ceased to have confidence in them. Events too glaring to be enumerated here in details have compelled millions on millions of Hindu Sanghathanists who are rallying round the Hindu Maha Sabha Flag to denounce time and again the anti-Hindu and anti-National policy of the present Congressite party in the Legislatures and outside and to declare that their interests and trust have been betrayed by the Congressite majority in the Legislatures have ceased to have any confidence of the Hindu Electorate as a whole which has in the main returned them to the Legislatures and has no right therefore, even to pose as Hindu Representatives with powers to frame a permanent National Constitution for Hindusthan.

If a proposal to authorize the Legislatures to frame a Constitution is to have anything of sincerity about it, then the Congressites should first of all get the present Legislatures dissolved go back to the Electorate to get a special and definite mandate authorizing them to frame a National Constitution and then only the representatives who may be returned to the Legislatures by the Electorate can be entitled to form themselves into such a Constituent as that

In the meanwhile it must be made clear that no constitution or compromise can be binding on Hindudom as a whole unless and until it is arrived at in consultation with and the consent of the Hindn Maha Sabha."

These continuous outrages to which Hindus are subjected in the Nizam State prove to the hilt that the Nizam Government is altogether incapable of protecting its Hindu Subjects. The Hindu Maha Sabha consequently demands that the Nizam Government should be altogether overhauled so as to restore security to Hindu life and property.

THE HINDU MAHA SABHA & THE CONGRESS

“Numerous Congressite Hindus have been questioning me throughout my tours with a well meaning anxiety whether a way could be found to secure a hearty co-operation between the Hindu Maha Sabha and the Indian National Congress instead of having these two great National bodies ranged into opposite camps. I promised to these friends that I would issue a public statement in general instead of replying to each individual so that it might reach a much wider circle of such well meaning Hindus in the Congress camp

Is there a healthy and hearty co-operation between the Hindu Maha Sabha and the Congress possible? Categorically I reply both Yes and No

(1) The National Congress was based on principles which were on the whole so thoroughly Notional that had the Congress not lost its own moorings and continued in general to hold fast to these basic principles the Hindu Maha Sabha could have found no difficulty in offering a hearty co-operation with it. Under the able leadership of its early like Messrs Dadabhai Nowroji, Gokhale Lala Lajpatrai, Lokmanya Tilok and others, the Indian National Congress tried its best to sail clear of all rocks and shoals of any perverely Communal bias or short sighted anti National vagueries. But ever since the grievous error of fostering the Khilafat agitation on the Congress was committed, the Congress rapidly lost its National moorings and began even to pride itself on serving as a hand maid to the Moslems in India. As a symbolic expression more demonstrative than any substantial one could be, witness the fact that at the Kōkonada Congress Session, the Moslem Flag flew side by side with the Congress colours on the Congress Pandal, while the Hindu Flag continued to be discarded as something unclean, anti-National communal. Can such a sight as that ever fail to egg on the idea in the Moslem mind that the Moslems are a separate political entity, a Nation by themselves not organically merged into & assimilated with the Indian Nation or the Indian National Congress? Treading on the heels of the Khilaphat, came the stupid offer of blank cheques, the Communal Award, the meaningless and mendacious formulae of now "neither accepting nor rejecting", now 'loyally accepting', then 'forgetting all above it' and still persisting in working out the Award. To cap it all the Congressites did not hesitate to contest the elections as Hindus on behalf of the Hindu electorate. A true "Nationalist" of the Congress brand should not have offered himself to represent a Communal Hindu Constituency. If he did, he ought to have represented the legitimate Hindu interests. At any rate the least he should have done as an honest Nationalist and elected representative was not to suppress the legitimate grievances and betray the very Hindu electorate which returned him to the Legislature, which enabled him to exercise Ministerial powers. But the Congressite Ministers and Members got themselves elected as "Hindus" on communal tickets and as soon as they formed Governments began to pose as "Nationalists" and betrayed and even oppressed that very Hindu electorate whenever the legitimate interests of the Hindus came in clash with the Moslem ones in the name of Nationalism. Nay, the very Congressite Governments vied with each other in issuing statements to prove to the Moslems that the Congress ministries had always sacrificed Hindu interests to pander to the Moslem prejudices and loaded the latter with weighty posts, positions at the cost of the Hindus and therefore, they pleaded their 'Nationalism' ought to be above suspicion. If any one wants to get this fact verified he need only refer to the Government communique issued by Mr. Pant, the Congress Prime Minister in U. P. under his own Ministerial sign and seal wherein he cited instances after instances, as for example how his Congress Government had ordered the Hindus not to blow conches or perform the 'arties' even in private houses during the Mohurum week or given posts to Moslems in preference to the Hindus admittedly to please the Moslems and had even let go Moslems charged with murders because a certain secretary of the Moslem League wanted the Government to do so — and all this is written down in black and white and issued with a brazen face as a Government communique to prove that the Congress Government was thoroughly "National"!!

The process was simple, the Congress coveted nothing more than the confidence of Moslems and hated nothing more than that it should be dubbed by Moslems as a Hindu body. This squeamish sentimentality was exploited by the Moslems quite methodically. They had only to call the Congress a Hindu body and the latter was sure

Cannot the Hindu Maha Sabhais secure a majority in the Congress and overhaul it out of its anti-National Policy ? ”

It is only enough to point out to such of our well-meaning but sentimental Hindu brethren in the Congress that it is the Congress which has by a special resolution of the Working Committee banned the Hindu Maha Sabhais from entering the Congress and has anathematized the Hindu Maha Sabha with bell, book and candle as a Communal organization too unclean to be associated with ! Secondly, in view of this insolent attitude on the part of the Congress: why should the Hindu Maha Sabhais care to enter the Congress at all when they find that the Congress' Nationalism 'can be brought to its senses far more effectively and quickly by coming out of the Congress rather than by entering it under humiliating conditions. The Indian National Congress cannot be superior to Indian Nation itself and no Indian Nation wherein Hindudom is not also and cannot honorably claim to be an independent and powerful Nation in equal co-partnership with other non-Hindu constituents in India, can be worth a brass farthing to a Hindu who is not a traitor to his own Racial self. The Congress had banned and boycotted the Hindusabhaits well and good. Let the Hindus who stand by their racial soul and honour come out of it. Let us see where does the Congress stand if the Hindus leave it; and the Hindu electorate does not vote for it in the elections!

(III) Is there then no way at all to secure a unity of aim and action between the Hindu Maha Sabha and the Congress?

Yes, there is. And the condition also is the simplest one. It only lays down that the Indian National Congress should recover its own Self and be again a veritable Indian National Congress. There is always a paramount necessity in India to have a common National platform . on which a patriotic Hindus, Moslems and Christians and all others who are genuinely loyal to the Indian State and the Indian State alone can meet, unite and work in unision as sons of a common Mother Land. The Hindu Maha Sabha will always extend a hearty and healthy co-operation to only such National organisation. The Congress can even yet justify its claim of being such a National organisation if it repudiates the Pseudo Nationalist aberrations and takes up its stand on the following principles. —

(a) India should be one and indivisible as a political unit with a strong and well kept Central Government invested with such prestige and power as to enable it to maintain unity, integrity and freedom of the National Indian State and command a harmonious co-ordination of its different Provincial Constituents

(b) All Indians should be treated alike as Indian citizens with having equal fundamental rights and duties irrespective of caste or creed race or religion so that there can be no question at all of a Communal majority or a communal minority

Failing which as the next best but the only one alternative may be resorted to, laying it down that all communities — not only the minorities but even the majority community should be granted explicit safeguards guaranteeing equal freedom

 regarding their respective religious, cultural and linguistic life. all political representation will be based on the only definitely ascertainable and just principle of the proportion which their respective population bear to each other the public services also may follow the same proportion but only in so far as it is consistent with personal merit and public efficiency.

(c) So long as there is no electorate based on one of the above National principles insuring equitable share to all communities alike, the Congress should refuse to seek election on behalf of any communal constituency but should leave the Hindu and Moslem organizations to elect their respective representatives through their communal constituencies. The so-called general constituency under the present constitution is admittedly communal. Because it implies a division of the National electorate into Moslems, Europeans etc. separate communal electorate, and is most intolerably humiliating, unjust and detrimental to the Hindus and even the Congress has to confess that it seeks to pamper the Moslems with all undue and undeserved weightages, reservations statutory majorities and what not. Consequently the Congress if it had to keep up its prestige as an

Indian National Congress should never have demeaned itself by seeking elections under such an anti-National and unwisely communal constitution

If the Congress declares its adhesion to these fundamental National principles - pointing out sternly "Thus far but no further" and shapes its policy accordingly, the Hindu Maha Sabha will ever be found prepared to extend a hearty and healthy co-operation to any such really National institution. Because the Hindu Maha Sabha claims nothing for the Hindus which is not Nationally their due and it denies nothing to the Moslems which is Nationally due to them either on the principle of merit or population. But what the Hindu Maha Sabha can never tolerate is to despoil the Hindus of anything which is justly and equitably and Nationally theirs simply because they constitute the overwhelming majority in Hindustan their own Fatherland & Holyland

If but such an equitable co-operation is secured between the Hindu Maha Sabha and the Indian National Congress & these two great National bodies can present a united front they can save the Indian Nation from the challenge of any alien aggressions from without or treacherous designs from within.

Will the Indian National Congress take courage in both hands, accept the conditions laid down above and assume the role of a veritable "Indian National Congress?" If it does, it deserves to survive. if it does not, it is bound to get dissolved as a National Congress.

'AZAD MOSLEMS & THE 'POUND OF FLESH'

"Judging from reports received through press of the speeches, resolutions and the general trend of the Azad Moslem Conference at Delhi, the only good point which was unmistakably made out was the denunciation by considerable section of Indian Moslems, of the proposal advanced by the League, of dividing India into a number of Moslem States. The conference deserves also to be congratulated upon its definite declaration, whatever the motives, that they want India to remain one and indivisible as a Political unit

But apart from this point the conference leaves the vital differences just where they were. In fact the sting of their deliberation lies in its tail. Because it has emphatically reasserted the preposterous demands that the question of the nature and number of the safeguards which the Moslems will have, must be dictated by the Moslems themselves. That means the minority must have the right to dictate to the majority on this vital point at issue. It was Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad our 'National' President of the Congress itself who set the ball rolling in his presidential speech at Ramgarh and the Congress did not utter so much as a word to challenge it. When the Congress swallowed so comfortably the camel at Ramgarh it was not likely to strain at this gnat at Delhi. No wonder then that the Azad Conference waxed so eloquent on the National virtue of joining hands with the Congress which they voted to be the only National representative of the Indian people.

With regard to this hope which the Azad Conference seems to cherish that they can easily pat the Congress as usual into willing submission to this demand of the Moslems and thus bind the Hindus to a new humiliating pact, all that needs be said here is that these our 'National' Moslems are counting without the host. They will have to deal in the last resort, not with the Congress but with the Hindu Maha Sabha which can never accede to this preposterous demand. Any safeguards which are to be provided in the constitution must follow, in general, the principles laid down by the League of Nations regarding Minorities and questions of detail can only be settled by mutual consultation and consent of the Hindus and Moslems through their respectively accredited representatives elected on that very issue. the Hindus cannot simply be dictated on this vital point by the Moslems at their sweet will.

But what if these our National "Azad" Moslems too refuse to withdraw these claims and joining hands with the Leaguers do not unite with the Hindus nor fight for freedom as patriots?—well, all that the Hindu Maha Sabha can reply to this fear will be "Patriots fight for their Mother Land they love, as Patriots,—not as mercenaries

The real outstanding feature of the Conference so far as Hindus are concerned consists in quite a different direction. The Hindus should note in particular that this conference of National Moslems teaches them a lesson which even the resolution of the League did not imply. It is to the effect that unless and until the Hindus deprive the Congress of any right whatsoever to speak in the name of the Hindus as their elected representatives by refusing to vote for the Congress candidates,—the Congress is sure to sign a new Hindn Moslem pact which will betray Hindn interest as well as a truly National interest even in a larger measure than the communal award did "

Sikh-Brotherhood

the Citadel of Hindudom in Punjab

I thank you for the invitation you extended to me to attend the Sikh Conference under the auspices of the 'Khalsa Youngmens Union'. But prearranged public tours and engagements make it impossible for me to attend it and consequently you will all excuse my inability to do so.

However I am sending my message in these hurried lines to my Sikh brothers as you have desired me to do in your letter. The time has come when we 'Sikhs' and 'Sikhetar' Hindus should be boldly stating our case and should cease to fight shy of calling a spade in defence of our race, religion and country. Consequently I frankly jot down a few points which I trust will enable my Khalsa-brothren to cope with the situation as effectively as possible.

(I) The Sikh brotherhood must free itself mentally from the deadly influences of the Pseudo-Nationalism for which the Congress stands. The Moslems are determined to cut India into a number of independent Moslem States and can never tolerate the idea of a common and true Indian Nation in which Hindus and Moslems get merged into a political unit based on equality of citizenship without any reference to religion, caste or creed. That Nationalism had a meaning but that kind of Indian Nationalism is now a dead horse. The Congress attempts to whip it up does only serve to disarm, disorganize and disable Hindudom all the more effectively and lull it into a suicidal and false sense of security. Moslems want to be a Nation by themselves. Let them try. We Hindus also are a Nation unto ourselves and all our efforts henceforth must be consciously bent on to establish a Hindu Superlunty throughout Hindusthan. The Moslem minority has rights-but they shall not be allowed to encroach upon the rights of the Hindu majority they will get what is their due in relation to their population: but not an inch more. Our motto henceforth so far as the question of Hindu-Moslem Unity is concerned, will be: 'If you come with you if you don't, without you and if you oppose inspite of you' we Sikh and Sikheter Hindus will fight for our freedom and will be masters in our own house.

(II) With this clear rent ideology let us organize our forces independently of the Congress. So far as my Sikh brotherhood is concerned I exhort them to cut off all connections with the Congress and organize an independent and purely Sikh Party in the Panjab. I stand by you in maintaining a separate electorate for the Sikh community under the present circumstances. Do not allow any Sikh representative to 'get himself elected on and tied to a 'Congress ticket and Congress party discipline. Remember that it is the psuedo-Nationalistic attitude of the Congressite which has made Them betray the Sikh Hindu interests, life and property in the Frontier districts Kashmere and the Punjab proper-not to speak of Bengal and other parts of India. So let there be a staunch and well organized Sikh party in the Punjab Legislature-independent of the Congress, elected on purely Sikh tickets and pledged to guard Sikh interests political, cultural and religious. Then alone you will be able to oppose the Moslem block in an effective manner in the Legislature

(III) Try your best in getting the proportion in the Army of the Sikhs raised to their proper share. Here again the criminal negligence of the Congressites and the fantastic theory of 'Ahimsa have been responsible in persuading the Sikh Hindus in boycotting or at any rate neglecting their recruitment in the army for the last two decades and letting the Moslems rob them of their share in the forces both the Military and the police. The Sikhs must enter and occupy all Government services—and the Army and the police in particular. Agitate and regain your proportion in the army, the police and air force.

(IV) So far as the Pakistan is concerned, do not depend on the Congress. The foremost of its leaders have already been betraying themselves by covert and overt statements such as "Even if Punjab or Bengal is converted into an independent Moslem State, I would not mind in being their subject for after all it would be an Indian State and Indian rule." or that "If Moslems unanimously demand a Pakistan no power on earth can stop them from having it." How cowardly—a direct incitement to the Moslems to get united on that demand! Witness again the support which Congressite leaders openly give to the demand of the so-called 'Nationalist' Moslems' Azad Conference claiming that Moslems alone must have the right to dictate what safeguards political cultural etc. they want. The Hindus can only say ditto to it.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of the Pakistan Resolution marked with a red pencil which was passed by the Working Committee of Hindu Maha Sabha in May last. It "emphatically asserts that Moslem rule is bound to be as dangerous and therefore as unacceptable to the Hindus as any foreign rule can be".

Please to pass an equally strong resolution against the Pakistan scheme and denounce the Congressite attitude towards it. The Congress can speak only on behalf of the Congressites. It has no right whatsoever to speak on behalf of Sikhs or Sikh-tar Hindus.

(V) - And above all and most important of all set on foot immediately a Sikh National Militia. A Sikh Volunteer force equipped and trained and disciplined on military lines which may be trebly more powerful than the rowdy Khaksars or the serpentine Khitmatgars can ever prove to be. Bend all your energies on this one item, a Sikh volunteer force, for a couple of years to come and bring it to such Military efficiency that it can convert itself into a standing army of the Sikhs if ever the Pakisthan threatens to be a fact. We are on the defensive, must work with only legitimate means at our disposal, will hate no non-Hindu community for nothing - but we must be in as powerful a position especially in Punjab that no non-Hindu community can dare to hate us or harm us and aim to reduce us to political helotage.

Therefore raise immediately a Sikh Volunteer corps a Sikh Militia fully trained and equipped on Military lines. This one work is the foremost and first charge which the Sikh brotherhood must attend to forthwith. This alone can provide the sanction behind all other activities and resolutions which otherwise are but mere froth and foam bespeaking vanity more than valour.

May the spirit of Shri Guru Govindsingh inspire and inform and guide you once more and all would be well. And if then the Moslems still persist in dreaming of a Pakisthan in Punjab, they shall wake to find a Sikhisthan instead—spreading out its powerful arms to Attak on that side and Delhi on this History vouches that there are more chances for the latter event than the first

Our kith and kin, bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh,—the strength of our Sikh brotherhood constitutes the citadel of the strength of Hindudom as a whole in Punjab.

With all best wishes and “Wah Gurujiki Fatte, Wah Gurujiki Khalsa”

“THE AGGRESSIVE ATTITUDE OF MOSLEMS IN THE BARODA STATE.”

“My attention has been drawn to the knife they carried on through centuries against the Hindus with a view to raise themselves to an unchallengable majority in Gujarath by wiping out the Hindus

'So far as the sundry "grievances" of the Moslems in the Baroda State are concerned, will they cast a glance at the Hyderabad State and the grievances the Hindus are subjected to there? How many anti Moslem riots had there been in the Baroda State of the Bular type throughout this century. And does a year pass without subjecting the Hindus to that kind of riotous outrages in the Nizam State? The Hindus in the Nizam State constitute some 90% of the population and yet the Nizam maintains that he has been more than generous in allotting them 50% representation in the State Legislature. Has the League which is so pathetically breaking its heart over the "grievances" of the Moslems in the Hindu States ever expressed any disapproval of this anti Hindu policy of the Nizam or sympathised with the Hindus there?

“So far as the separate electorate is concerned, let the Nizam set the example first. There the Moslems are demanding joint electorate because it suits them thus While in Baroda they are denouncing it. They cannot both eat the cake and have it.

“The fact is that it is no longer a question of logic The Moslems are out deliberately to dominate Hindudom in India and as a part of that “Pakisthan” scheme, to set on foot a subversive agitation in the Hindu States The time has consequently come that Hindu States in general and Baroda in particular should forthwith nip in the bud this Moslem agitation by flatly proclaiming that no community in the State will have any representation out of their proportion to their population strength The minorities will get their due. If they are 7% in the Baroda State, they can only claim that much and not an inch more. The rights of the majority Religious, Civil, Political must be guarded as zealously as similar rights legitimately due to minorities The Hindu princes should bid good-bye to that cowardly misgiving which made the Hindus up to this time fight shy of checking Mos'eni aggression for fear of encouraging communal estrangement. The best way to put down all Communal strife is to bring the bully to book. To placate him only inflames him all the more.

"I call upon the Hindus in the Baroda State to organize a State Hindu Sabha as they have in Travancore, to hold conferences from town to town and counteract by all legitimate means such subversive demands on the part of the Moslems. It must be made clear that the Hindus who did not tolerate the Aurangzebian 'Jazia' are not going to tolerate this electoral 'Jazia' either.

"The policy of the Hindu Maha Sabha towards the Hindu States is in general of Benvolent non intervention." But if the League or the Congress or any other party steps in to foment any agitation likely to subvert or endanger the stability of the Hindu States the Hindu Maha Sabha will leave no stone unturned to counteract it and defend the Hindu States as well as the legitimate rights of the Hindus therein.

ON AMERY'S PLEASANT PLATITUDE—

opposition as well

“It is well that Mr Amery, the Secretary of State for India should have emphasised in his latest speech on the 15th of June, “The sincere desire on the part of the British Government that India should as a willing partner attend the same Status in the British Common Wealth as is enjoyed by the Dominions or for the matter of that by ourselves”.

“—But after how many decades or centuries, please? That is really the crucial point and Mr. Amery's deliberate omission of the time limit reduces his assurance to a pleasant platitude only.

“Unwittingly enough Mr. Amery chose an occasion to make this reference to India which betrayed him without his knowing it. It was the 725th Anniversary Celebration of the magna Carta day Mr Amery waxed eloquent on the achievement of his forefathers who got the Magna Carta signed on that day by their own King. They refused to be satisfied with more pleasant platitudes and determined to render all procrastination impossible on the part of King John, and armed to the teeth surrounded him and compelled him to sign the Carta then and there. Mr Amery rightly glories in this achievement of his forefathers in rendering all procrastination impossible on the part of King John and yet in the same breath plays the part of King John in trotting out excuses in justifying the procrastination policy on the part of the British Government towards India. Does he want India to play the part of his glorious forefathers to justify her claim to get her Magna Carta signed by the British Government here and now?

‘And what is the excuse for this reluctance to grant forthwith at least the Dominion Status to India? In the traditional accents of autocrats says Mr Amery, The only obstacle in granting this freedom rises from the inherent complexities in India’s own Religious Social and Historic structure’. In short the worn out excuse of India’s unfitness the absence of an agreed constitution the minority problem!

"But if that be the only obstacle in the way of translating Mr. Amery's pious wish into action, is not he and the British Government aware of the fact that they had already found out a panacea on all ills in all lands arising out of the minority troubles, out of "the complexities in their Social, Religious, and Historic structure", in the international rules laid down by the League of Nations and countersigned by the British as well as the Indian Government? Why does not the British Government frame a constitution based on these principles in connection with the minority and majority relations and grant Dominion Status to India forthwith? Why Mr. Amery and the British Government have grown so God fearing all of a sudden as to care for an United India's consent in the case only of this particular step? If they were powerful enough and conscientious enough to conquer India without India's United demands or to thrust Communal Decisions on her inspite of her protest or to scrap all constitutional Government and introduce undiluted autocratic control only the other day on the outbreak of War without caring for India's United Consent, —can they not be powerful and conscientious enough to introduce a Dominion Constitution based on the just and International principles laid down by the League of Nations in immediate future inspite of the obstructive tactics of an aggrandising minority? If you yourselves justified in inflicting curses on others per force, you should feel yourselves a hundred times more justified in thrusting blessings on them even though they are not unanimously appreciated down to a man

“The fact is that British Government is not as yet brought into an honest frame of mind even under the shadow of this disastrous War, and so long as they refuse to trust Indians, raise them to equal partnership in the Common Wealth and to an up-to-date Military efficiency, no amount of platitudes can enable even those Indians who are willing to extent responsive, co-operation to Briton during and after this war, to do so effectively. Because, let no one forget that the policy of responsive co-operation does in itself imply a responsive opposition as well."

TWO PARTIES

Br. Savarkar's Reply To Gandhiji

The following statement was issued by Br Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha in connection with Gandhiji's recent article in Harijan.

"In one of his recent articles in the Harijan under the caption of the "Two Parties" Gandhiji asserts that the Hindu Mahasabha would no doubt want favoured treatment for Hindus including Hindu States. Now, he knows perfectly well at least he ought to have known by referring to its leading resolutions before he made such a sweeping statement regarding the Mahasabha that it never wanted any favoured treatment for the Hindus whether as to the Legislatures or services or safeguards beyond what was legitimately due to them either on the principle of the population proportion or merit or any other National test, provided it was applied equally to all. It is in the interests of the Indian Nationalism itself that the Hindu Mahasabha cannot tolerate that the Hindus should be deprived of an inch of their legitimate rights of citizenship, simply because they formed the majority, in order to bestow any undeserved, favoured treatment on the Moslems simply because they happened to be in a minority.

"But in spite of being fully aware of this attitude of the Hindu Maha Sabha Gandhiji has deliberately indulged in misrepresenting it as he wanted somehow to bracket the Hindu Mahasabha with the League as an anti-National body so that the "National" pose he now wants to arrogate to himself and the Congress may be brought into relief by contrast.

"That to ask a favoured treatment for a community over and above other is anti-national."

constitutes a thesis on which, of all persons in the world, it is Gandhiji and his Congressite followers who ought to learn much from the Hindu Mahasabha instead of trying to teach it. Was it not Gandhiji himself who offered Blank Cheques to the Moslem Leaguers whom he himself characterised as frankly communal? Who issued Government communiques on behalf of the seven Congress Ministries and especially that disgraceful one issued by Mr. Pant, the Congressite Minister in U. P. assuring the Moslems that the Congress Government did always treat the Moslems far more favourably than they did the Hindus, that they robbed the Hindus of their dues to pay the Moslems what was not due to them and paraded the fact as a "National" achievement? Who abetted the treacherous designs of the Congressite Ali brothers to encourage the Amir to invade India? Who did not dare to embarrass the Nizam or certified that there was Rama-Raj in Bhopal, but did not hesitate to harass the relatively more progressive Hindu states alone? Who "loyally accepted" the Communal Award which loaded the Moslems with favoured treatment and made the Hindus to pay the bill? Or does the Congress or Gandhiji mean that to ask favoured treatment for the Hindus and the Hindu States is always anti-National, but to placate the Moslems with it constitutes the very kernel of Indian Nationalism? If the Hindu Mahasabha wants anything it is not a favoured treatment for the Hindus but to lay the axe at the root of Pseudo-Nationalism of the Gandhist brand

"The claim advanced further, on in that article by Gandhiji to the effect that the Congress can alone speak in the name of the Indian Nation as a whole, is also vitiated by facts which he has admitted in the course of that very same article. If a very large section of Moslems insists upon an independent representation and do not recognise the Congress as their spokesman on the one hand and if millions on millions of Hindu Singhatanists make it quite clear that they cannot trust the Congress to represent either the Hindu interests or the National interests and maintain that the Congress has consequently no right to represent them and if several other parties like the Democratic Swarajya Party or the Independent Labour Party of Dr Ambedkar or the Liberals and others, disown the Congress as definitely as possible, what credentials the Congress can have to arrogate to itself to represent All India or to speak in the name of India as a whole ?

“The fact is that the Congress can speak in the name of the Congressites alone. It is as much a party having no claim to speak on behalf of All India as any other party in the Land. So far as the Hindu Maha Sabha is concerned, we want to make it clear once and for all that no agreement arrived at between the Congress and the Government or the Congress and the Moslem League, can be binding on Hindudom as a whole unless and until the Hindu Maha Sabha is made a party to it and secures its sanction. The Congress may deliver or accept goods which belongs to the Congress. But it has no right to pilfer and deliver goods which do not belong to it but belong to Hindudom as a whole nor to accept the delivery of any fancy products to its order like the Communal Award and call on the Hindus to pay the bill unless the Hindu Maha Sabha authorises the transaction.

"Curiously enough Gandhiji says," It was an illusion created by ourselves that we must come to an understanding with all parties before we can make any progress." It must be pointed out in this connection that the responsibility for this illusion cannot now be shifted on to others by Gandhiji by so naive a trick. It is not "we" but it is only your goodself and the Congress who are responsible for this illusion. Who kept swearing by the suicidal slogan all along that there could be no political progress no Swarajya till the Moslems were persuaded at all cost to condescend to unite with us? It was the Hindu Maha Sabha alone which dispelled the illusion by administering the virile antidote "If you come with you—but if you don't in spite of you"—the struggle for progress for a truly National Swarajya will and can continue till victory is won."

MESSAGE

Long live Dr Hedgewar !!

Deeply moved at the news of Dr Hedgewar's death Bar A D Sawarkar !!

President of the Hindu Maha Sabha sent the following Telegram to Nagpur on 21st instant.

"Hindu Maha Sabha Mourns the Death of Doctor Hedgewar with Deepest Grief Hedgewar is dead-long live Hedgewar: Hedgewar is dead-long live the Sangha !!!"

Dr. Hedgewar—Day

All Hindu Sabhas throughout India should observe the 30th of June, 1940 Sunday, as the Day of mourning to condole the death of Dr. Hedgewar of Nagpur, the Founder of the famous Rashtriya Swayamshevak Sangha.

"Every provincial Hindu Sabha should immediately instruct its district Sabhas to observe this day in time on the receipt of this Circular. If it is found necessary, the Provincial Sabha should wire to the District Sabha instructions so that they may get them in time

"The general programme should only consist of two main items. The Hindu Sabha offices should have their Hindn flags blown half mast and there should be a public meeting to pass Resolution of condolence on the death of the 'great Hindn Sanghatanist'. The Resolution should be forwarded to the president provincial Hindn Sabha Nagpur (Shrimant M G Chitanis, M L. A., Chitnavis pura, Nagpur, C P ")

HEROIC BEGGARS

Cannot hide their Begging Bowl

(I) "In order to dispel any possible misunderstanding caused by the haphazard news published in the Press as hearsay, I wish to make it clear that the interview which I the viceroy had with me as the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha was in the main frank, considerate and cordial. While some of the issues raised in the Resolution passed by the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha were satisfactorily clarified in the interview on some other points a further clarification is still necessary before the Maha Sabha can arrive at a definite conclusion. It is advisable therefore, to wait for at least a fortnight longer before Working Committee can be acquainted with full, final and definite information regarding the negotiations, Consequently, the Committee will probably meet in the second week of August next.

In the meanwhile the policy chalked out by the Resolution of the working Committee passed at Bombay on the 19 th of May last holds good and the Hindu Maha Sabha as an organization cannot extend active co operation with the war efforts till the Working Committee meets again and arrives at a final conclusion regarding the question in the light of the Government attitude towards its demands which will be fully clarified by that time

“ It should be noted however that the standing resolution referred to above leaves the members of the Hindu Maha Sabha free to co-operate in their individual capacity and discretion with any Military war efforts in particular on the part of the Government which are genuinely meant to defend India against foreign or internal anarchy provided always that they are in no way detrimental to Hindu interests.

(II) " So far as the Congress Working Committee's Resolution passed at Delhi is concerned, all that need be pointed out here is the fact that while it urges the British Government to recognize Independence of India it does so in so far as only an announcement to that effect is concerned. Because for all practical purposes it seems to be contented if but 'a National Government' is constituted out of the present elected Legislative Members and that too not by an Independent India but, most inconsistently enough by the sanction of that very British Government the immediate cessation of which it demands in its first clause. In short the Congress Resolution too recognizes in so many words "an intermediate step", 'a transitory measure' and depends for it on the British sanction. This even heroic beggars cannot long hide their begging bowl !

“ We would not have emphasised this point here but for the mockheroic pose which some Congressites assume in criticising the Hindu Maha Sabha when it calls a spade a spade and does not hesitate to utilise the Dominion Status as a stepping stone to our ultimate goal of absolute political Independence.

“ But even leaving aside this inevitable inconsistency which the Congress had to resort to, it must further be pointed out that the National Government which they propose can never be acceptable to the Hindu Maha Sabha if it is to be constituted out of the present legislatures only. Because the Congress knows that the Congressite representatives who form the majority in them were never elected to represent the special interests of Hindudom as a whole and who betrayed Hindu interests, life, property and honour without let or hindrance during the last three years or so. The Hindu Maha Sabha will of course welcome a National Government as a transitory measure. But for a Government to be truly National, it must include Hindu representatives in proportion to Hindu population who are pledged to protect Hindu interests and consequently possess the confidence of Hindudom as a whole. ”

THE HINDU LEAGUE (U.P.)
& HINDU MAHA SABHA

"In pursuance of the Resolution passed by the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha regarding the Hindu League Conference at Lucknow convened by Sjt Kunwar Gurunarayan, Veer Savarkarji, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha had written a letter to Sjt Lokanayak Aney informing him that it would be detrimental to the consolidated Hindu front to usher in any Hindu organization parallel or opposed to the Hindu Maha Sabha. Such a step was not unavailing for as it was bound to prove a failure in running counter to the Hindu Maha Sabha movement. But there could be no objection if it aimed to provide a platform for Hindus of all parties on some specific points and issues on which any agreement was likely to exist amongst Hindus of all shades and opinions. Sjt. Lokanayak Aney replied that he would never lend his support to any Hindu organization which aimed to run parallel or counter to the Hindu Maha Sabha which had already come to occupy the position of being acknowledged spokesman of Hindudom as a whole. The Hindu Sanghathanist party led by Sir Jwala Prasad Shrivastav in U. P. informed the conveners of the Hindu League Conference that it could join the League Conference if but the Policy of the League was chalked out on the basis of the Resolution of the Hindu Maha Sabha referred to above. Sjt Kunwar Gurunarayan and other leaders of the League who also have the best interests of Hindudom at heart were only glad to assure the Hindu Sanghathanists that the League never aimed to claim to be a Hindu body parallel to the Hindu Maha Sabha and meant in fact to strengthen and help the consolidated Hindu front represented by the Hindu Maha Sabha Thereupon Sir Jwala Prasad Shrivastav sent the following telegram to Veer Savarkarji — "Kunwar Gurunaranjanji agreed that the League should confine itself to fighting Pakisthan and provide common platform for Hindus for that purpose Now I would esteem your approval and support of League programme " To this telegram Veer Savarkarji wired reply thus — "Thanks amicable agreement Full confidence in Aneyji, yourself and Kunwar Gurunaranjan Anti-Pakisthan movement and All India Census should form the special charge of the Hindu League These two specific activities constitute enough scope for all energy the League can command for active work throughout this year Hope success to the Hindu League Conference "

Veer Savarkar's Health

"Barrister Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha thanks those numerous leaders and institutions all ver

India for their kindness in inquiring after his health.

"Although it was very unfortunate that he could not be cured, enough to see the Viceroy on the 13th August still owing to the vigilant efforts of Doctors Tirodkar, Purandare and others there is a slight recovery, recorded. But it will take, at least a month, to get rid of the acute pain in his legs. So all programmes have been cancelled".

Interview with the Viceroy postponed

"Whereas I found myself unable, owing to my illness which has confined me to bed for more than a fortnight, to interview H. E. the Viceroy in spite of the kindness with which His Excellency had extended the dates twice to suit my convenience. I have at last forwarded to H. E. the Viceroy a confidential and important communication in writing, yesterday, acquainting the Viceroy with the tendencies and views of the meeting, of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha held at Nagpur as I was acquainted with them formerly by Dr B S Moonje, the Vice-President of the Hindu Maha Sabha and other leaders. The communication I hope, at any rate, will reach the Viceroy in time. Later on when I am cured enough, I hope I shall certainly have the advantage of interviewing H E the Viceroy to discuss on matter on leading Political issues especially in Sindh and Bengal."

Veer Savarkar's Health "The Sciatic Pains."

"The sciatic pains in the leg of Barrister Savarkar continues to be acute. Medical experts are paying every anxious attention in treating his case. Last night he had relatively better sleep. Hindu Sabha officers and officers of some leading Hindu Sanghats are papers are visited by crowds of anxious public to know the state of Barrister Savarkar's health. Visits to the President personally in the sanatorium are still not allowed.

"Yesterday important letter from Viceroy has been received by the President regarding Political situation. The Viceroy expresses in his letter personal and touching anxiety regarding his health. General Statement by Hindu Maha Sabha will be issued by Barrister Savarkar, the President, as soon as he is recovered stating the policy of Hindu Maha Sabha regarding political situation."

Working President During President's illness.

"Barrister V. D. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha after receiving necessary medical treatment at the Sanatorium was taken home yesterday through an ambulance car, under medical advice to undergo the very Congressite leaders who are never tired of condemning "Communalism" and of pluming themselves up as nationalists of the truest breed. Witness for example the speeches of Sjt. Rajagopalacharya who has tacitly assured the Moslem Leaguers that the Congress will not strain much to swallow even the Pakisthan pill if but that pleased the League and persuaded the Moslems to oblige the Hindus by joining into a 'National Government'. How curious it is to see that even the Congressite leaders like Sjt. Rajaji should fail to perceive that the two terms "Pakisthan" and an "Indian National Government" are in themselves self-contradicting and self destructive and how typical it is of the Congressite conception of 'National Unity' that such eminent Congress leaders should have given an open assurance to the Moslems regarding the Pakisthan long before even the British Government dared to do so. The "sportive offers" of Sjt. Rajgopalacharya are becoming as much a public nuisance as the 'Inner Voices' of Gandhiji are wont to be.

IV But whatever be the anti Hindu demand of the Moslems, the Machiavellian policy of the British Statesmen in egging them on or the suicidal 'Blank Cheques' and 'Sportive Offers' tragedies of the Congressite Pseudo Nationalism,—the Hindu Maha Sabha at any rate can and will never accept any other principle to determine the representation of the Moslem Minority other than their population ratio

V. " And if but all Hindus who still live, breathe and have their being as Hindus whether they happen to be in the Congress or otherwise unite themselves as Hindus demanding and defending that the Hindu Majority too must have its legitimate rights as zealously guarded and secured as the rights of anyone else, no one can deprive the Hindus of their representation in proportion to their population simply because they happen to be in majority or favour the Moslems as if they were a set of suffering saints simply because they happen to be a minority. Let all Hindus once for all declare that the Moslems have not obliged the Hindus by being in minority and the Hindus are in majority because they proved themselves fit to struggle for National existence. In fact Democracy itself ought to assure the Hindus as the overwhelming majority in Hindusthan to rule unchallenged. But even the spirit of compromise can never go further than the principle of representation in legislatures etc. in relation to population.

VI Let the Hindus know it for certain that it is but the Hindus along with the Hindu States organize a Pan Hindu front pledged to defend Hindu rights alone without let or hinderance the Hindus will very soon be found far more powerful a factor in Indian Political life than Mr Amery fancies today the Moslem minority to be and the Britishers will be compelled to placate the Hindus more desperately than they at present do the Moslem minority.

The Indivisibility and Independence of India, representation in proportion to population basis and public services to go by merit alone - these are the fundamental principles on which the Hindu Maha Sabha has taken its stand ever since its formation and it will not budge an inch in future from it even if the worst comes to the worst.

Moslem League Demands turned down

“Ever since the meeting of the Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha last month in Bombay Barrister V. D. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha has been in constant communication with H. E. the Viceroy clarifying the attitude taken up by the Hindu Mahasabha in those resolutions. It is reported that in his latest letter to the Viceroy he has thanked His Excellency for the firmness and fairness with which the Viceroy turned down some of the unreasonable, aggressive and even treacherous demands of the Moslem League such as, for example, the one in which the League aimed to dictate that no Moslem forces in the Indian Army should be employed to fight even with alien Moslem army invading India. The turning down of these unjust demands of the Moslems has, writes Barrister Savarkar, removed a number of misgivings raised by the League resolutions in the mind of the Hindu public. Further negotiations are carried on regarding the Mahasabha's Resolutions between the Viceroy and Barrister Savarkar.”

Beware Cutch Kathiawar

Cutch Kathiawar is the most cherished asset of Hindudom as a Land where Shri Krishna Bhagwan ruled—lived, moved and had his being. Fortunately for us Hindus this Holy Kshetra, almost all Cutch Kathiawar relatively speaking to Bombay, Madras etc is still, to a great extent, a Hindu Raj where Hindu Princess hold the sway and Hindus are in overwhelming majority. We owe this to the conquering forces of the Hindu Empire in Maharashtra who smashed the Moslem Power in Gujarat just in the nick of time and saved Hindudom in Cutch-Kathiawar from meeting the fate which Sindh had to face. This is History—the story of yesterday.

But what of today if our Hindu brothers in Cutch-Kathiawar do not awake in time they will find themselves threatened within a dozen years to come and overwhelmed by a similar anti-Hindu fanatical aggression which is already gathering forces menacingly on the very threshold of the very next door Province—Sindh

That is the very reason that I am so delighted to find that the Hindus are being stirred up in Kathiawar-Cutch which the mighty Pan-Hindu Revival, the great movement of Hindu Sanghatan which is already growing from strength to strength throughout Hindustan. Let the Hindus in Cutch-Kathiawar, from the Princes to the Peasants get themselves organised as Hindus and grow powerful to defend Hindudom openly and fearlessly as soon as possible so that they may not only save Cutch-Kathiawar from meeting the fate which Sindh had to face but be in a position to defend and safeguard our endangered Hindu brethren in Sindh itself.

May Cutch Kathiawar soon prove to be a strong hold of Hindu Strength

FREE HINDUSTHAN'S FUTURE EMPEROR

Savarkar Hits Out Gandhiji

Under the caption "Hyderabad" Gandhiji recently has written an article in the Harijan "dated the 13th October 1940, purported to be a reply to a real or fancied correspondent who wanted to know what Gandhiji thought of the "Right of Hyderabad to the Territories of Berar, Ceded Districts, Karnatic etc, which had been taken away by the British under some pretext or the other"

It is not any special merit which attaches to this article but it is the mischievous effect it is sure to produce on the Moslem public mind by inciting them to press on the Pakistan movement with added zeal that the article must be brought to the notice of the Hindu public and condemned forthwith.

From the trend of the article, it is clear that the article is deliberately meant by Gandhiji to goad

the Moslems on to continue the Pakistanian movement with greater confidence in as much as he extends in the course of the article a covert support and holds before the eyes of the Moslem fanaticism an assurance that if but the Moslems dare to strike in time to establish a Moslem Empire in India, the move is very likely to succeed and could be in a way morally and politically justified.

We have it on the evidence of no less reliable an authority than Swami Shradhanadji himself that during the last Anglo-German War of 1914 Gandhijiabetted the treacherous move on the part of the Moslem leaders to invite the Amir Amanolla of Afghanistan to invade India. Mr. A. J. Karandikar has recently written a series of articles in the Kesari and the Mahratta quoting chapter and verse, and proved it to the hilt that the charge was true.

Even recently time and again Gandhiji and his Congressite henchmen have stated it covertly and overtly that if the Moslems are bent upon cutting India piecemeal and convert parts of it into purely Moslem Raj, no power could stop them doing so and these Congressite patriots would not hesitate to subject themselves to this would be Pakistan as that also would be an Indian Rule.

If we take into consideration, in addition to this, the contact Gandhiji has been trying to establish with the Frontier Tribes for several years by sending out his trusted emissaries like Miraben, Perinben, Bhulabhai, Asafbhai and a number of other Bens and Bhais to woo the Pathans and plead their cause that it is the economic and moral starvation alone which has compelled these poor Frontier Tribes, whom Gandhiji styles as "God-fearing," to take to such "legitimate" means of securing relief a looting, kidnapping abducting, forcibly converting and murdering the Hindu men and women in the Frontier districts,—when we take into consideration all these activities, past and present, of Gandhist group and then read this article written by Gandhiji, no shred of doubt could be left in the mind of any clear-sighted Hindu reader as to the fact that Gandhi and his Congressite Hindu followers are about to play once again the same mischief, which they tried to play in the last Anglo-German war, they would not hesitate to help the Moslem in the treacherous plot of Pakistan which they are already hatching to re-establish Moslem suzerainty in India, either by compelling the Hindus to acquiesce in a constitution after the Pakistan model under British pressure or by resorting to an armed revolution in case the British are perchance compelled by a crushing defeat in the World War to leave India and no new invader steps in.

Not Litigation But Steel And Gun Powder Decide The Fate Of Kingdoms!

If a correspondent has really asked Gandhiji what he thought about the 'Right of Hyderabad to the restitution of the Ceded territories and believed that if but the equity of the case is certified under the sign and seal of the Shiegun tribunal, the British Government would forthwith restore the territories to the Nizam he must be a simpleton indeed. It is steel and gun powder that decide the restitution of Kingdoms! But in spite of it all, Gandhiji only goes on asking the silly question as to why it was asked and delivers his judgment to the effect "So

Now, making allowance for the fact that Gandhiji knows as little of Indian History as of Hebrew, he should have known at least this much about the case he so seriously argues that the Ceded territories were ceded by the Nizam to the English in return of the protection which the English offered him against the conquering Mahratta forces.

The Mahrattas had well-nigh finished the Nizam at Kharda and he knew that he would soon be standing as a prisoner at the gate of the Peshwas in Poona, where his Vazir was already undergoing the same fate, if he did not call in the English to protect him. The other territories were conquered by the English from the Nizam by the right of the sword,

But, if perchance Gandhiji refuses to recognise any right which is based on the conquest by sword as right at all, then instead of asking the English to restore the conquered and ceded territories to the Nizam Gandhi must ask the Nizam to evacuate even the territories which he possesses at present for the simple reason that he usurped the whole Dominion from the Moghul Emperor who had appointed the Nizam as his Governor, by an armed revolt against his own Master

The Real 'Rightful Owner' is The Maharaja Of Vijayanagar

Nay if the right of the conquest by sword is out of court altogether then the first rightful owner who could be ascertained at present and to whom the whole territory the Nizam possesses as well as the ceded districts etc. ought to be restored straight, is the Maharaja of Vijayanagar! For it was his ancestors who were the rightful owners of that kingdom before the Moslem hoards "came with iron hands and from our fathers snatched the Land"

But leaving this question of "right" aside, Gandhi proceeds. If I am asked as a matter of equity I can only state that the people of the respective parts i e. Berar, Ceded districts, Karnatic etc., should be asked to make their choice, that is the only equity I know" Now, no one can have any objection to this pleasant platitude but for the fact that it is restored to as a subterfuge to shirk the risk of telling the whole truth The real bone of contention in such a matter is bound to be, how to ascertain this choice of the people.

If Gandhiji was serious in holding up the democratic principle then instead of stoping short with this innocuous platitude he should have unequivocally stated that the people's choice must be determined by the majority vote. But he knew the fact that the majority, not only of the ceded districts but of even the Nizam State itself being Hindus, a free plebiscite was bound to call upon the Nizam to clear out of the State altogether and any clear statement on the part of Gandhiji holding up the right of the Hindu majority would have consequently angered the Moslems whom in the latter part of the article he wanted to please in particular

That is why he stopped short of telling the truth. The cult of soothsayers through all ages who swear that they tell nothing but truth has had always to resort to the subterfuge telling half truths which are often worse than lies, whenever they want to avoid the risk of telling the real truth and yet save their reputation as truth tellers.

Gandhiji paints the Nizam supported by the Frontier Tribes as the prospective Emperor of India and certifies that Empire as a cent per cent Indian National Home Rule!!

Not satisfied with only answering the question asked by the correspondent regarding the right of the Nizam to have the ceded and other districts only Gandhiji utilizes the occasion to enter into a digression totally unconnected with the original question. After beating about the bush a great deal regarding the different possibilities of the future development of Indian political situation and after a string a number of absurdities he comes to the conclusion that in case the British power is overthrown in India as the result of the war and in case no other non-Indian world-power steps immediately in the shoes of Britain to rule India which consequently would be left in the throes of an internal anarchy, "the strongest power in the Land will hold sway over all India and this," Gandhiji avers, "May be Hyderabad for aught I know. All other big and petty chiefs will ultimately succumb to the strongest power of the Nizam, who will be the Emperor of India."

But what will be the role of the Congress and Gandhiji himself under these circumstances? According to Gandhiji "the poor Congress if it is true to its creed of non-violence will die." Quite a sound view, that such a body devoted to such a creed can be blessed with no other fate! Even Gandhiji who says in the article, "I am a man of faith and to a man of faith nothing is impossible," admits that the Congress future is dark! "The existing state of things does not warrant any optimistic outlook."

But Gandhiji will not feel quite out of sorts even if the Congress dies and such an anarchy sets in

For says he, "If you ask me in advance, I would face anarchy to foreign, orderly rule whether British or any other I would unhesitatingly plump for anarchy say the rule of the Nizam supported by the chiefs become feudatory to him or supported by the border Moslem tribes " Because" Gandhiji pointedly observes, 'in my estimation such a rule,—under the Nizam raised to be the Emperor of India by reducing all other Hindu chiefs to his feudatories with the help of the border Moslem tribes—such a rule will be cent percent domestic It will be Home Rule "

And after all this Gandhiji adds But this is all academic',

But Was Not The Rule Of An All India Or An Aurangzeb Also A Cent Per Cent Domestic Rule?

Of course speaking Aurangzeb too was born and bred in India But was his Rule on that account looked upon by the Hindus as "Home Rule"? No. It was on the contrary hated by them as a veritable hell and the rule of any Moslem conqueror in future is bound to be similarly hated and overthrown by a new Shivaji or Bajrao or Ranjit

Why not Vinoba Bhave instead.

For this reason and also from the Ahimsak point of view, we sincerely request Gandhiji that it will be more in keeping with the principle of Ahimsa that he should not compromise with either logic or reason or circumstance or even with destiny. He himself has averred that he is a man of faith and to a man of faith like him nothing is impossible. Then why not once for all make it "possible" to have the Ahimsak Empire itself firmly established in India at a stroke "of faith"? Fortunately for us there is Vinoba Bhave at hand who with the spinning-wheel is doubtless better fitted as the first Ahimsak Emperor of India than a Nizam bustling with spears, swords and guns from top to toe.

But the insurmountable difficulty which perhaps might have rendered Vinoba Bhave inteligible to this high honour seems to be the fact that after all he still continues to be a Hindu and no Moslem can ever submit to a Hindu Rule. But as Hindus at any rate those of the non violent school can but only feel honoured to tender subjection to a Moslem Rule and as it is impossible to find a Moslem dedicated to non violence, Gandhiji was perhaps left with no choice but to offer the Crown to His Exalted Highness the Nizam.

A Friendly Suggestion To The Nizam

Be that as it may we cannot refrain ourselves from offering a friendly suggestion to the Nizam that he should think twice before he allows His Exalted head to get well on with any one who quivers and trembles before the Pathetic Moslems and the few Hindus of my school. Gandhiji need not feel humiliated to a Hindu.

 Last time these very Gandhi-Azads along with the Khilaphatists persuaded Amanulla the Amir to believe that he was the God-appointed heir—apparent to the Indian throne. As Fate would have it Batcha-i-Saka the son of a water-carrier finished him. This time the very ill-omened Gandhist group joining hands with the Pakistani Moslems, is trying to goad on the poor Nizam to bid for Crown of Indian Empire. May God save him from a similar coming fate!

Although Gandhiji being a man of "faith" could afford to be unconscious in the course of his article that there is some such political factor in India as the Hindu people to be taken into account; and although the Nizam and the Frontier tribes are on his brain as the only living forces in India, yet the Nizam at least must be knowing, at any rate after the Hindu Civil Resistance movement of last year that the Hindu Sanghatan movement constitutes a second and a challenging factor in Indian politics to-day and is growing daily from strength to strength

Be that as it may we cannot refrain ourselves from offering a friendly suggestion to the Nizam that he should think twice before he allows His Exalted head to get swollen with any such quixotic ambition as the Pakistan Moslems and the few Hindu of masochistic Gandhi breed may lead him on to indulge in

If such an anarchy as Gandhiji takes for granted in his article does ever set in, leaving Hindus and the Moslems face to face in India, there cannot now be even the ghost of a chance for the Nizam to make his way to the Indian imperial throne, even if all the Frontier tribes are expected to come down to Hyderabad enmasse to support him

The Hour Of Hindu Resurrection Has Already Struck

Just as the article in the Haryana has told us the academical forecast of the masochistic school of Gandhist Hindus, even so the virile Hindu Sanghatanist also has weighed out his academical prospects. The Hindu Sanghatanist takes into account the million of Hindus from Kashmere to the Cape who are being animated by the Pan-Hindu spirit.

He knows the hour of Hindu resurrection has already struck, and the very dead bones of our heroic forefathers even the very Hindu Princes, stirred up with new life and impulse. They cannot long remain unconcerned if the Moslem princes threaten a nation wide Civil War

The foremost of the Hindu Princes have realised that if Hindudom falls, the Hindu States too must fall with it. As defenders of Hindu faith and Hindu honour they form the reserved forces of Hindudom, organised centres of Hindu strength which even to-day will outweigh by far the utmost which a Hyderabad here or a Bhopal there can do to spite the Hindu cause.

From Udaipur, Jodhpur Jaipur, Gwalior, Indore, Dhar, Dewas, Baroda to Kolhapur, it is almost an unbroken chain of Hindu Military camps of organised Hindu Governments, which animated by the new Hindu spirit, cannot but come forward in their own interests as well as those of Hindudom as a whole to defend the Hindu cause. Even Scindia alone, other things equal, can smash up the Nizam on any new Udgir or Kharda field he chooses. Pressed by these overwhelming Hindu forces from the North and those of the Mysore, Travancore and Cochin in the South, the poor Nizam will simply be sandwiched between them and instead of winning back the ceded districts will have, on the contrary to cede whatever districts he already possesses to-day. There will not be left a trace of Moslem rule from the Seas in the South to the Jamuna in the North

Frontier Tribes And Islami Kingdoms ' Outside India

But what of the Frontier tribes and Islamic Kingdoms outside India which are expected to help the ' faithful ' in India to bring into being a new Moslem Empire—the Pakistan ?

Well let the Pakistan alone—the few ' Sthanas ' like your Afghanistan, Arabastan and even Turkastan are themselves getting thrown into a melting pot and they will have to thank their stars if they can help only themselves to survive the European onslaught. Even Nadirshahas and Ahamadshahas could not save the Moghul Empire of the ' faithfuls ' in India in the heyday of their power from being overthrown by the Hindus ! What can the puny descendants of them today do to retrieve the loss ?

So far as the Frontier tribes are concerned they will have first to settle their account with our heroic Sikh brotherhood before they come to Ravi !

The Independent Kingdom of Nepal

And when all is said and done there still remains the most deciding factor which of all other factors is most likely to settle the future destiny of India in case such an anarchy as we are discussing sets in. It is the independent Hindu Kingdom of Nepal where a hundred thousand up-to-date Hindu rifles stand marshalled out ready to spit fire and vengeance in defence of Hindu Honour at a signal from their chief and every hut nestles the breed of Hindu warriors. Any Moslem rising with a view to political domination of India whether in the South, North or on the Frontier is bound to affect Nepal as the Defender of the Hindu Faith and the commander of Hindu forces. She cannot let the chance slip out of her hand to make a bid for the Imperial throne of Hindusthan even in her self preservation. As things stand, it would be a simple walk over for her through Behar, Bengal to Assam in the East and the Indus to the West. Any opposition on the part of, say, Mr. Huq with his Novkhali Gundas or the rabbles of Khaksars with only spades to shoulder can no more stop the onward march of the organised up-to-date forces of Independent Nepal strengthened by millions of

Hindu Sanghatanists from all parts of India rallying round their Hindu flag, than a mound of sand can stem the angry tides of stormy sea,

Even Gandhiji dare not deny that the Imperial Rule of the Hindu King of Nepal can be at least as much a Cent percent Domestic Rule as "Veritable Home Rule" as the sway of a Nizam seems to him to be |

If an academical probability is at all to be indulged in of all factors that count to day His Majesty, the King of Nepal, the scion of the Shirodian, alone has the best chance of winning the Imperial crown of India. Strange as it may seem the English know it better than we Hindus do. So shrewd a politician and historian as Percival Langdon himself writes in the end of his voluminous work on Nepal — "The fact that the communal strife from one end of India to the other invests Nepal with an importance that it would be foolish to overlook.

"Englishmen should attempt to understand the high position which Nepal holds in the Southern Asiatic balance and the great and growing importance which she will possess in the future in the solution of the problems which beset the present state of India. Nepal stands to day on the threshold of a new life. Her future calls her in one direction and one only. It is not impossible that Nepal may even be called upon to control the destiny of India itself."

Even Britain will feel it more graceful that the Sceptre of Indian Empire, if it ever slips out of her grip, should be handed over to an equal and independent ally of Britain like His Majesty the King of Nepal than to one who is but a vassal and a vanquished potentate of Britain like the Nizam.

But we also repeat that all this is academic-meant only to serve a virile antidote to the inferiority complex which the spineless academical forecast of Gandhiji betrays.

And yet, if but the Hindus realise and take stock of the inexhaustible resources of strength they have still at hand relatively to the Indian Moslems, resurvey them from a pan-Hindu angle of vision and take the field in time, they will find that much that sounds academic today could even be made actual and the racial dream of a consolidated, mighty and independent Nation could be realised sooner than they dare to expect!

A MESSAGE TO THE HINDUS IN GUJERAT

1 You will know the state of my health from the copy of a general circular issued by the Secretary of this Presidential office, which is being enclosed under this cover for favour of your personal perusal and information. I cannot attend correspondence. But nevertheless I could not refrain from reading and replying your letter.

2 It is extremely encouraging to note that Shriman Nandas Haridas Shethji should have been elected as the President of Ahmedabad Hindusabha. Please to convey to him my hearty congratulations. I hope his influence and organisational powers will soon raise the Hindusabha in Gujarat to a commanding position and his advent into Hindu Sanghathan movement will prove to Gujarat what the advent of Dr. Shriani Prasad

Mookerji proved in Bengal. The spade work and the sowing of seeds which your goodself and the old veteran workers like Syt. Anand Priyaji; Gangaramji Khanna and others have been doing in the field of Hindu Sangatan movement in Gujarath, shall soon doubtless bear an ample harvest. Gujarath is a heart of Hindu pride. But under the benumbing influence of the pseudo Nationalistic ideology of the Congress is got atrophied for the last twenty years or so. The instilling and the very touch of the spirit of the Hindu Sanghatan is bound to bestir and animate it once more before long. I am sure Gujarath will be stir as mighty a strong hold of the Hindu Sanghatan movement as Maharashtra or Bengal is today.

3 Please to convey this my public message to all my Hindu brethren in Gujarth on the occasion of Dasara ( Vijaya Dashmi ) — Let every Hindu in Gujarath join the Hindu Maha Sabha because he is a Hindu first and everything afterwards His Religion, his Race, his Blood, his Seed all that he is, is Hindu in substance, in essence. He is an Indian because he is a Hindu. He is not a Hindu because he is an Indian India to him would but a funeral ground, a Sahara Desert if his Hindutwa and Hinduness are annihilated and leave no trace in India. India is dear to him because Hindutwa flourished there and because it is the Father Land of the Hindu Race and the Holy Land of his Hindu Gods. This is the ideology which will consolidate the Hindus into a mighty Race and I expect Gujarathi will be reanimated with this new spirit in near future

4 I cannot obviously promise any tour owing to my health. Please excuse for the same. It would take at least some four months for me to be able to take ordinary walk.

Please contest the Municipal election without caring for results. Even a cent percent defeat matters not. What matters is the toughness of the contest. It is bound to be fruitful in the long run even if it fails in its immediate objective.

II II Maharaja of Kashmir Congratulated

"I Congratulate Your Illiness on behalf of the Hindu Mahasabha on his re-arrival

 the "Hindi Script granting it an equal status with the Urdu."

"As it is held quite natural and justifiable that the Moslems should like to use Urdu in all their transactions, literature etc. so also it must be held equally natural and justifiable if the Hindus also prefer to use Hindi in their own transactions, literature etc.

"I hope the Moslems themselves will accept this equal recognition of both Urdu and Hindi with good grace.

' But even if a section of the Moslems persists in its unwarranted opposition to Hindi, even then the Hindu Mahasabha feels confident that Your Highness's Government will firmly continue to do justice to the legitimate demands of the Hindus in the state and continue to extend an equal recognition of Hindi along with the Urdu. Nothing could be juster because if the Majority of the citizens of Kashmere are Moslems, still on the other hand the state itself is a Hindu state and the Hindus, having contributed more and sacrificed and suffered more in the foundation and defence of the State, possess a Historical and Political Importance in the State which is in no way inferior to any non-Hindu Section 84

Pt. The Jawaharlal Nehru Sentenced!!

"The news of the sentence of four years imprisonment passed on Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru must have come as a painful shock to every Indian Patriot In spite of difference as to principles and policy which compell both of us to work under different colours I shall be failing in my duty as a Hindu Sabhait if I do not express my deep appreciation of the patriotic and even the humanitarian motives which had actuated Pandit Jawaharlalji throughout his public career and my sympathy for the sufferings which he has consequently had to face

"Although the present Working Committee of the Congress including Pandit Jawaharlalji himself maintained a guilty silence and led by Gandhiji did not utter a word of protest or sympathy when patriotic pathic workers like Sourpati Bapat Balu Sabhash Chandra Bose and several other leaders and followers belonging to parties who differed from the Gandhist school in the Congress were being sentenced under the Defence of India Act ever since the War broke out, yet, the Hindu Maha Sabha did not fail in its duty in sounding a warning against the Government policy of unalloyed repression. The Working Committee of the Hindu Maha Sabha passed a resolution so early as in May 1940, in which the Mahasabha urged upon the Government that the immediate grant of at least the Dominion States as contemplated in the Westminster Statute could be the only effective remedy to secure a genuine and whole hearted co-operation of the Indian people and that a more unalloyed repression could only drive the discontent deeper. Trust alone could beget trust. And constitutional progress alone could evoke a National co-operation.

“I ask the Government to ponder awhile seriously on the simple question that why is it that a man like Pt Jawaharlalji who as soon as the War broke out was so impulsively carried off his feet as to declare that India should offer unconditional co-operation to the British who were out to fight the cause of World Democracy, should now be so embittered as to condemn all co-operation and thus leave no other course to the Government but to pass such a vindictive sentence on him under the Defence of India Act?

"The Hindu Mahasabha unlike the Congress was not carried off its feet so impulsively when the War broke out and publicly asserted the fact that none of the belligerents in Europe went to War either to save World Democracy or on account of any other such altruistic motive but every one took the field for its own National interests and Imperialistic ambitions and as a consequence of it the Mahasabha had from the very beginning chalked out for itself its own policy of Responsive co-operation as the only means at hand to secure their own National interests as well

 response ? Can unalloyed repression alone ever be response best calculated to secure any genuine co-operation ?

“The very fact, that I as a Hindusabhai am genuinely anxious that the Hindu Sanghatanists should under present circumstances do all that lies in their power to participate in all such war efforts in the direction of industrialization and militari-sation of India which the Indian Government carries on and which are genuinely calculated to defend India against an alien invasion or internal anarchy, compels me to urge on the Indian Government to get themselves disillusioned before it is too late so as to realise in time that no obstacle can be more serious to the real defence of India than to depend on repression under the defence of India Act as the only means at hand to secure peace or enforced co-operation and to throw wide open the gates of constitutional progress by an immediate grant of Dominion Status to begin with If but this is done, the Government may perchance find that even men like Nehruji will feel it their duty in the interests of Indian Nation itself to ally themselves with the Government and even if some section does not follow this policy, their tirades against such an alliance between the Indian people and the British Government will automatically fall so flat on the public mind as to defeat their own purpose without the constant necessity of resorting to any such vindictive sentences under any such Defence of India Acts

HINDU SABHAS, WATCH OUT

The Coming Census & Your Duty

The attention of all Provincial and Local Hindu Sabhas is most emphatically directed to the urgency of taking up the Census work in hand. It should be remembered that the work of the Census is in a way as important, urgent and pregnant with far reaching consequences as the Hyderabad Civil Resistance movement was. For at least ten years to come all constitutional progress and matters regarding the public services legislatures etc. will necessarily be indexed and determined by the figures and information registered in the coming Census.

The senseless policy of the Congress had, as in so many other respects, hit the Hindus hard by boycotting the last Census and there is no telling if the Congress led by some new "Inner Voice" vagaries of Gandhiji may not resort even this time to some such "Satyagraha"—a term which has nearly come to imply the sacrificing of Hindu interests alone and propitiating the fetish of Pseudo Nationality. It is all the more imperative consequently that the Hindu Mahasabha should be on its own guard from the very beginning; it should take the field in time and give independent initiative and guidance to Hindudom, by impressing a correct registration of their population strength, in the coming Census and explaining to them the double harm the Hindus would inflict upon themselves in all directions of their corporate life if they fail to guard Hindu interests at the time of this Census also.

Undertake a whirl-wind Campaign

Consequently every Provincial, District and Local Hindu Sabha should undertake forthwith a whirl wind campaign throughout India to get the population strength of the Hindus recorded correctly in the coming Censuses and to see that all illegitimate efforts on the part of the Moslems etc. to secure exaggerated records of their population are frustrated. Moreover it is not the correct record of population strength alone that counts. Information in almost all directions must be correctly registered if the interests of the Hindus are to be guarded in all matters political, social, religious, economical, historical etc.

In order to outline and methodise the campaign, some leading instructions are given below which should be carried out immediately and without fail by all Provincial, District and Local Hindu Sabhas throughout India in so far as they concern their respective spheres.

( I ) The Provincial Hindu Sabhas should as a first step establish contact with the office of the Provincial Census Superintendent. The District Sabha and the Local one should also do the same with the Census officers in charge of their spheres.

The Hindu Sabha should assure all these Census officers of full co-operation in this task and should offer the help of Hindusabhais as Census enumerators wherever it is possible to do so. At each locality the local Hindu Sabha should try its best to provide Hindu Sabhait volunteers who should accompany the Census enumerators and try their best to see that all Hindus are properly enumerated and all information regarding the Hindus properly registered

( 2 ) The Hindu Sbhas should try to secure the co-operation at each locality of all Hindutvanishtha institutions, besides the Hindu Mahasabha, such as the Arya-Samaj, Sanatan Dharma Sabhas, Jain Sabha etc., and if possible and advisable should establish a common Hindu Census Committee to conduct this campaign.

( 3 ) EVERY ONE WHO CALLS HIMSELF A HINDU, MUST BE REGISTERED AS A HINDU
The Provincial and the District Hindu leaders should see personally respective Census officers and get it clearly ascertained from them, whether everyone who acknowledges himself to be a Hindu is going to be registered as a Hindu. The full bench of the Madras High Court and the several other judgments of other courts recorded e.g. in A I R 1931 have clearly laid it down that even a community which was originally non-Hindu but has subsequently adopted Hindu Religion and calls itself Hindu should be regarded as Hindu. In cases where the Census officers at any locality find themselves unable to give this undertaking a complaint should immediately be lodged at the Provincial Census Superintendent's Office or the All India Census authorities. In this case it should be clearly understood that a person or a community which claims to belong to Hindudom to-day must be registered as Hindu even if person or the community was not registered as a Hindu in previous Census etc. This principle is not only applicable to the census but also to the registration of land and other matters. It is clearly understood that a community cannot be taken from the census and be registered as a Hindu. Everyone who calls himself a Hindu must be enumerated as a Hindu.

( 4 ) The Case Of The So-Called Animists, Tribal Etc. There happen to be some communities like the Santals Gond Bhils etc etc who although they are indifferently called, in the general vogue as Aborigines or Tribal Peoples.

 or Animists etc, are in fact Hindus. Some of these were not enumerated in the last Census or previous ones as Hindus, partially through ignorance and partially through intrigue. It must be looked upon as one of the 'most urgent' tasks by the Hindu Sabhas to get these communities registered definitely as Hindus in this Census without fail.

As an extreme case of such intrigues in point, we may mention the Mundas, Uraons, Hoes, Khatias residing in Chota Nagpur, Bihar etc. Even this year a circular has been issued already to the Census authorities probably as a result of Missionary intrigues that the religion of these tribes should not be registered apart from their tribal names even though they have been registered as Hindus in the last Census and are even now claiming to get themselves registered as Hindus !

The Hindu Mahasabha workers and other Hindu leaders at Ranchi, and other places are to be congratulated upon their promptness with which they have already taken up this question in time. Deputation met the Census authorities protesting against these orders. Large meetings of these tribal Hindus themselves are being organised claiming that they should be registered as Hindus and condemning the Missionary intrigues. At Betul also, Mr Gothi, M. L. A., and other Hindu leaders are fighting fearlessly the case in connection with the registering of the Gond Thakurs as 'Hindus.'

Taking a cue from these cases in point, every provincial and District Hindu Sabhas should immediately institute inquiry in their own spheres to ascertain if there are such Hindu tribes registered as Animists etc., in previous Censuses or are likely to be registered outside the Hindu fold in this Census. If such cases are found out, the [respective Hindu Sabhas should as a first step immediately approach the Census authorities and try to get the injustice redressed. Side by side with this step, the Hindu Sabhas should send propagandists, Kathiaks, Purohits in those tribal regions to re-emphasise or awaken the Pan Hindu consciousness amongst them and get themselves pledged that they should insist on being registered as Hindus when the Census authorities visit them. Even if some enumerators omit deliberately to ask them any question regarding their religion these Tribes must be instructed to insist on their own initiative upon getting themselves registered as Hindus. In order to enable these so-called Animists or Hill Tribes, to do so illiterate and ignorant as they are, the respective District Hindu Sabhas in particular must depute some able and influential leaders, with some volunteers to accompany the Governmental Census enumerators on the day of the Census, to these places and see to it that every man and woman amongst these tribes is registered as a Hindu. We emphasize once more that the Hindu Sabhas must instruct each individual in these tribes beforehand to return himself or herself as a Hindu by religion, and then mention the name of their community he or she belongs."

The outstanding importance of this question could be easily gauged by the simple fact that the number of these Hindu tribes which are not enlisted as yet in the Previous Censuses as Hindus through our carelessness, amounts to somewhere between a crore and a half. If this time, at any rate, we succeed in reclaiming these tribes, we can secure this enormous contribution to our population strength of which we have been unjustly robbed, till now.

(5) THE CASE OF OUR NON-SANATANIST HINDU BROTHERS SUCH AS JAINES, ARYA-SAMAJISTS, SIKHS, ETC. ETC.—We should popularise the definition of "Hindutva" accepted by the Hindu Mahasabha namely —

आसिंधुसिंधुपयता यस्य भारतभूमिका ।

पितृभूः पुण्यभूश्चैव स वै हिंदुरिति स्मृतः ॥ that is, every one who recognises this Bharatvarsha as the Land of his Fore-fathers (पितृभू) and the Cradle of his Religion, his Holy Land (पुण्यभू), is a Hindu. According to this definition and in this sense alone even our non-Sanatanist brothers such as Arya-Samajists Lingaists etc or non-Vedic brothers such as the Sikhs the Devsamajists etc can have no difficulty or objection to get themselves registered under the common appellation "Hindu". So that all of us Hindus bound by our devotion to a common Father Land and a common Holy Land welded into a national brotherhood by cultural, linguistic, historical, racial affinities,—we Hindus whether belonging to Vaidic or Avaidic Religious School,—may be able to present a consolidated and a United Front as a Nation by ourselves as differentiated from all non-Hindu peoples and the Moslems in particular, whose Holy Land and Holy

 Language and so many other religious, cultural, and historical tendencies not being in common with us and in some cases being directly antagonistic to us make them always hate the idea of getting welded into a common Nationality with us Hindus.

The only difficulty which some of our Jain, Arya-Samajists, Sikhs and other brothers may feel, in registering themselves as Hindus, will be the fact that thereby they will not be able to register their religions as independent of Sanatana Hindu Fold. But then this could be easily avoided if those sections of the Hindus who want their Religion independently registered, do so under the column in the Census "Religion" thus:-Under the column of Religion, the Arya-Samajists may write as their-Religion "Vaidic Religion," the Jains as "Jain Religion," the Sikhs as "Sikh Religion" and all others who choose to do so, may register their independent theological belief. Even Atheists in the Hindu Fold may write "Nil" under the column of "Religion" if they like.

But under the head "Community, Race etc" every Hindu according to the Cultural and National definition of Hindutva, referred to above should register himself as for example "Jain (Hindu);"

“Arya (Hindu)”, “Sikh” (Hindu)”, “Lingait” (Hindu)” etc. etc

Under this arrangement all sections of the Hindus who wish to have it so, can have (a)—Their religion recorded independently of the Sanatana Hindu Fold and also can have (b)—even the numbers of their communities separately counted as Jains or Aryas or Lingaits or Brahmins or Rajputs or Bhills etc. etc.—and yet secure what is of utmost importance from the point of the National consolidation of all of us Hindus, (c): we shall be able to get all of us registered under our common National appellation as “Hindus” and thus can get our real population strength ascertained into a united front so as to serve the purpose of comparison or even a challenge in connection with the population strength of any-non-Hindu community of India

The outlines of this question should be thoroughly studied by the Census propagandists whom Hindu Sabha may charge with the work in their own spheres. They can get a very clear idea of this question if they read the book “Hindutva” written by Barrister V. D. Savarkar in English and translated into Hindi and Marathi. It will be then very easy for the propagandist to advance convincing proofs to the full satisfaction of our Jain, Devasamaji, Arya Samaji and other non-Sanatani or non-Vaidic Hindu brothers in persuading them to register themselves as Hindus under the above arrangement— It should be clearly understood that “Hindudom” is a wider conception and entity than what is implied by “Hinduism” or “Vaidicism” which is only a religious aspect of Hindutva. But Hindudom marks out a people bound by historical, linguistic, cultural, racial and several other affinities demarkating themselves apart as a Nation by themselves, in contrast with other peoples and nations such as the Moslems, the Germans, the Japanese, the British etc. etc.

(6) HOW TO ENSURE THE CORRECT ENUMERATION OF MOSLEM WOMEN IN HAREMS — The Hindu Sabha should impress, upon the Census Authorities, at those localities wherein the Moslem ladies observe or profess to observe a 'strict "Padada', the necessity of sending some Indian Christian or European ladies enumerators or supervisors to the Moslem quarters in order to visit the harems in person and check the correct return of the numbers of Moslem women. This precaution is indispensable in view of the fact that there had been reasonable complaints to the effect that the number of Moslem ladies in the harem were not in several cases correctly reported and were even deliberately exaggerated during the previous censuses as no Governmental male enumerators or supervisors were allowed to enter the harems and ascertain their real number. The provincial Hindu Sabhas in particular should send a deputation to acquaint the Provincial Census Superintendent and other authorities with this difficulty and secure a promise from them to appoint such Indian Christian or European lady supervisors and the Hindu Sabhas should see to it that the orders are effectively carried on, on the Census day or days.

(7). THOSE WHO DO NOT LIKE IT NEED NOT REGISTER THEIR CASTES, BUT REGISTER THEMSELVES AS "HINDU" ONLY -- The Government has decided not to make it compulsory for any Hindu to register his caste if he does not believe in it or observe it in practice and wants to have no other caste but "Hindu". If any Census officers and enumerators object to it the anti-Caste reformists amongst the Hindus, should get this right established beforehand by writing to the Provincial Census Superintendents or the all India Census Authorities!

(8). Every Hindu Sabha should secure sample forms and instructions, booklets of census registering from the local Census officers and should instruct Hindu Sabha propagandists as to how the forms should be filled up in the light of these instructions. These Hindu Sabha propagandists should explain to all Hindus through press and platform and personal visits, how to fill up the forms and where to get themselves registered as "Hindus".

Special visits should be paid to villages and the so-called 'untouchable' quarters and to the 'so-called' 'Animists' quarters by these specially 'instructed' 'propagandists' of every Hindu Sabha in 'its' 'locality' and 'spheres' with a view to instruct these our illiterate Hindu 'brothers' how, and where to get themselves 'registered' as Hindus

(9) PROPAGANDA BY PUBLIC MEETINGS AND THROUGH THE PRESS—

Hindu Sabhas should start this Census campaign immediately on reading instructions. They should immediately begin to hold public meetings in the cities, towns, and villages in their own spheres. They should request the local press to write articles every week to whip up this agitation and should bring to the public notice and Government notice, all grievances and complaints in connection with any injustice done to the Hindus in their respective localities in this connection by the Census enumerators.

THE PROVINCIAL AND DISTRICT HINDU

SABHAS SHOULD PRINT ON THEIR OWN BEHALF THOUSANDS OF COPIES OF THESE INSTRUCTIONS and other necessary hand-bills and pamphlets dealing with their special local difficulties. It is obviously impossible for the Head Office to supply propagandistic Census literature of all sorts suiting local grievances and local requirements to all localities throughout the country.

(10) The District Hindu Sabhas constitute the fulcrum of this Census campaign and should hold themselves chiefly responsible for conducting it successfully. It should be noted in this connection as in several other respects that the duty of the District Sabhas does not end in merely reporting the local grievances to the Provincial or Head Office. The chief burden of carrying out all actual work and getting local grievance redressed must almost always be sustained by District Hindu Sabhas in their own spheres. This holds good in particular in the case of this Census campaign. Only if the District Hindu Sabhas try their best to see that all the above instructions are carried out in their own districts, all local grievances in their spheres are got redressed, through their own efforts and all necessary information about the population strength of the Hindus are correctly registered and enrolled in their own districts,—then and then alone this difficult task, of guarding the multitudinous and varied Hindu interests all over India in this coming Census can be effectively accomplished. The Provincial Office or the Head Office, without the active and efficacious functioning of the District Hindu Sabhas is like an organism shorn of its limbs. Let therefore, every District Hindu Sabha see to it that it tries its best to discharge its own responsibility as effectively as it can, so far as its own district is concerned without depending for every detail of work on the Provincial or Head Office and it will have done its duty.

Sikhs and the Congress

(The following letter was written to Master Tara Singh, President Shiromani Gurudwar Prabandhak Society, Amritsar —

You must have known from papers that I have been lying ill and I am still confined to bed owing to an acute Sontina attack. I can neither walk nor work.

But even in this painful condition I could not refrain from writing these few lines to you to convey my felicitations, to you and to our Sikh brotherhood, on your refusal to get cowed down by the Congress threats which impudently demanded of you to betray the just and legitimate interests of our Sikh brotherhood in particular and Hindudom in general. I thank you for having cut off all connections from the Congress organization and freed yourselves from the shackles and servitude of the Pseudo-Nationalistic ideology of the Congress which has proved a death blow to the real Racial, Cultural and National Being of us Hindus. You are now free as never before to serve and strengthen our Sikh brotherhood in particular and Hindudom in general,

II. The letter which Gandhiji wrote to you must serve as an eye-opener to all our Sikh brothers for all times to come. How impudent is its tone. And how self-arrrogating withal. He poses as a nationalist and blames you for caring and safeguarding the interests of Sikhs as a Community. But look at the slavish mentality of this very same unalloyed Nationalist when he keeps dancing attendance on Mr. Jinnah or for the matter of that any Moslem who crops up in the political field. The Congressites are never tired of asking the Moslems what they would want to safeguard their community. Nay would admire the uncompromising affrontry with which the Moslems are getting themselves organized as a community, declare the Moslems are a Nation by themselves and that convert this Hindusthan into a Pakisthan and yet the Congressites are never tired of fawning on these Moslem Leaguers and would go on their knees before them if but they would join the Congress They would raise Maulana Azad to the very Presidential chair of the Congress though he openly declared that he was a Moslem first and would see to it that the Moslems were never deprived of the right to dictate to all what special communal rights they wanted—and yet these very Gandhists and Congress write to you “You must leave the Congress because you want to safeguard the legitimate interests of your Community and are therefore a Communalist”

III Well dear Bhai, I may tell in a few words. Shun the Congress ideology, and the very institution which is fundamentally based on that ideology if you want to be true to your real Racial and National self. The Moslems are right in declaring that they are a Nation by themselves. We Hindus Sikhs and Sikhists, must now boldly assert Right you are. We Hindus also are a Nation by ourselves. You want to convert this Land into a Pakisthan which your forefathers failed to do.. we Hindus true to our ancestral heritage and Racial identity and mission are also determined to see that this Land continues to be Hindusthan”

IV. With this clearcut ideology please reframe the political movement and aspirations of our Sikh brotherhood in Punjab and of the Hindus in general throughout India."

V. Try to get as many Sikh brothers recruited into the Army as possible. Raise the Sikhs' martial spirit to its prestine intensity once more. Let us all remember that even in Politics Shri Guru Goyind Singh is our Guru and no noncampaign can disarm the Sikhs of their kripan.

VI. Please note that on the borders of Punjab, the Frontier tribes are breeding even today thousands of fanatics of that very blood-thirsty anti-Hindu type which flourished in the days of a Mahomad Ghor or an Aurangajeb. If but they get a chance they would run down Punjab in no time and annihilate our Hindus, Sikhs and Sikhetaars, with the same ferosity Under these circumstances woe to the Hindus. Sikhs and Sikhetaars if they get themselves done with the Pseudo-Nationalistic opiates of the silly, spineless and suicidal Ideology

VII The Hindu Mahasabha has time and again passed resolutions that the number of the Sikhs in the army must not be allowed to fall below their prestine strength I myself represented the case to the Viceroy more than once How foolish it would have been if some of the Sikh leaders themselves could have been duped by Gandhiji and others to call on the Sikhs to boycott the army That is why I was very glad to see that outstanding leaders like yourself should have come out boldly to dissociate yourselves from the Congress and its so called non violence fad which in fact is more likely to be responsible in theory and practice for inviting violence on the part of the enemies of Hindudom than anything else

VIII Now, friends, organize on Military lines our brave Sikh brotherhood occupy and utilise every point of vantage that we can get in the army, in the Legislatures and in services Let us boldly assert that to safeguard and advance the legitimate Hindu interests is the only patriotic duty we owe to our Racial self and that we Hindus constitute the real Nation in this Land-Hindusthan

IX This is my message to you and to all our Sikh brotherhood. If but the Sikhs follow it, I again repeat that the Moslems who are indulging in the day dreams of Pakisthan will find in Punjab, when they walk up a mighty Sikhistan instead. It is not even now too late for us to be up and doing

The following Press Note has been issued by this Presidential office regarding Swatantrya Veer Barrister Savarkar's health —

“Owing to the heavy strain he had to undergo at the Hindu Mahasabha annual Session held at Madura and the travels, there is a relapse in the sciatical ailment from which Barrister Savarkar had been suffering for the last five months. Consequently Doctors have pressingly advised him to have a complete rest at least for a month cancelling all tours and heavy works.”

II "Consequently, even if the Hindu Mahasabha is compelled to take any direct action, the Hindus all over India, should continue to try their best (a) to secure entry into the army, navy, and air forces (b) to utilize all facilities that are being thrown open to get Hindu trained into military mechanics and manufacture of up-to-date war materials, (c) to try to make military training compulsory in schools and colleges (d) to join the 'Civic Guard' and 'A. R. P.' movements provided always that these organizations are not used against any patriotic political movement in India or in any activities detrimental to the legitimate interests of the Hindus

III "It should also be noted in particular that those who join the army, navy, the air forces or the civic guards etc. should continue to be amenable and obedient to the discipline of those respective organizations so long as they form a part of it.

IV "So far as the starting of new industries and boycott of foreign goods with a view to further the industrialization of our country are concerned, it goes without saying that these activities must be pressed on in any case.

V. "This clarification is expected to enable the Government also to view the attitude of the Hindu Mahasabha taken up in these two resolutions through the correct perspective." 15-1-41

The Census Week

I. "You are hereby informed that the first week of February 1941, should be observed all over India as the Census Week. Your provincial Sabha or district Sabha, as the case may be, should inform to all Hindusabha in your respective spheres immediately that they should carry out the following programme through that week in order to ensure the enlistment of all Hindus as Hindus. —

(a) Meetings should be held in all towns and villages through that week, explaining the importance of the Census and dealing with the special local difficulties and the special remedies to remove them so as to ensure the correct registration of all Hindus in their spheres. Small handbills giving special instructions suitable to the respective localities and in local languages should also be distributed broadcast in villages and out of way localities.

b "The illiterate, the so-called tribal and the so-called untouchable classes of Hindus should be in particular approached and a house to house propaganda should be carried on through that week by Hindu sabhai workers to instruct these of our Hindu brothers to register themselves as Hindus. This work is the most important item of the activities to be undertaken during that week. Kathas, koortans and public meetings should be organized in these quarters.

c "All Sanghatanist newspapers published in the cities or towns in the spheres of the provincial or district Hindusabhas should be requested to write articles & publish reports of all meetings and activities in connection with this Census movement with a view to bring to light difficulties specially obtaining in their spheres and exhorting the Hindu public to remove them by approaching the Census authorities there and to whip up in general a Pan-Hindu enthusiasm to get the numerical strength of the Hindus properly registered.

d. " Full co-operation should be extended to the Census authorities and the Census Enumerators and if any of them are found to be failing in their duty or if some rules or Government instructions stand in their way against the proper registration of Hindus immediate protest should be made to the superior authorities; deputations should be taken to proper quarters and every other step should be taken to disarm any missionary activities whether Christian or Moslem which may be found obstructive to the proper enlistment of Hindus.

e. " All meetings and activities held and carried out in this respect should be reported in the leading Sanghātānist papers in the province and reports of them should be collected and sent to Syt. G. V. Ketkar, Editor 'Mahratha' Secretary Hindu Mahasabha, Poona with a view to collect and publish an All India report of these meetings and other activities of the Hindu Sangathanist organizations during the Census week

f All Sanatanist and other Hindu organizations that are founded with a view to safeguard the interests of Hindudom as a whole that is all 'Hindutvanistha' parties should co-operate together on this common platform for this common cause

g "The provincial or the district Sabha, as the case may be, is responsible in particular to see that these and other such items which had been described at length in the general circular issued regarding the Census question before a couple of months by this office and a copy of which is again being enclosed herewith are properly carried out in their own spheres during this Census week. Each provincial and district Hindu Sabha must try its best to solve its own questions without simply reporting its local difficulties to the head office and must see that so far as its own province or district is concerned every step is taken to secure the correct registration of all Hindus in general and the excluded tribes animists, untouchables and such other Hiudu brothers in particular who are likely to be ommitted or drafted out to non-Hindu columns through mischief or ignorance.

II. " Reports of the work done during this Census week in each province and district should be forwarded as intimated above to Syt. G. V. Ketkar, before the 1st of March, 1941, at the latest.

An Appeal to my Aryasamajist Brethren Regarding the Census Question.

There are now two parties amongst Aryasamaj itself holding two different views in connection with the registration in the next Census. The first of these two parties wish to enlist themselves as 'Arya' without adding in any column or in any way the name 'Hindu' to indicate that the Aryas are a part and parcel of the greater generalization, the consolidated Hindudom as a whole. However, the second party it is very encouraging and satisfactory to note, has taken up a very correct attitude which is sure to add to the strength of our racial and national consolidation and integrity as Hindus and have decided to enlist themselves as 'Arya' under the head 'Community' adding in bracket the word 'Hindu' so as to indicate definitely that the Aryas are a part and parcel of Hindudom as a whole

I So far as this second party is concerned I entirely agree with their view and I congratulate them on the decision they have taken to enlist themselves in the above way

If But to the first party of the Aryasamajists referred to above I have a pressing request to make Their first object in not getting themselves registered as Hindus in any way or under any column is to the effect that the name of the Vaidic religion they follow should not be got mixed up with the name of the religion of those who follow the Pauranic school and are called in common vogue as Sanatanists This object could best be served if this section of the Aryasamajist enter the name of their religion as Vaidic Dharma under the column 'Religion' Their second object of indicating the numerical strength of the

Aryasamajists separately could also best be served by entering their name as 'Arya' under the column 'Community.'

But after entering the name 'Arya' in the column 'Community' if they add in a bracket the word 'Hindu' no harm whatsoever could be done which is likely to frustrate these two primary objects referred to above which this section of the Aryasamajists has chiefly in view, and yet it will serve the most important and substantial purpose of indicating the consolidated numerical strength of our Hindudom as a whole so as to compare it with and even challenge the numerical strength of the non-Hindu communities in general, and the Moslems in particular.

My Aryasamajist brethren, of both these parties are too intelligent, shrewd and patriotic to fail to see the overwhelming necessity of presenting a united Hindu front to the united moslem front in connection with our respective numerical strength and consolidated integrity. In all constitutional questions this consolidated numerical strength of Hindudom as opposed to the consolidated numerical strength of the Moslem minority is bound to form the basis of representation in the legislatures, public services and in almost all matters that count in our political and social life of Hindudom as a whole

We always accuse our opponents that they follow a policy of divide and rule to undermine the strength of the Hindu people. But if we ourselves persist in dividing our consolidated strength, numerical or otherwise by cutting up Hindudom in different pieces refusing even to own a common name to indicate our integrity as a people, what blame can attach to our opponents if they take advantage of this our suicidal tendency with a view to undermine the numerical strength of us Hindus and to break up our consolidated political Being as a people and a Nation by ourselves?

Taken all in all, it not as clear as day light that as a matter of fact the word 'Hindu' is the only word which has come today to prove so comprehensive as to consolidate some thirty crores of our Hindu people and is the only accepted word that can serve at present to be our National appellation?

Is it not then almost suicidal on our part to refuse to use the word 'Hindu' at least in a bracket only to denote that the word 'Arya' means what is popularly called Hindu? If We translate even our Gayatri Mantra into an altogether alien language, the English or the Urdu, to let the world understand its meaning, can we not add the word Hindu in a bracket at least to indicate as a translation into current phrase of the word 'Arya' especially when to omit to do so breaks up our National solidarity of Hindudom into pieces as Aryas, Jains, Lingayats, Brahmos and what not?

Moreover, the only objection which this party amongst the Ary Samajists seems to have against the word Hindu is a mere etymological one. They think that the word 'Hindu' is of foreign origin. But the fact is that the word Hindu, Hind, Hindusthan, Hindi are all derived from our own Sankrit word Sindhu, in accordance with our old Prakrit grammar. Even the Aryasamajists belonging to this very party do not hesitate to use the word Hindi, nay are insisting that under the column 'Language' the word 'Hind' should be written as the language of the Aryas. If the word 'Hindi' is acceptable, why should not the word 'Hindu' also be acceptable even on etymological ground as both them are unquestionably derived from the same Sanskrit word Sindhu'?

If it be said that some Moslem writers of old used the word 'Hindu' in an enigmical spirit to indicate some derogatory meaning, then we must bear in mind that other Moslem writers of old had used the word 'Arya' also in several despicable senses. The old Persians used the word 'Dev' (देव) to mean a demon. The Asuras used the word 'Sura' (सुर) to mean a drunkard! Are we therefore to boycott the word 'Dev' & 'Sura' also? The asen are proverbially reputed to despise sugar and hold it in a very low estimation. Are we also to cease to taste sugar on that account only?

The Norman conquerors of England used the word English to denote a slave. "May I become an Englishman" was with the Normans phrase tantamount to saying "May I be damned". But did the English people despise their own appellation as 'English' or 'England' because their enemies despised them as such?

It is not by changing names that a race or a people can assert its greatness. A slave remains a slave even if he calls himself a 'Sardar' and a Badmash remains a Badmash even if his name happens to be 'Badashah'. It is only by its prowess that a race does not only raise itself to greatness, but invests its name also with such an awe as to strike terror in the hearts of the very enemies who despised it once. A Shivaji or a Bajirao gloried upon their being Hindus and yet did not the Moslems lick the very dust of their feet in a hundred battlefield?

And after all is it not fanatically foolish to break up the National solidarity of our people on the wheel of such an altogether idle, dubious, etymological, question?

Consequently I request my Aryasamajist brethren belonging to this party to use the word 'Hindu' least in a bracket even if only to denote the current term for the word 'Arya' just as they have decided to use the word 'Hindi' as a current term to denote the 'Arya Bhasha' without any qualms or scruples.

III Some of the leaders of this party of the Aryasamajists who want to use the word 'Arya' only without adding the word 'Hindu' even in a bracket under the head 'Community' explained to me that the Government had informed them that they would include all Aryasamajists in the Hindu people even if some of the Aryas did not subscribe themselves as Hindus and that these leaders had accepted the arrangement. Consequently, they say, the solidarity of the numerical strength of Hindudom as a whole will not suffer even if they do not subscribe themselves as Hindus in the census returns.

But the most serious objection to this tacit arrangement is the fact that this very Government may later on forget this informal promise and by and by insist on counting the Aryas as independent of and separate from the Hindu fold on the strength of the admission on the part of the Aryasamajists themselves if they persisted continuously for some years in refusing to subscribe themselves as Hindu. The Sikhs have been by a similar sinister process cut off from the Hindu fold to some extent at any rate and are actually returned as non-Hindus. I numerical strength of the Hindus intact and are ready for the matter of that to side track their etymological objection to it? But if they are thus ready and anxious to be counted along with the Hindus as Hindus, a fact for which I thank them most heartily, is it not worse than useless as shown above to refuse to subscribe themselves at the very outset as Hindus under the head 'Community' at least in a bracket after returning the name 'Arya' which they prefer?

In short this latter arrangement is the only sensible, honest and patriotic way satisfying on the one hand all the legitimate objectives which my Aryasamajist brethren have in their mind when they want to return themselves as 'Vaidics' & 'Aryas' and yet which is on the other hand sure to enable us all to present our consolidated and unbroken numerical strength of Hindudom as a whole, of our Hindu nation as a whole, with a view to compare it with and even challenge the numerical strength of the consolidated Moslem minority in India.

 IV Consequently, my earnest request to all Sections of Hindudom whether the Jains, the Sikhs, or the Lingayats, the Devasamajists, or the Arya Samajists, the Bauddhas or the Brahmos is to the effect that —

In the column of 'Religion' they may return the name of their particular religion they follow as Jain Dharma, Vaidic Dharma, Budha Dhrama, Lingayat, Dharma etc, if they choose. There is no harm and on the contrary it may give satisfaction to all those who, for reasons into which we need not enter here, wish to indicate that their religion is independent of and separate from the Vaidic and Pauranic Dharma which is popularly called the 'Sanatan Dharma.'

Secondly in the column of 'community' also any or all of these may primarily enter the name of their particular community as Jains Lingayats, Sikhs, Aryas, Bauddhas etc. etc. But after entering this particular name of their community, they should add, in a bracket at least, the word 'Hindu' indicating thereby that we all, whether we follow the Vaidic or Avaridic 'school' of religion, are racially culturally and politically consolidated into an organic national unit, into Hindudom as a whole

Of course the meaning of the word 'Hindu is to be determined and understood in the sense and in that sense alone in which it is interpreted in the definition of 'Hindutva' which has now been accepted on all hands as the most outstanding definition of the word 'Hindu and which maintains that Hindu means everyone who recognises India as his Father Land as well as his Holy Land (that is who owns a religion originated and cradled in this Bharatwarsha, this Hindusthan extending from Indus to the Seas)

सिधुभू पुम्भुधैव य दे हिंदु विदितम् ॥

In order to make my meaning clear I attach below a form which I request all my Hindu brethren mentioned above should adopt while filling in the Census return

RELIGION	COMMUNITY
Vaidic	Arya (Hindu)
Lingayat	Lingayat (Hindu)
Jain	Jain (Hindu)
Sikh	Sikh (Hindu)

Mr. Khaparde nominated on the Badrinath Temple Committee.

Some days ago the President of the Hindu Mahasabha was requested by the Government of U P. to suggest the names of some Hindu representative leaders to serve as a pannel for nominating one of the gentlemen on the Badrinath temple Committee to represent the Hindu public in general in accordance with an act that was passed to secure the better administration of that well known institution. The President had accordingly sent up a pannel. It is learnt now that the Governor of U P has accepted the recommendation of the President and has nominated Mr B G Khaparde. The President of the Berar Provincial Hindu Sabha on the Badrinath temple administration committee and that Mr Khaparde has accepted it.

Viceroy's Correspondence

It is understood that Barrister Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha has received a detailed reply from the Viceroy in connection with the resolution passed at Madras Session of the Mahasabha and which were forwarded with a covering letter by the President to the Viceroy. Further correspondence in this respect is expected to continue.

Sangli & Ichalkaranji Rulers & The so-called untouchables

Barrister Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha has written to the Raja of Sangali as well as the Chief of Ichalkaranji in connection with the grievances under which the so-called untouchable castes are reported to labour and has made a fervent appeal to them to throw open all public rights, amenities and facilities to all Hindu citizens alike depriving none of them on the only ground of birth in the so-called untouchable castes. He has held up in this respect the examples of Travancore, Baroda, Indore, Kolhapur and such other Hindu States which have done away with a number of discriminating and humiliating grievances and disabilities which the 'untouchable castes in those states were formerly subjected to.

The Census & 'The Pan-Hindu fold'

"I have received reports from several quarters that Census authorities in some districts and even provinces are refusing to record under the columns 'Religion' and 'Community' the entry of those persons who return themselves as 'belonging' by religion or community as 'Jain

Hindn' or 'Arya Hindn' or Lingayat Hindu' etc. etc. The enumerators are instructed by these certain officers to record only one of these terms as either 'Lingayat' or Jain' or 'Arya' but not to record as 'Jain Hindn', 'Lingayat Hindn' etc

I draw the attention of all Hindu leaders and workers to this serious matter and call upon them to get this grievance redressed as quickly as possible by interviewing such officers or enumerators and impressing on them the fact that such a refusal on their part would be directly opposed to the Government orders and promises given by the Census commissioner for the All India Census work at Delhi who in an interview with Bhal Parmansandji and Lokanayak Aney had assured that the enumerators will record the religion or the community, race or caste precisely in the words of the person recording them. Consequently, the local census officers or enumerators are bound to record the religion or community or caste of persons as 'Jain Hindu' or Arya Hindu or Lingayat Hindu etc etc. who record their religion or community etc as such. The Census officers or enumerators cannot dictate to such gentlemen that they should call their religion or community only by one word against their own wish. It is not a matter for the Government to decide so far as the census is concerned as to what name or term citizens should choose to describe the religion or community they belong to.

It is not a matter of only linguistic nicety. There are thousands upon thousands of persons who are anxious to get their particular religious school or community recorded without implying thereby or admit in any way that they are willing to fall outside the Pan-Hindu fold, for example, thousands of our Lingayat or Jain Hindu brothers are anxious to have their religion specially mentioned as 'Lingayat' or 'Jain' and yet they do not want thereby to give any room or excuse either to the Government or to any anti-Hindu propoganda to utilise that entry to prove that they do not belong to the Hindu fold. They are as eager to safeguard the consolidated numerical strength of Hindudom as a whole as those who record themselves only as 'Hindus' in one single word

In the case of those hundreds of thousands of persons, it is absolutely necessary to allow them to record themselves either under the head 'Religion' or 'Community' as 'Lingayat Hindus' or 'Jain Hindus' or 'Arva Hindus' or 'Sikh Hindus' and no census officer or enumerator can have any right whatsoever to insist that they should enroll themselves either as 'Lingayats' or 'Hindus' but not as 'Lingayat Hindus' 'Jain Hindus' etc.

In short every person must be allowed to describe his religion or community or caste by the name which he or she chooses whether the name be single worded or multi worded and the census officers are bound to record it accordingly. The same case holds good in the case of those Hindus who return their religion as 'Hindus' and return their caste also as 'Hindus'. No census officer or enumerator can refuse to enlist the word 'Hindu' in the column of 'Community' or 'Caste' if the person wants to record his caste or community as Hindu for the simple reason that he believes it and chooses to do so.

I exhort every Hindu leader to pay most urgent attention to this point and instruct all Hindus to insist upon getting themselves recorded as they prefer either as 'Hindus' or 'Jain Hindus or 'Lingayat Hindus' etc. and compel the enumerators to make the entry accordingly."

'Vote for Bar. Jamnadas Mehta'

"Barrister V D Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha has issued a statement exhorting the Hindu electorate in Maharashtra to vote for Mr Jamnadas Mehta, Bar-at-Law M. L. A., (Bombay), Ex-Minister (Bombay), who is standing as a candidate for a seat declared vacant in the Central Assembly, representing Maharashtra. The Democratic Swarajya Party, the Hindu Mahasabha and several other Sanghatanist organizations have extended their support to Mr Jamadas Mehta. The Congress also has put forward two candidates for these seats and a tough contest is expected between the Congress and the Hindu Mahasabha which has backed up Mr. Jamnadas Mehta to oppose the Congressite candidate."

'Protesting Against Aggression or Meeting It Directly Here & Then'

To,

The Secretary, Mahakoshal Provincial Hindu Sabha,

Mahashay,

Your telegram dated 11-2-41 to hand

With the deepest sympathy for my Hindu brethren at Jabulpore, I cannot but tell them plainly that thousands upon thousands of Hindus there must be prepared and learn to defend themselves with all and every means in their power and at any cost even as the codes require all citizens to do. That is the only effective 'Interference' and remedy in such cases of wanton aggression against their rights. Otherwise what intervention from such a distance can avail or what is the good of only inquiries and inquiries? You know the truth who actually suffer. We all know the truth. The Government also knows the truth and the

(II) In addition to this there is another difficulty namely, it is not known how many Hindus have been killed or wounded and how many Moslems? What attitude the police had taken? If the procession of Tajias was abandoned or suspended? Whether the Molurum festival is brought to a stand still by the Curfew Order? If I knew anything about these things something could have been done by way of protest, although it is a shame on our part that we should always go on protesting against aggression instead of meeting it directly there and then. I know nothing about the detailed information and hence cannot say anything now.

(III) ; Henceforth Hindus must learn to fight out such local aggressions on their local strength without depending on outside 'interference or help. The villages and towns round about every locality own thousands upon thousands of Hindus. They must learn to help each other and rally round a spot in danger - The Moslems it is said acted on a plan premeditated. Why did not the Hindus guard themselves and get ready beforehand? Do not the Mohrum and such aggression return every year? And have we not had the experience of thousand years that they go together? Why were we then at so many localities un-prepared and caught napping? Unless and until we correct this mistake, things cannot be improved. If this lesson is learnt this riot will be the last one at Jabbulpur. Otherwise no inquiries and interventions can be of any use.

I hope my Hindu brothers will excuse me but follow this advice.

HINDUS WAKE UP ! THE HOUR OF THE CENSUS STRIKES !

' It is gratifying to note that the Hindu Mahasabhas have observed the Census week throughout India with great enthusiasm and intense activity. Thousands of meetings were held propaganda was carried from village to village and loads of literature distributed in almost every province, processions were taken out, the poor quarters as well as the resorts of the hill tribes were visited and instructions were given that no Hindu should go unrecorded and that every Hindu of whatever sect or section should register himself as a 'Hindu' ! What is more gratifying to note is the fact that besides the Hindu Mahasabha all other organizations which take their stand on Hindutva have also left no stone unturned to rouse the Hindus to the importance of getting themselves registered in the Census. The Sanatan Sabhas the Arya Samaj, the Hindu Missions and such other Hindu organizations along with the Hindu Maha Sabha have presented a common Pan-Hindu front and carried intensified work to safeguard Hindu interests in this Census.

(2) "Thus the Hindu sanghathanist party as a whole has tried its best to heal up the wounds which were inflicted on Hindudom by the suicidal boycott of the Census in 1931 under the anti-Hindu lead of the Congress. That this boycott of the last Census by the Congress resulted in undermining the real numerical strength of the Hindus very materially has been admitted by the then All India Census Commissioner Mr Hutton himself. It enabled the Moslems on the other hand to inflate their numbers. This fact was conclusively proved on the evidence advanced by the Indian Government itself, when the latter ordered, in Punjab and the Madras provinces to take the Census for the second time just to test the accuracy of the first counting and acknowledged the fact that in the second counting under special officers the number of the Hindus was found materially increased and the number of the Moslems was found materially decreased, proving that it was inflated in the first counting.

"But in spite of this eye-opener the Gandhist group in the Congress seems to persist in their foolhardy eccentric and anti-Hindu attitude in connection with this census also. Witness for example, the latest statements of Mr Kripalani, the General Secretary of the Congress, to the effect that the Congress refuses to have anything to do with the Census as it is a communal question! He knows full well that if the Census is a communal question, the 'Non-Moslem electorate' based on its figures must also be of necessity tainted with communalism. How is it then that the Congress is so inordinately anxious to put up candidates and beg from door to door for votes on behalf of this communal voting? It is like the hypocritical 'Sadhu' who denounces the house-holders for occupying themselves in the morning with such crassly material things as cooking roti and dal instead of devoting it entirely to the worship of the Lord and yet is not ashamed to demand the larger share of the same roti and dal from the same house holders at noon for himself to gulp it down, in virtue of another scripture that to feed the 'Sadhu' is the first duty of the house-holders!

"The fact that but for the bold lead and challenging activities of the Hindu Mahasabha, the Congress would have ruined the Hindus in this respect this time also is thus borne out by the sins of commission and omission of at least the Gandhist section of the Congressites. It is only in Bengal that we find that the non-Gandhist Congressite Hindus at any rate taking a sensible view of the matter and co-operating actively with the Hindu

Maha Sabhants in safeguarding legitimate Hindu interests in the current census I strongly hope that at least now the Congressite Hindus in all other parts of India will take a lesson from the Hindu solidarity in Bengal on this point and leaving the Gandbustie vaguerles alone will actively engage themselves in getting the real numerical strength of the Hindus properly registered

( 3 ) In particular I congratulate the Bengal and Behar provincial Hindu Sabhas, Hindu missions and in fact the Hindu Sanghatanist party as such on the untiring zeal and activities with which they have tried their best to secure the registration of Santhals Gonds, Moondas and such other Hindu sections as Hindus, who were up to this time registered almost mischievously outside the Hindu fold as 'Animats' etc

( 4 ) "The Census authorities also are on the whole eager to get a correct record and it is the bounden duty of the Hindus to co-operate with them in our own interests

( 5 ) " It is only in Bengal that Mr. Fazlul Huq and his Government are openly out to undermine the numerical strength of the Hindus and even to shield the illegitimate attempts of the Moslems to inflate their numbers I call upon H. E. the Governor of Bengal to take note of the fact that the Census falls within the scope of the subjects to be directly controlled by the Central Government. The Provincial Governments may help but cannot exercise any control over the enumerators or the Census officers in the provinces. As Mr. Fazlul Huq and his ministry have openly taken sides and have consequently and justifiably lost all confidence on the part of the Hindus in Bengal, H. E. the Governor of Bengal should take up the work of the Census in his own hand and exercise the strictest possible vigilance to see that the numerical strength of the Hindus and the Moslems is correctly recorded and should assure all census officers and enumerators that no harm shall be done to them as a consequence of the fulminations of the Moslem prime-Minister so long as they are doing their duty as impartially as possible.

( 6 ) " The preliminary activities had thus been on the whole satisfactorily conducted under the lead of the Hindu Mahasabha throughout India

" And now come the last days when the final register will be prepared !

" Let every Hindu Sanghatanist concentrate all his activities for the time being on this question and see to it that no Hindu is left unrecorded as a Hindu " "

Discontented India—not a Key-Stone but a Clay—brick of the arch of British Empire

"Mr Amery's speech in his latest broadcast on 'Matters on Moment' is more reactionary than any speech or statement made by the English Statesmen since the beginning of the war. For example, this time Mr Amery while referring to the political goal of India as the co-partnership in the 'British Commonwealth

Family of Nations' on equal terms does not even mention the vague phrase he used to emphasise regarding the time limit as 'Immediately after the War, at the shortest possible interval' Mr. Amery knows that India is 'at present not so much anxious to know the goal of her political destiny but to realise it at the shortest possible interval here and now; nor has he made any reference whatsoever to the fundamental principle from which the framing of any political constitution for India must start and which he had so emphatically phrased in a poetical mood only the other day as 'India First'. Obviously as usual Mr. Amery is trying to go back on promises the British Government had held forth at the beginning of the war and had emphasised just when France was laid low by the Germans His broadcast moreover is full of insinuations in connection with the obstructive tactics resorted to by the Moslem minority which amount to a veiled encouragement to the latter to continue to act as a hurdle in the way of the Indian constitutional progress and to attempt to lay an axe at the root of India's integrity and unity

"Can this more stiffened attitude which Mr. Amery's broadcast presents be the result of the partial successes which the British have gained in Africa? If so, it has a lesson of its own for Indians and I, hope it, will not all be lost on them. If partial successes have made the British Government forget so much of their pleasing promises they, made when the war was decidedly going against them, who knows history may, not repeat itself and make the British forget all their promises even regarding the goal, the time limit as well as their religious sermons on 'India First' if they come out completely successful in this war? Even as, their success in the last war made them forget their old promises solemnly given to India?

Mr. Amery's self-complacency can only be justified on the principle where ignorance is bliss it is folly to be wise. But if the British Government continues to play the game twice, they will soon find that the facts belie their self complacent assurances on their part.

"Then again if Mr. Amery is to be in stating that the goal of the English policy towards India is to raise her to the position of an equal co-partnership in the Commonwealth of Nations and India is to occupy a status equal to that of Britain herself,—then how can such a Family of Nations be called ‘British Commonwealth’? The terms will be self-contradictory. In that case it cannot but be called as an ‘Indo-British-Commonwealth’

“Nevertheless there is one point which is very important and deserves to be noted down by the Indians very carefully if they want to realise the real source of strength which they derive not owing to any act of generosity or fairness on the part of England but as an inevitable consequences of the recent developments in the political situation of the world. Mr. Amery says that the chain of territories belonging to the British Empire from the Cape to Cairo and Singapore to Wellington forms a vast semi-circle or an arch round the Indian ocean, and India lies centrally between these vital points. The two gateways to this arch the Suez Canal and the Strait dominated by

Singapur constitute 'the most important strategic points and the command of these two strategic points only next to the safety of British Isles constitutes the vital issue in this war ( and in fact in any future war ' in ' which ' the British Empire finds itself involved from the 'West to The East ) and Mr Amery continues 'India lies centrally- between these vital points, able to sent to either point reinforcement whether of troops or aeroplanes or munitions or supplies in far less time and with far less danger of enemy interference than they can be sent from England

"I have pointed out this strategical importance of India already in my Madras speech and exhorted the Indians to realise the fact that the approach of Japan has placed India in such a strategical position that England can no longer save herself unless and until she is in a position to depend on a contented and consolidated India able and willing to supply an army of millions and to manufacture and transmit vast amount of munitions and other stores of war England must therefore give military training to millions of Indians in all arms aerial, naval and land forces. If but the Indians and especially the Hindus utilise this opportunity with a full consciousness that this strategical importance and strength which accrue to them as a result of world politics can be best utilised in their own interests as well, they may be in a position to dictate their own terms to England instead of keep waiting on England's sweet will and pleasure to grant India her legitimate place as a free and great Nation.

“Mr Amery admits, “The Keystone of that Arch of British Empire extending from the Cape to Sidney and Wellington, is India, both in position and in human and material resources. All that we can say to this is to the effect that the human resources in India, by the very fact that they are human, can only be utilised by England if but they are willing to allow themselves thus utilised especially so if England is overwhelmed by some mightier force whether in the West or in the East and much more as if on both sides. Consequently, the sooner England realises that in her own interests she should satisfy the political aspirations of Indians the better for her. A contented India can be rightly discontented as a 'Keystone' of this vast arch from Cape to Wellington. But a described India can never prove to be a Keystone firm and solid and impregnable. But it can only prove if discontented a clay-brick instead of at the key position of the arch and is sure to give way at the very first shell that falls on it bringing down the whole mighty arch of the British chain of territories into a heap of ruins."

"So far as Mr Amery's reference to the future constitution of India is concerned he has again thrown the whole responsibility of the constitutional deadlock on the disunity which prevails in India and he very generously pointed out that if let all parties in India unite in front

 an agreed constitution, England will give effect to it, may be asked in return, will England give effect to a clause in the constitution if all parties agree on it in India that India should be forthwith recognised by England as an independent Nation owing to allegiance to the British Crown or that all British forces and civilians should be withdrawn from India within twenty-four hours? As in that case England is sure to exercise her right of paramountcy and refuse to give effect to any such agreed demand, can she not exercise the same right to turn down any disagreement amongst the Indian parties and refuse to give effect to any absurd, treacherous and anti-National claims on the part of the Moslem minority and take a stand on the indivisibility and integrity of India as a Nation and a State and a Central Government strong enough to maintain it from any attack from outside or inside?

“It is insincerity on the part of Great Britain and not logic or any superstitious regard for an unanimous agreement between all Indian parties which prevents Mr Amery and the British Government from turning down the Pakistan scheme once for all.

"Mr Amery is applying the flattering unctious to his soul that all shades of Indian opinion hold Nazism and Fascism in Universal detestation. It may be so. But the fact is that British Imperialism is also bracketted with these Iams and held in no less detestation by them."

‘ Bar. Jamnadas Metha Elected ’

“ I congratulate the Maharashtra Provincial Hindu Sabha and Barrister Jamnadasji Mehta on the electoral success they have won this week in the bye-election to the Central Legislative Assembly.

“ These bye-elections in various provinces were ordered by the Government to feel the pulse of the Hindu electorate in particular. The Congress interpreted it as a challenge to its own influence on the electorate and to its claim to represent the Nation as a whole. But in fact this was a challenge to the Hindu Mahasabhaits also thrown by the Government. The Government seem to say, ‘ The Hindu Mahasabhaits claim that the Congress cannot and does not represent the Hindu electorate in particular. Well then, let the Hindu Mahasabha prove this claim now by the acid test at the polling station.

“ The Moslem electorate have already proved by refusing to elect the Congressites and by electing the Moslem Leaguers to represent them that the Congress cannot represent the Moslems and consequently its claim to represent the National electorate as a whole was bogus. The Hindu Sanghatanists in Maharashtra whether Sanatanists, Mahasabhaists or others did also take up the challenge and backed up the veteran non-Congressite candidate Barrister Jamnadas Mehta with a clear-cut Hindu Mahasabha ticket. The election was hotly contested. The Congress knowing the all-India significance the contest implied strained its resources to the utmost. Even Gandhi who pretended that he attached no importance to these bye elections attached nevertheless such outstanding importance to this Maharashtra election that he suspended his Satyagraha Campaign throughout Maharashtra with the express object of contesting this election. The Congressites began including Mr Kripalani himself were brought down to Maharashtra to bombard the Hindu Sanghatanist party there and Barrister Jamnadas Mehta in particular. But not only the Hindu Sanghatanists but all Marathas who were disgusted with the political vagaries of the Congress backed up the veteran non-Congressite Leader and at the polls this pooled up strength of the non-Congressite Marathas succeeded in inflicting a crushing defeat on the Congress and returned Barrister Jamnadas Mehta as the representative to the Central Assembly

“ This success secured by the Hindu Maha Sabhais in the main has already acted as a shock to the Congress in Maharashtra. During the last four months the Hindu Mahasabhais had already inflicted local defeats on the Congressite candidates in Sindh and at Malda and other places in Bengal. But the defeat that the Maharashtra Provincial Hindu Sabha has inflicted on the Congress in an election to the Central Assembly has an all India significance. The Government is bound to take a note of this fact and can no longer argue that the Hindu Mahasabha must pass the acid test at the polls to justify its claim to represent the Hindus or to discount the Congress claim to represent the Hindu electorate. The election of the Raja of Aoydhya who is a member of the Hindu Mahasabha and was backed up by the Hindu Sanghatanists in U. P. to the Central Assembly and the defeat he inflicted on the Congress candidate there is also to the point

" I utilise this occasion once more to exhort the Hindus all over India to follow up the policy of not casting a single Hindu vote for the Congress in elections but to persist in returning those Hindus to the Legislatures who pledge openly to safeguard and promote Hindu interests. If but the Hindus succeed in capturing the Legislatures and forming Hindu Sanghathanist Ministries in at least the seven provinces in India, half the ills from which the Hindus suffer today would be automatically and by their own right hand could be overcome and Hindudom will once more be the most dominant factor in Indian politics. The Government too will be forced to recognise the Hindu Mahasabha and the Hindu Sanghathanist party in general as the only body that can represent the Hindus in any future conference whether Round Table ones or Constituent ones."

"I regret however my inability to attend the Conference as I shall have to attend the Working Committee of the Hindu Mahasabha at Nagpur on those very dates. The Working Committee meeting had already been scheduled and notified in the press long before your telegram reached me.

"However, I, in the capacity of the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha, send my best wishes for the success of the Akali Conference. I have full confidence in Master Tarasinghji's lead on the point and am consequently certain that the Sikh brotherhood will lose no time in developing into a great Military force in Punjab by demanding and getting their share to the fullest extent possible in the army, navy and the air forces in the Land. It is not enough that the Sikhs should concentrate, on the land forces alone, their strength. But they must enter the naval and the air forces also.

"I want to emphasise the point that if but our Sikh brotherhood gets it 'if for entirely of the shackles of the Congressite mentality and especially of the Congress organization which now more than ever has strayed away into thoroughly anti-Hindu and anti-National channels with all its absolute Ahimsa vagueries and its covert acquiescence in the Pakistan demand itself, and if but the Sikh brotherhood pledges itself to safeguard and promote openly the interests of Hindudom as a whole and sends its representatives to the Legislatures etc., not on the Congress-ticket but on a purely Sikh-ticket and secures its due share in the fighting forces in the Land as before,—then we may rest assured that when the Moslems awake from their day-dream of the Pakistan they shall see established a SIKHISTHAN instead in the Punjab. When the Sikhs were but a handful they ruled the Moslem majority in the Punjab and right up to Kabul. Now that they have grown into millions they can never be and need not be overawed by the now reduced Moslem majority relatively to their former strength”.

Anti Pakisthan Week

It will be remembered that the Meslem League observed a Pro-Pakisthan day in Bombay on the 23rd March. In order not to allow the challenge go uncontested, the Hindu Sabhants in Khotwadi observed an Anti Pakisthan Week and issued a protest against the Pakisthan scheme and got an Anti Pakisthan pledge signed by no less than ten thousand Hindu signatories. They utilised this occasion to go from house to house and person to person to explain how this Pakisthan scheme was anti National in general and anti Hindu in particular. This week gave a great fillip to the Hindu Sanghatan propoganda as well.

Rao Bahadur Bole, I P, I & M L, A President of the Bombay Provincial Hindu Sabha, has forwarded the protest signed by ten thousand Hindus of Bombay, to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay and has telegraphically intimated the fact to His Excellency the Viceroy at Delhi.

Message to Mysore State Hindu Sabha Session.

(1) The President Veer Savarkarji was glad to note that you are holding a Mysore State Hindusabha Session at Shimoga

He is quite sure that under the able lead and guidance of Dharamveer 'L B Bhopatkar and Syt Manjappa Hardekar the Session will prove fruitful of far reaching results.

(2) The chief aim of the Mysore State Hindu Sabha must be to consolidate and strengthen the Hindu power in the Hindu State and to stand by the Maharaja and the Hindu State in weal and woe extending the most loyal and patriotic support to them in defending the Prince and the State against any subversive activities carried on by any non-Hindu forces or by the Hindu dupes of the Pseudo Nationalistic organizations who bow their head low before the most tyrannical

Moslem states but are always threatening hostile against the most progressive Hindu states and would only bless their stars if but the Hindu states are wiped out altogether from the Indian map

(3) But the Hindusabhaits want to see the Hindu states grow from strength to strength as citadels of organized Hindu powers, administrative experience and capacity and well armed and well trained Hindu military camps

This should be, in short, the leading objective and the policy of the State Hindu Sabha in Hindu States throughout India

(4) So far as Mysore state is concerned it is fortunately one of the progressive Hindu states,- educationally and industrially

But your Session should emphasize the point that Mysore state must develop

 its military strength and under these war circumstances should increase and equip land, sea and aerial forces to an up-to-date efficiency and should be ready to send these efficient forces to the war-zones in all parts of the World in aid of the forces of British Government. Offering the aid of the State-forces to the British Government under our present circumstances is an act of an inevitable, patriotic duty as well as beneficial policy. In doing so, every Hindu State helps none else in the main but the Pan-Hindu cause. .

(5) One other important point the President wants to emphasise is that leading plank of your general platform should be that you should prepare a list of Hindu grievances in the Mysore State quoting facts and figures from authenticated Government statistics, and other sources showing how the Hindus are deprived of their legitimate proportion in the army and how the Moslem encroachment is threatening Hindu rights and Hindu position in all branches of the State service, political and military revenue and such other departments. How even the civic rights of the Hindus are suffering at the hands of the Moslem aggressors in the State. You should publish a handy booklet detailing out these well authenticated facts for the use of general Hindu public all over India.

Let every Hindu in the Mysore state rally round the Mysore state Hindu Sabha Banner THIS IS THE MESSAGE which the President of the Hindu Mahasabha likes to be read out in the Session and suggests to you that its copies should be printed, distributed and broadcast as widely as possible. 17-1-41

" The gist of the correspondence which passed between the President of the Hindu Mahasabha and the Viceroy "

(1) The Hindu Mahasabha demanded that the Government should commit themselves to grant Dominion Status so as to raise India equal

 co-partnership in the Indo-British Commonwealth such as is or will be exercised by Canada, Australia and other self-governing colonies as an immediate step to be taken at the end of the War.

The Viceroy's reply to this demand is to the effect:—‘ The speeches of the Viceroy, the Secretary of State and the debates in the Parliament have made it crystal clear that the proclaimed and accepted goal of the Imperial Crown and of the British Parliament is the attainment of India of free and equal partnership in the British Commonwealth. To devise the frame work of the new constitution immediately after the war, His Majesty's Government were ready to see a body set up representative of all the principle elements in India's National life. Our objective remains to lead India to the proclaimed goal of Dominion Status and that as early as may be immediately after the war.

( 2 ) The Dominion Status as referred to above should be granted to India within one year after the cessation of the War this was the second leading demand of the Hindu Mahasabha object of the Government is fixed to lead India to this Dominion Status and an actual copartnership with Great Britain and other self-governing dominions immediately after the war at as early a date as may be. If the various speeches and statements on behalf of the Government are studied with attention and with full belief in the sincerity of His Majesty's Government, their reassuring character regarding these points will be clear.

(3) The Mahasabha demanded that the Government should promise definitely to stand by the indivisibility of India as a Nation and a State with a Central Government strong enough to maintain it against an alien invasion or an internal anarchy aimed against it.

The various speeches and facts referred to from time during the negotiations regarding this point may be summed up thus —

(a) Mr Amery the Secretary of State in his speech on India First said to the effect — 'Is there such a slogan or watchword which can effectively be applied as a helpful guidance to all of us? That watchword is 'India First'. By India I mean India as a whole, India as nature and history have shaped, India with its infinite diversities and underlying unity India as 'she is today and as we wish her to be in the years to come What, I want to emphasise is the political unity of India. Once broken up into separate and indepent entities India would relapse as it did in the decline of the Moghul rule into a welter of conflicting powers and in which no one element could defend itself against external attacks whether by land or by sea .. .....( every Mahomedan also ) should ask to himself, am I entitled to put my claim to the point of imposing a veto on all political progress exept at the cost of complete break up of Indian unity which will be equally disastrous to us all? Thus from every element in India the watchword 'India First' demands comprehensive tolerance and compromise and acceptance of the real India as it exists today.'

( b ) The Viceroy points out in connection with the attitude which Indian Government had already taken against some of the extravagant demands made by Mr Jinha in connection with the proposal of the extension of the Executive Council such as claiming fifty percent seats for the Moslems etc. and that in his letter to the Moslem leader, the Viceroy had turned down several of such demands.

( c ) An important fact to be noted in this connection is the statement issued by Mr Jinnah condemning Mr Amery's speech on India first referred to above and interpreting it as an assurance given to the Hindus under the pressure of the Hindu organizations that the Government were not in a mood to countenance the Pakistan proposal. Further on Mr Jinnah and the Moslem League refused to co-operate with the Government because their demands referred to above were turned down by the Viceroy.

( d ) Another important fact bearing on this point which is to be noted is that although the Viceroy throughout the correspondence did not take any official note of any such proposal as Pakistan yet Sir Lancelot Graham the Governor of Sind made a public statement at the end of the last month to the effect that the impression in political circles that the Pakistan scheme was favoured by the British Government was incorrect and as such that he was againsts Pakisthan and wondered like Sir Abdulla Haroon : whose ancestors were Hindus should think of Pakisthan. The Moslem press all over the country have themselves interpreted the speech as an inspired one and bespoke the mind of the British Government and its opposition to the Pakisthan scheme.

( e ) - The ' Times of India ' which may be said to represent not only the Policy of White Hall in general but also the attitude of the leading section of the British public, wrote in one of its editorial in the first week of this month to the effect — ' The scheme advanced by the Moslem League of dividing India into two Nations the 'Hindu Hindusthan' and the 'Moslem Pakisthan' is a programme which no student of Indian history and no Indian patriot can regard without the gravest misgiving... The Mahasabha party has threatened the authorities with non co-operation apparently in protest against the Moslem League Which no Government in India could accept.

Hindu Mahasabha on the point that in case their proposal of this Pakithan scheme was rejected by the representative Assembly called to frame the future constitution or by the British Government and in case the Moslem thereupon try to hold up all political progress by withdrawing their consent to every other proposal agreed to by all others, are the Moslems going to be invested with a preposterous power of a minority vetoing the will of all other elements in the nation the majority party as well as other minorities or will the Government in that case take upon themselves the responsibility of granting the Dominion Status as defined above in the Government announcement in spite of the Moslem attempts to thwart it? The Viceroy replies to this point 'Our objective remains fixed to lead India to the proclaimed goal of the Dominion Status. The responsibility for framing future constitutional schemes of Indian self Government should, subject to the fulfilment of the obligations which Great Britain's long connection with India has imposed on her, be primarily that of India themselves that full weight should be given to the views of the minority in framing that scheme. But the fact that we had failed so far to reconcile the conflicting aims and objectives of the principle parties and interests in this country which had got to be reconciled before the progress is possible does not deter us. Our objective remains fixed to lead India to the proclaimed goal of Dominion Status and that as early as may be

(4) So far as the set of the demands made by the Hindu Maha Sabha regarding the militarization and industrialization of the Hindus, the following facts bearing on the point are to be noted —

(a) The Mahasabha wanted that the division between the listed and the non-listed classes in recruiting should be done away with. The Government has announced accordingly that in the raising of the new army this distinction is done away with. The naval, aerial and the land forces are now thrown open to all

Indians alike without any distinction of community or caste or province and recruitment is actually going on accordingly

(b) In the new army of some one lakh of recruits some sixty thousand were Hindus. The Sikhs are being recruited with a view to restore their original proportion in the army in the large numbers. The old distinction of Indianised and English army in connection with commissions etc. is done away with in theory and the Viceregal commissions as well as the King's Commissions are thrown open to the Hindus though on a very miserly scale. The armies of the Hindu States are brought up in number of cases to an up-to-date efficiency and are allowed to increase their strength materially in numbers as well as in equipment ammunition and arm. A number of war industries have been set up on a large scale the aeroplane factory, the motor factories the ship-building yard and several other factories connected with ammunition arms & other war crafts have come into existence & set to work. The number of recruits and officers for example in Bombay Presidency are actually establishing a contact with Hindu Militarization Boards started by the Hindu Mahasabha and trying to help to some extent at any rate to enable Hindu candidates to enter the navy, secure commissions and in training in the aerial, naval and land forces. The Bevin scheme is actually working and Hindu mechanics in larger proportion are getting into it. The existing units of the U T C are allowed to expand to the extent of 50%. In the new army which it is intended to raise to the strength of five lakhs this year, the Hindus of all castes and provinces seem very likely to be recruited in as large a number as could be secured out of those who offer themselves as recruits.

But although as seen above several of the demands forwarded by the Hindu Mahasabha in the Madura resolution and other occasions since the war began regarding the militarization and industrialization programme, are being conceded under pressure of circumstances yet it must be noted that the steps are tardy and do betray want of confidence in Indians on the part of the Government. Nevertheless, constant knocking at the door has no doubt thrown it half open and further pressure is likely to yield favourable results to a very large extent.

As to the demands of introducing compulsory military training in schools and colleges Government assures that the question is 'under active consideration'. But in the matter of Cadet companies in school the difficulties that have been advanced by the Government and the reasons given for delaying the scheme are not quite convincing.

(5) The Hindu Mahasabha demanded that the Government should give an assurance that stringent steps will forthwith be taken to protect the right and property of Hindus in Sindh, N W I P and Bengal and extend adequate protection to Hindu minority in these provinces and Punjab as well and if need be the provincial autonomy in these provinces shall be suspended and the Governors should retain the Governmental power in their own hands.

To this demand the Viceroy says—"he would only add that the Governors who are responsible for the protection of minorities in their provinces are in fact determined to see that there is no victimization and that where any community commits act of aggression against another, the full powers of Government will be used to maintain public order and the rights of all sections of the community."

(2) The last of the leading demands made by the Hindu Mahasabha was to the effect that the Executive Council of the Viceroy should be forthwith Indianised and all portfolios should be transferred to Indians representing directly or indirectly the leading political elements in India in such a way as not to affect adversely and in general the population proportion of the Hindus in relation to that of the Moslems.

With regard to this demand the Viceroy expressed his readiness to proceed with his former proposal of extension of the Executive Council But complained that he could not do so up to this time as no sufficient support had come forward from the Indian public parties to enable him to undertake that step

But now that the Sapru Conference has advanced demands of a more or less similar nature and as long with the support of the Hindu Mahasabhai it has secured an overwhelming backing up of several leading political sections the Government can no longer put forward the old excuse referred to above It is a crucial test of the sincerity of the Indian Government in connection with all their promises they have made as to the goal of Dominion Status and their readiness to grant It immediately after the war as early as possible it is to be seen whether the Government effects this extension of the Central Executive Council without any the least delay as a measure during the war time which may serve as an earnest to substantiate their promises to be fulfilled as soon as the war ends

As the negotiations regarding this extend relations between the leaders of Indian opinion and the Government are still in process nothing could be stated here as to how they will fare

(The Moslem-League Session at Madras and after)

We liked, on the whole, the Presidential speech as well as the proceedings of the Session of the Moslem League held, at Madras this month, for the outstanding reason that the Moslem Leaguers put their case as bluntly and blatantly as we wished them to do. Even the Congressites can no longer afford to misunderstand what is passing in the minds of the Moslems in India. Even the Congressite ostrich must now stare at the danger full in the face. No one can now accuse the Hindu Mahasabha of mis-reading or mis-interpreting Moslem activities in India. What the Hindu Sanghatanist Seers foresaw and foretold decades ago but what the purblind failed to see and blamed the Hindu Sanghatanist for raising false alarms has now come true and got materialised

Muslim League's Different attitudes Towards the Congress and the Hindu Mahasabha

Mr Jinnah in his Presidential speech has after scolding the Congress sufficiently enough to cow it down into a considerate mood ordered it dictatorially thus "Ask your Working Committee to discuss the Pakistan scheme if they have not. Not only discuss it but apply your mind to it honestly without prejudice and without silly sentiments if there is any political wisdom or statesmanship still left in the Congress leadership." The Congress too in due obedience expressed forthwith its willingness through one of its representatives Babu Rajendra Prasadji, to reconsider the Pakistan scheme just to prove that it does possess the political wisdom & statesmanship which Mr Jinnah demands of it to the satisfaction of the latter.

But so far as the Hindu Mahasabha is concerned Mr Jinnah neither dared to criticise or to reason with it. He only excluded it bitter despair, "The Hindu Mahasabha is an absolutely incorrigible and hopeless body" and that he would have nothing to do with it. This could not but remind us of the following parable:—

THE PARABLE OF THE 'FOX-ZONE'

Once upon a time, as the fable goes, the foxes conceived a dazzling, and dizzy ambition to claim that a part of the Deva-van forest should be set apart as a 'Fox-zone' wherein none else but the fox should rule and sway. They accordingly charged their spokesman to proclaim this their resolve to all other denizens of the forest and either to persuade or force all the rest to accede to their demand.

After some time the foxes met again to know from their spokesman what progress the project made. Thereupon the spokesman reported that almost all the denizens of the Devavan could be made to accede to their demand. The goats, the geese and the asses especially had not only accepted the proposal, but were willing to work with them hand in hand in dividing up the Deva-van forest in several such zones as 'The goat zone, ' ' The ass zone etc. etc. reserved and set apart respectively for each of these mighty racial groups 'What of the elephants ?' One of them inquired

"Oh ! the elephant is no doubt a stocky and bulky beast, but then he is always prone to be easily duped and tamed and willingly ridden. A little cunning and some brow-beating will bring him round to our proposal, ' assured the spokesman.

But what does the lion say," queried the wisest of them 'It is he who matters most. Well ' " replied the spokesman shrugging its shoulder.

"Do not talk of the lion. Of all denizens of the forest, I found the lion absolutely incorrigible and a hopeless creature. He would not even grant our principle. Persuasion and logic can have no meaning for him. I have determined to leave him altogether out of account."

 "But what if the lion refuses to be thus left out of the account?" jeered the wisest of them

 BIRTH-RIGHT FOR A MESS OF POTTAGE.

The moral which the parable bears is patent. The League may pretend to take no account of the Hindu Mahasabha and to have nothing to do with it in their efforts to materialise the Pakisthan proposal. But they know in their heart of heart that after all it will be the Hindu Mahasabha alone which must be taken into account in the long run in fashioning the political destiny of India. On Mr. Jinnah's own confession, the Congress does not represent the Moslems while on other hand the Hindu Sanghatanist India in general has already deprived the Congress of any right to speak on behalf of Hindudom as a whole. Consequently, the Congress can no longer count as a National force in general and its consent can never be taken as the consent of the Hindus in particular. Judging from the submissive admissions of Gandhiji, Rajagopalachariarji and several other Congressite leaders in connection with the Pakistan demand the Moslems know that in the case of the Congress they can succeed in taming the shrew before long. That is the reason why Mr. Jinnah stigmatised the Hindu Mahasabha alone as an 'Absolutely incorrigible and a hopeless body'. How little he knew that in stigmatising it thus he was in fact paying a glorious tribute to the sterling and uncompromising patriotism which characterises the policy of the Mahasabha. The Congress may or may not sell its birthright. But one thing is certain that it can never again sell the birth-right of Hindudom. The Independence and the Indivisibility of Hindustan from the Indus to the Seas form the fundamentals of the birthright of Hindudom.

KING FAD OF PAKISTHAN

Knowing it thus perfectly well that the Sanatanists, the Arya-Samajists, the Sikhs, the Hindu sabhais, — in fact the whole of Hindu Sanghatanist India can never be persuaded to accept the treacherous proposal of a Pakisthan, the Moslem Leaguers wherever they meet, whether it be in Sindh or Bengal or Bombay or Madras, have made it a point of late to hold out the threat of a 'Civil War' in case the Hindu Sanghatanists did not kneel down before and took an oath of allegiance to this their King Fad of Pakisthan. Even Mr. Jinha said at Madras that the Hindus should cease to follow the 'Rabid leadership' of the Hindu Mahasabhait leaders or else they shall have to face terrific consequences. The Moslems have thus put us in 'possession of their mind. We also now on our part want to put them into possession of our mind too to some extent or the other. When they are openly indulging in these mock heroics of a 'Civil War' in case India was not vivisected to their satisfaction and cut up into several independent Moslem States, it is our unavoidable duty to have a frank and free exchange of thought so far as it is possible regarding the nature time and place of this problematical war that is going to be declared on us. We hope the chivalrous Knights in the camp of the Moslem League will not hesitate to enlighten us on these few points if indeed they themselves are sufficiently enlightened on them.

Let Us Have This Moslem Threat of A 'Civil war' A Bit Clarified

For example, where is the standing army on which the Moslems depend to give this battle in near future? Does it only constitute of the Moslem goondas and loafers who keep prowling about the towns and cities in India and are responsible to cause the riot-waves now and then to pass over the land disturbing for a while public peace and security here and there? If so it is a pity that our Moslem friends should have so completely lost all sense of proportion as to fail to realise that such riots are bound to revell on their perpetrators before long and that the instinct of self-defence has already roused up the Hindu sanghatanists to such an extent that even these Moslem riots hav already begun at several places to cost more dearly to the Moslems themselves than the Hindus. Such Moslem riots might have cowed down the Congressite Ministries in the past, but what if the Hindu Sanghathanists come to hold the reigns in almost all provinces in India as they are very likely to do before long ?

Or, can it be that this general ' Civil War ' which is threatenend so often to compel ' These absolutely incorrigible and hopeless ' Hindu Sabhais and Hindu Sanghathanists to accept the Pakisthan, is to be launched only when the British Power in India is made to collapse altogether as a consequence of some world shaking political earthquake and the Hindus and Moslems just as they stand are left to face each other in an interim anarchy ?

Well, if that be so then first of all is it not granting too much that the British power is going to be swept away from India at the puff of your Pakisthan resolution within a few decades ? And supposing such an eventuality does arise even before this year passes, does even the wishful thinking in which you are prone to indulge hold out any certainty for the Indian Moslem to vanquish the Hindus if but both of them are left face to face without any third great political power stopping in to back the Indian-Moslems? The Nizam State is about the only trump card in your hand and perhaps the Frontier tribes to boot. But opposed to them the Hindus are sure to marshal on in that case at least some fifty, larger Hindu states which are at any rate as well equipped, well-armed and powerful as any one you can boast of. Then again over and above this all stands there the Independent Hindu Kingdom of Nepal, with a standing army of a hundred thousand well seasoned and up to date soldiers to defend the Hindu cause. Under these circumstances 'Absolutely incorrigible Hindu Sanghathanists also wish to assure you in return that if ever such an anarchy does set in and the Moslems are found itching for a Civil War, then instead of fighting shy of it, the Hindus are sure to welcome it as a life's chance in the history of the Hindu Nation to regain all that they had lost.

A PAN-ISLAMIC ALLIANCE CAN SURELY BE CHECKMATED BY PAN-HINDU BUDDHISTIC ALLIANCE

It may be that in addition to all these projects, you are still expecting in spite of the miserable debacle you experienced in the Hizerat movement during your Khilaphat agitation some years ago, that the so-called Moslem powers out of India will hasten to the help of the Faithfuls in India. But is there any Moslem country now left throughout the world which can be really called a political or military power? How can you forget that Afghanistan, Iran, Turkey etc. each and every one of them have their own independence and even existence under an imminent danger of being thrown in a melting pot of the war-God in Europe? They will have to thank their stars if they can anyhow defend themselves so as to spare their own existence. But if ever for argument's sake a Pan Islamic front could be formed to give a fight to the Hindus, there is an equal likelihood that a Pan-Hindu-Buddhistic alliance will be brought into being to checkmate and crush the Islamic combination. It is an open secret that some such move is already being outlined and openly advocated by one of the most powerful Nations of the world in the Land of the Rising Sun aiming to bind together the Hindu-Buddhist world into a common front taking its stand on the fundamental affinities of a common religion common culture and common political interests. If the Moslems take their day dream of a Pan-Islamic alliance as a substantial political fact, then they cannot rule out the realization of the counter day-dream into which 'these incorrigible Hindu-Sanghatanists' may indulge and attempt to form a compact front of a Hindu-Buddhist alliance right from Jammu to Japan. The latter project is in no way more improbable than the first and if it does ever materialise it would certainly rout Pan-Islamic combination in no time.

The Tragical Fate of the Pakistan Unwillingly Foretold by Mr Jinnah Himself

Descending down from these airy nothings to the solid ground of the matter of fact world of to day the Moslem Leaguers will do better if they seriously how their own interests would rather be harmed than served if ever some small independent Moslem states are carved out in India as the Pakistan scheme proposes to do. How long, they think, these petty Moslem states can fare well pressed in on all sides as they are bound to be by the overwhelming forces of Hindudom ranged necessarily in bitter hostility towards these Moslem States on whom the Hindus cannot but look as danger zones of Moslem treachery? The Moslem state in Punjab with the Sikh Kripans, ever gnawing at its vitals, the speck of the Moslem state in East Bengal surrounded by the crores on crores of Hindus from Behar to Assam the wee-bit of Bhopal hemmed in by large and powerful Hindu states and Hindu provinces from the Jamna to the Narbada and the Nizam with the fiery Marathas, Andhras and Tamils ever ready to pounce upon it this is in short the picture of your Pakistan even if it ever materialises into fact. Will it not prove more dangerous to the peace and security of the Moslems themselves than it can ever do to the Hindus?

As luck would have it, this miserable fact which is in store for this Pakistan was unwittingly but most effectively hinted at by Mr. Jinha himself in his Presidential speech. In order to cheer up his Moslem audience with the conviction that these independent Moslem states were very likely to be ushered in into existence' in immediate future, Mr Jinnah pointed out triumphantly to the example of the Croats whom the all conquering Germans have only recently raised into an independent State. Proceeding further he even wanted the British to remember that if they would not create any independent group of Pakistan States in India others will come and do it. Comically enough in referring to the so-called independent state of Croats as a promise and a 'proto-type' of his Pakistan, he in fact gave up his whole case. If there were any amongst his Moslem audience who know anything about the history of the Croats, and the miserable existence they have been dragging along throughout centuries this reference to the Croatian State which Mr Jinnah unwittingly made to justify his claims to have a prosperous Pakistan must have sent a thrill of chilling despair in their hearts. The Croats the Serbs, the Slovones all tiny racial units had ever been at the mercy of larger and more consolidated races surrounding them precisely because these tiny units failed to get themselves consolidated into a larger National life.

The, socalled, independence of the Croatian state which the Germans, have, declared to day, will vanish away as soon as the Germans turn their back and some other conqueror, steps in. Those petty principalities ever, enslaved to, this or that power can but serve as a stern warning to such other petty states, and, racial units, and emphasise the fact that unless and until they learn to get themselves incorporated into sufficiently larger states they, can, never hope to end their perpetual misery and serfdom. The independence of the Pakisthan states proposed by Mr. Jinha in India cannot but be a sorry edition of the precarious independence of the Croatian state, to which he so aptly referred without meaning it.

Then again, such parasite growth of the Pakisthan type are no new experience to Hindudom. During the, course of the last five thousands years of its continuous growth and consolidation, this giagantic Octapus of Hindudom has clutched and crushed within the formidable grips of its mighty arms and absorbed a number of Shakasthans, Hunasthans the Marathas swallowed and gulped down your very Moghul

Empire entirely and altogether before it knew what was happening. The same fate shall these your petty parasites of Pakisthan states meet after a miserable existence for a span of time, even if they ever come into existence. History avers to the ever abiding truth that in India,—

Pakistan may come and Pakistan may go
But Hindusthan goes on for ever!!

There is consequently, only one way for the Indian Moslems to secure their safety, peace and prosperity as a community in India and that is to get themselves incorporated whole heartedly and loyally into an Indian nation which can only be done on the following conditions—

Independence of India Indivisibility of India as a Nation and a State Representation strictly in proportion to the population strength Public services to go by merit alone And the fundamental rights of freedom of worship language script etc. guaranteed to all citizens alike.

These are the basic principles from which any attempt of constitutional framing in India must start. These terms are as fair as they are beneficial to all alike. On these terms and on these terms alone the Hindu Sanghatanist India in general invites our Moslem brothers in their own interests to join hands in the fight for the freedom of our common Mother Land and the formation of an united and powerful Indian State.

On these terms and these terms alone, if they come with them, if they do not do not without them, but if they oppose inspite of them the Hindus are determind to continue the good fight for the freedom and integrity of Hindusthan!

Support Sj. Ashutosh Lahiri

APPEAL TO VOTERS

Elect only Hindu Mahasabha Candidates

I was glad to note that the Bengal

Provincial Hindu Mahasabha has set up Sjt Ashutosh Lahiri as its candidate in the by-election to the Bengal Legislative Assembly from the North Bengal Municipal Constituency

Without meaning any disrespect to the gentleman who is contesting the election against Ashu Babu, I feel that the Hindu interests not only in Bengal but throughout Hindusthan demand that the Hindu electorate in this constituency must return Sjt Ashutosh Lahiri as their accredited representative to the Assembly

Individually speaking Sjt Ashu Babu's sterling patriotism, ability, the life long public service he has put in and the sufferings he has undergone in the cause of the freedom of our Mother Land is too well known to Bengal to require any emphasis at my hand. To face an imprisonment in the easy-chaired "A" class today is also a patriotic service and has its own merit. But Ashu Babu faced an imprisonment in those terrible days when the Hindu Youth in Bengal was caught up by the spirit of Kali and when "A" class could but mean the Andaman class alone, where life had to face tortures of daily death. It was there in the Andamans that he suffered for full seven years in the very prime of his youth with unflinching courage and with his head erect. After his release he devoted himself to the cause of Hindu Sangathan and he must ever be ranked amongst those handful of faithful pioneers who raised and kept the Pan-Hindu Flag in Bengal when almost all Hindu Bengal was running mad after false Gods and to defend Hindu rights was almost looked upon as an act of National treachery. But he stood firm.

It is to the spade-work which Ashu Babu along with the first batch of the pioneers of the Hindu Movement has done in Bengal ever-since those days that the prestige and the power which the Hindu Mahasabha movement has come to possess today in Bengal are largely due. Consequently the Hindu electorate will but oblige itself if it elects so able, devoted and seasoned a Hindu

Sangathanist leader as Ashu Babu to represent the Hindu cause in the Bengal Legislature

But apart from this individual aspect of the candidature there is a Pan-Hindu issue involved in this pleatoral contest. So long as the electorates are based on communal distinction the Hindus can never have their special interests and aspirations represented in the Legislatures unless and until they elect only those candidates who stand on a clear-cut Hindu Mahasabha ticket, who owe no allegiance to any organisation which is not pledged wholly and solely to safeguard and promote the special interests of the Hindudom as a whole. To the Hindus all over India in general and of Bengal in particular, there can be no distinction between the so called national interest and the Hindu interest. Because what is after all the ideology the Hindu Mahasabha represents?

Independence of India indivisibility of India representation in proportion to the population strength, public services to go by merit alone and the fundamental rights of freedom of worship, language, script etc., guaranteed to all citizens alike are some of the basic principles on which the Hindu Mahasabha takes its stand. It realises that the best interests of the Hindus themselves demand under the present circumstances that the Indian Nation and the Indian State should be based on these fundamental foundation.

The conception of any genuine Nationality also, that takes no account of any communal or creedal superarrrogations into consideration, can go no further. That is why the Hindu Mahasabha claims that there can be no conflict or clash between Hindu interests and the interests of the Indian Nation as a whole.

The Hindu Mahasabha seeks not an inch more than what is legitimately due to it or than what it is willing to concede to all non-Hindu minorities in India in strict proportion to their population strength. But it follows from this very just and legitimate conception of true Nationalism that the Hindu Mahasabha should not yield an inch of what is legitimately due to the Hindus on ground of National equity, to the Moslems or any one else simply because they do not happen to be Hindus. The Congress, The Forward Bloc and all such organisations in India have sinned against this conception of real Nationality under a false notion of geographical Nationality. They have a set ideology, and policy which raise betrayal of Hindu rights to the pedestal of patriotic virtue. To prove that they are above communal level the Hindu leaders and followers belonging to these organisations hesitate even to claim themselves as representatives of Hindus!

But perversely enough they do not hesitate to seek elections at the hands of Communal electorates. They thereby betray both their National labels as well as the interests of the Hindu electorates who elect them to represent and guard the special rights of Hindus.

If the Congress or the Forward Block do not want to call themselves as representative bodies of the Hindus alone and claim to represent the Indian Nation as a whole the only logical and honest policy for them would be not to seek election on behalf of the Hindu electorate alone as they invariably do at present. So long as the electorates are divided communally, these bodies who call themselves National should refuse to stand for election on behalf of any of those communal electorates. They should wait till a real National electorate is ushered into being.

But this double dealing and misguided policy on the part of the Congress or the Forward Block or any of these so called National bodies have done an incalculable harm both to the Hindu interests and the National interests as well. The result of this Pseudo-Nationalistic error on the part of the Hindu Congressites with all its blocks and their heads left the Hindus entirely unrepresented as Hindus all round.

On the other hand the Moslem representatives in the Assembly, in the Board, at the Round Table Conferences and at all such vital centres got represented by the Moslem Leaguers, or by those Moslems who are pledged to Moslem electorates openly and whole heartedly, to safeguard and promote Moslem interests even to an overwhelmingly aggressive degree

And on the other hand the Congressites and the Forward Blockists and all such bodies duped by the Pseudo-Nationalistic mentality get themselves elected on behalf of the Hindu electorate as its representative but when in the Legislatures or in the Round Table Conferences or even in the day to day politics etc; whenever questions of Hindu interests arise, they refuse to advocate the Hindu case and even feel themselves insulted if the Government takes them as the representative of the Hindu electorate. In the case of the partition of Sindh, the Communal Award down to the question of Census this years when Mr Kripalani declared that the Cēnsus being a communal question, the Congress had to do nothing with it, the Hindu interests were actually betrayed in hundreds and hundreds of cases by these Pseudo-Nationalistic organisations inspite of the fact that they got themselves elected on behalf of the Hindu electorates. I know it personally that some of the foremost leaders of the Forward Block were eager only last year to placate the Muslim League at a larger sacrifice of the Hindu interests than even the official section of the Congress did, so that anyhow they must represent to the Government a Hindu-Muslim pact. The motives of the leaders of these Pseudo-Nationalistic organisations were above any personal interests and were even patriotic but patriots can also be befooled and betrayed into a suicidal policy. But whether their policy or their ideology be the cause, the results are what matters most to the Hindus who have been victimised and will continue to get victimised so long as the Hindu electorate persists in the

suitidal folly of electing the candidates who have pledged to the ideology and discipline of these Pseudo-Nationalistic bodies

Thus it is that Hindus as Hindus went absolutely misrepresented for the last 20 years at any rate in all representative bodies and in day to day politics and not only their political rights but even their language, religion and culture and above all Hindu honour had incalculably suffered and got humiliated and betrayed even down to such questions as the Hindu Flag and Hindu script. It is well known that the President of the Forward Bloc when he acted as the President of the Indian National Congress proposed that Hindus should accept Roman Script instead of Nagri as a script of Hindudom.

It is not enough that some individual candidate on the Congress or Forward Bloc ticket promises to safeguard Hindu interests

if he is elected by the Hindu electorate for the simple reason that he can never be in a position to do that in spite of himself so long as he is bound to the wheel of the Pseudo-Nationalistic Ideology and Policy and Discipline of his party whether it be the Congress or the Forward Bloc.

I affirm that under these circumstances the most effective and easiest way for those Hindus who feel that Hindudom has a right to be free, flourishing and powerful in this their own Father Land and Holy Land must elect only those representatives on behalf of the Hindu electorate who stand on the Hindu Mahasabha ticket and are consequently pledged and bound uncompromisingly to safeguard and promote Hindu interests under the lead of the Hindu Mahaasabha.

candidate on the Hindu Mahasabha ticket the Hindu electorate can serve and safeguard both their National interests in general as well as their special interests as Hindus in particular. In fact for a Hindu owning the Hindu Mahasabha ideology there can be no distinction whatsoever between his Hindu interest and his National interest.

But in electing a candidate who is bound to the ticket of any of the Pseudo Nationalistic bodies like the Congress or the Forward Bloc the Hindu electorate is sure to run the risk of having the special interests of the Hindus knowingly or unknowingly betrayed and even the genuinely Indian National interest hazarded.

IV

I therefore call upon all Hindus whether in Bengal or outside to follow determinately the only policy that can save them as effectively as possible under the present circumstances—the policy of electing as their representatives only those candidates who stand on the Hindu

Mahasabha ticket or are backed by it. Thereby alone the Government will be compelled to recognise the Hindu Mahasabha as the only representative body of Hindudom as a whole and the Congress will be deprived of any legal or legitimate right to speak on behalf of the Hindus.

The Government maintains that the Congress cannot represent the Moslems on the unchallengable ground that Moslem electorate never votes for a Congress candidate but votes unfailingly for a Moslem who is pledged openly to guard Moslem interest and owes no allegiance to any pseudo-Nationalistic body. Consequently if the Hindu electorate also makes it a point never to vote for any candidate who stands on the Congress ticket or the Forward Bloc ticket or the ticket of any Pseudo-Nationalistic body, the claim of the Hindu Mahasabha to represent Hindu interests will be legally and legitimately established. These elections are a challenge thrown by the Government to the Hindu electorate to prove that the Hindu Mahasabha represents them and the Congress can no longer sign any pacts like the Communal Award or the Pakistan that is threatening to come into being to the detriment of the Hindus. Conference to frame the future constitution of India will soon be summoned. If the Hindu Mahasabha can pass the acid test at the polls all over India and has its candidates returned by the Hindus as their accredited representatives, the Government will be compelled to recognise the position of the Hindu Mahasabha on par with the Moslem League in this conference. Then no Blank Cheques, no Communal Awards, no Pakistan Scheme, no weightages can be binding on the Hindus simply because the Congress signs them. The religions, the political and economical interests, the culture the language, the script, the honour and the whole future of the Hindu race and the Hindu Nation will be safe in the hands of the Hindu Mahasabha and no constitution or law or understanding can be binding on the Hindus unless and until it is signed by the Hindu Mahasabha. If but the Hindu electorate returns only the Hindu Mahasabha representatives to the Legislatures there will be in almost all provinces Hindu Sangathanat Ministries formed pledged to safeguard and promote Hindu interest only and uncompromisingly and even in the Hindu minority provinces powerful Hindu Sangathanist opposition parties in the Legislatures will be in a position to exercise an effective check on the Moslem Ministries to defeat their anti-Hindu aggressions. Consequently I call upon the Hindus all over India and specially in Bengal to realise the significance of this Pan-Hindu aspect in all future electoral campaigns.

If but the Hindu electorates take up a vow at any rate for the next five years to vote for the Hindu Sabhait candidates only and not to cast a single vote to the candidates of any other Pseudo-Nationalistic parties, the Hindus will be able to capture whatever political power there exists at present in India and from that position of vantage Hindudom will be able to defeat all anti-Hindu designs of the Moslem League, and even of the Britishers and will grow from strength to strength on its forward march, to achieve the absolute political Independence of Hindusthan, the land wherein a free and powerful Hindu Nation flourished for ever and ever.

SIGNIFICANCE OF ANTI-HINDU MOSLEM RIOTS

"In view of the fact that treading on the heels of the sustained rioting in Sindh as well as in Eastern Bengal Anti Hindu riots of a similar type have broken out in Ahmadabad and Bombay and the fact that in all these riots the Moslems launched an aggressive campaign which on the very face of it could not but be pre-meditated and organised on such a large scale that the riots could not be looked upon as sporadic incidents but must have been the local manifestations of a set All India campaign guided by a general anti Hindu policy with an ulterior political motive behind them,—I feel it necessary to warn the Hindus that they should realise in time the special significance which attaches to them and the far reaching consequences they are meant by the Moslems to serve. The special points to be noted in this connection are as follow:-

- (1) "That these riots should not be looked upon as riots but in fact as a general ruing of the aggressively minded Moslems against the Hindus on an All India scale.

(2). "When these riotous rising on the part of the Moslem aggressors manifested itself in Sindh and the N. W. F Provinces, it was not confined to a particular locality, but assumed the nature of an anti-Hindu campaign spreading itself over large parts of the provinces with slogans and crimes against the Hindus in general which clearly betrayed the political motive which actuated them at bottom. Immediately after that a riot-wave passed over large tracts in East Bengal wherein thousands of Moslem rioters kept moving in an organised formation from village to village shouting 'Pakisthan has come' and tried to convert hundreds of Hindu men, women and children to Mahomedism by force and indulged in arson, murder desecration of temples and loot to efface the very trace of Hindu habitation from village to village and town to town.

"Consequently, the Hindu Mahasabha had to take up the challenge in self-defence and pointed out with incontrovertable facts and figures that it were the Moslem Ministries' which were chiefly responsible for the Moslem risings especially in Sindh and Bengal. The Mahasabha demanded that the Moslem Ministries be forthwith dismissed for their partial unwillingness and total incapacity to maintain law and order and acquainted the Viceroy as well as the Secretary of State telegraphically with this situation and called upon the Government to see to it that the Governors in Sindh and Bengal should resume the Governments in their hands in exercise of the special responsibility of affording legitimate protection to the Hindu minority and to safeguard its life, property and fundamental rights of citizenship. The Viceroy and the Governors replied to the protest made by the Hindu Mahasabha that they were determined to take stringent steps and use all Governmental powers to stamp out any communal violence and aggression and restore law and order. But these promises were not translated into action as stringently and immediately as they ought to have been done.

(3) "It requires no special insight to see that the Moslems in the meanwhile were doubtless perturbed and the Moslem Ministries also got nervous as a consequence of the storm of protest and resistance too raised by the Hindu Mahasabha in self defence throughout India. They therefore, must have planned out a policy which aimed to foment anti-Hindu Moslem risings of a type similar to those which were witnessed in Sindh and Bengal in those provinces also where the Moslem Ministries did not rule and the Governors had already resumed all Governmental power in their own hands so that it could no longer be said that it was only the Moslem Ministries who failed to protect the Hindu minority in their provinces. They wanted to prove that the Moslems were able to rise in arms against the Hindus in those provinces also wherein the Governors rule and are in a position to flout and humiliate the Governmental administration too where it is directly guided and controlled by the British Governors themselves. It was a challenge to the Hindu majority as well as the British Governors in provinces other than those where the Hindus happened to be in minority and the Moslem Ministries ruled. That is the reason, and I exhort the Hindus as well as the Government to note this special significant fact,—why after Sindh and Bengal the Moslems of a set plan chose Ahmadabad and the Bombay as the special objectives of their violent rising

(4) “ Owing to the incredible supineness of the Governmental authorities at Ahmadabad on the first few days of the outbreak the Moslem rioters there could indulge in their nefarious orgies of arson, looting and murderous onslaught on Hindus

“ The Congress mentality also was in no small way responsible for the shameful unpreparedness on the part of the Hindus in Ahmadabad to face this aggression. Warnings were not wanted which were given by the Hindu Sangathanits section both to the police authorities and the Hindus in general before the Moslem outbreak. But the enervating teachings of Gandhistic Pseudo-Nationalism and placating the Moslems even to the point of suicide have rendered the Hindus wherever this Congress mentality still persists unwilling, impotent and nerveless even to exercise rights of self defence within the limits of

of Ahamadabad lay inert and consequently suffered
violence

(5) "Within a week of the riot at Ahamadabad the Moslems rose in riots in Bombay. It was all expected by the Hindu Sanghatanists. The Government too took up a stern attitude in time. The police and the military acted on the whole with promptitude and vigour while the Hindus also stood more or less fully prepared to guard their hearths and homes and presented an organised front in self defence. Consequently, the Moslems found themselves failed. In spite of persistent attempts on their part to set the Hindu localities aflame, launch murderous attacks on the Hindus and re-act the scenes of Ahamadabad, at Bombay, are everywhere thrown back and held in check, at least down to this hour. The moral of it all is plain.

(6) "But as I have stressed above, there is every chance that the Moslems would try to cover the sins of the Moslem Ministries in Sindh and Bengal, to rise against the Hindus in almost all provinces where the Hindus happen to be in majority and the Moslem Ministries do not rule. Even as I am writing this news comes in that riots have broken out in Cawnpore and near Patna. The Government will also do well to note the fact that the Moslems want to challenge not only the Hindu majorities but even the Governmental capacity to maintain law and order in provinces where the Governors directly rule. They should in discharge of their Governmental duty forestall this aggressive and violent designs on the part of the Moslems by taking adequate precaution and measures and stamping out any the slightest attempt to rise in riots on the parts of the Moslems with the sternest measures possible.

(7) * While on the other hand the Hindus all over India should get themselves adequately organised before, in self-defence and hold themselves ready in every locality to face these most unprovoked Moslem aggression. The sooner the Congress theory that these riots are but the aimless out-breaks of violence on the part of the so-called goondas and hooligans is hit on its head the better for the Hindus. Those riots are not the outbreaks of the virulent meanness of goondas and hooligans alone. Had it been so the Moslem goondas would have looted rich Hindus and Moslems alike, would have desecrated Mosques and Temples both, would have perpetrated outrages on Moslem women as well as Hindu women, would have burnt Hindu and Moslems quarters alike ! But has anything of that sort happened in Sindh, in Bengal ? at Ahamadabad ? or at any place wherever such Moslem riots took place, ever since the Mopla rising in Malabar to this day ?

The madness has a method in it. This riot wave that is passing over India today is specially the work of pre-meditated religious and political fanaticism. It is not the goondas and hooligans who are fighting with each other on two sides. It is two ideologies that have come to the grips and mean to fight with each other to a finish. The sooner the Hindus realise this significance of these anti-Hindu Moslem riots that are now certain to spread all over India if but they could, the better for the Hindus. ”

Message to Sindh-Hindus "

The special message to my Hindu brethren in Sindh which you have asked me to send for the special issue of the 'Prakash' is to the following effect—

'The immediate programme which I call upon the Hindus in Sindh to adopt uncompromisingly as calculated to serve best interests of them as well as the interests of Hindudom as a whole must consist of the following items in the main:—

(1) Hindu Militarization — Let the Hindus in Sindh enter the army, the navy and the airforce in as large a number as they find practicable. They should not mind if many candidates and applicants are rejected. But in spite of it all they are bound to secure entry for a large number of Hindus in all the forces as well as the technical line connected with the war effort. Whatever the number of the Hindus which succeeds in securing an entry into the army, they should feel confident that they are rendering the most effective patriotic service to the Hindu cause in contributing their share to the militarization of the Hindus in general. If any one wants any definite information regarding the rules or address, let him write to Dr. N. D. Sāvarkar, Hindu Militarization Board, Dadar Hindusabha office, Lady Jamshetji Road, Dadar Bombay, 14. Or to Syt. Shivrampant Damle, Secretary Maharashtra Mandal, Poona 2. These two centres have already succeeded in securing entry into the navy, air-forces and the army in cases of several patriotic Hindu youths and have also secured the Viceregal and the King's Commissions for able and talented Hindus. Let the Hindus in Sindh lose no time in magnifying difficulties only on the path before they enter it and try to tread it. But let them force the path in spite of the difficulty and they will find it open if not for all at any rate for many of their ablest and patriotic comrades.

Legislatures and local bodies, on a clear-cut Hindu ticket — It is most essential in the interest of Hindadom as a whole, and Sindh, Hindus in particular that the Congress must be deprived of the right of representing Hindu electorate, for the simple reason that the Congress openly refuses to represent the special interests of Hindus and even raises the act of betraying and sacrificing deliberately the Hindu interests to the fetish of the Pseudo-Nationality as an act of patriotic virtue. No sane man will engage and advocate to plead his cause who openly pockets the fees paid by that man but refuses to plead his cause and even, betray his case as a Nationalist. If the Hindus are sane they should also cease to cast a single vote for any candidate to the Legislatures etc. who stands on a Congress ticket and owes allegiance to the Pseudo-Nationality and the anti-Hindu policy of that body and entitle the Congress to represent his interests which that body openly flouts as communal and has systematically refused to represent. From the question of aspiration of Sindh down to the question of this last Census which Mr. Kripalani tabled as a communal question and avowed that the Congress would do nothing to see that the Hindus were properly and correctly registered in it, the Congress has systematically betrayed Hindu interests openly and called it Nationalism, while it was not ashamed to get elected on the votes of those very communal Hindu electorates. They thus betrayed both, the genuine National interest as well as the Hindu interest. But if the Hindus, especially in the Province of Sindh where they are in minority, make it a point to vote only for the Hindu Mahasabha ticket in elections and return those candidates alone who pledge themselves openly, uncompromisingly and whole-heartedly to safeguard and promote Hindu interests alone and owe no allegiance to any Pseudo-Nationalistic body like the Congress and its discipline and policy, then and then alone the political power which has fallen to the lot of the Hindus in Sindh could be utilised for the benefit of the Hindus. As the Hindus do not want an inch more than what is legitimately due to them on basis of equity and equality, the Hindu cause is perfectly identified with the genuine Nationalism. Therefore, in voting for the Hindu Mahasabha ticket alone, the Hindus will serve the Hindu interests as well as their National interests. Consequently, let the Hindus in Sindh cast no vote for the Congress candidates. Vote only for the Hindu Mahasabha ticket and from a powerful Hindu party in Legislatures etc., openly pledged to guard Hindu interests alone and the Hindus in Sindh will find, in spite of their being in minority, that their political strength is united, consolidated and powerful enough to hold in check even the Moslem majority and its government and safeguard Hindu interests as best as could be done under the present circumstances.

Above all the Hindus will thus deprive the Congress of any claim of representing Hindu electorates and thus no pact or policy or Communal Awards or Blank Cheques or any compromise on the anti-Hindu Pakistanian proposal which the Congress may sign can be binding on the Hindus. The Government also will be compelled to recognise the Hindu Mahasabha as the representative body of the Hindus legitimately elected by the Hindu electorate just as the Government recognises the Moslem bodies like the Moslem League etc. to represent the Moslems because the Moslem electorate always votes for the Moslem ticket and never votes as a rule for the Congress one. Once the Hindu Mahasabha is recognised unchallengably as the representative body of the Hindus even in the Legislature the Hindus will secure as powerful an advocate of the Hindu cause at any Round Table Conferences to come, as the Moslem League serves for the Moslems and the Hindu rights will no longer be betrayed by default.

If any one wants to realise the far reaching consequences of this policy of not voting for the Congress, but voting always for the Hindu Maha Sabha ticket, let him read my latest book ' Hindu Sanghatan ' ( Its Ideology and policy ), published by Syt. N. V Damle.

Retort to Rajendra Prasad's dose of Moral Homily to Bihar Hindus

"Dr. Rajendra Babu of Behar is reported to have issued a statement in which he had administered a dose of moral homily to the Hindus in Behar in connection with the recent riots there in which the number of dead and wounded Moslems was three times larger than the casualties amongst the Hindus Babu Rajendra Prasad has consequently admonished the Hindus to remember that it was extremely regrettable that they should have mis-behaved thus. Whatever be the causes that led to the riots in Behar, says Babu Rajendra Prasadji, it was unjust and reprehensible that the Hindus should retaliate in Behar to avenge the outrages to which Hindus were subjected in some other provinces by Moslem violence.

"I do not know what proof Babu Rajendra Prasadji had if his reported statement be true to come to the conclusion that Hindus in Behar tried to avenge the wrongs which the Hindus in Dacca or in Sindhi were made to undergo at the hand of Moslem fanaticism. It would really be a surprise if the Hindus have come to develop such a keen sense of Pan-Hindu sympathy as to feel in one province for the wrongs which Hindu suffer in other provinces and even be prepared to avenge them. A Hindu has always been known not to look further than his nose and not to care a fig for the interests or sufferings of Hindudom as a whole. Even the enemies of Hindus were always delighted to credit him for 'Behaving Well' on this point. It is indeed a news to know that the Hindu has begun to "Mis-behave" in that he should feel so violently for his Hindu brethren and at that even in far off provinces Babu Rajendra Prasadji has indeed done well in going in sack cloth and ashes to do penance for this "Mis-behaviour" on the part of the Hindus in Behar

"But Babu Rajendra Prasadji, a kind soul that he is, would have done better if he had visited Dacca, Narayan Ganj, and other places in Eastern Bengal while thousands of Moslem fanatics in massed formation were indulging there in riotous orgies against the Hindu minority and hemmed it in on all sides by murder, pillage, arson, forcible conversions,—in short all that Pakistan means'—and condemning the Hindus in Behar for having committed "Mis-deeds," when in fact they had to defend themselves against the unprovoked Moslem aggressions at Beharsherif and elsewhere. When Rajendra Babu was challenged as to why he fought so shy and failed to condemn the Moslem outrages at Dacca, in Sindli, in N W I P etc, with due vehemence and why he was in such a hot haste in pre-judging adversely the Hindus only in the affected parts round about Beharsherif even before any judicial inquiry was set up into the causes of the riots and before the law courts had tried the riot cases, Dr Rajendra Prasad resorted to this singular defence of his conduct. "It is no good blaming others," said the Congressite leader, "We should blame our own people and try to correct them. As a Hindu I can only admonish Hindus. The Moslem leaders alone should preach to the Moslems." This was the gist of his argument as reported in the papers.

 has ever been a stereotyped article of faith in the Gandhist cult of casuistry. Gandhiji himself has tried to camouflage his anti-Hindu outbursts on similar occasions under this spacious plea. Sailing under these false colours, the Congressite Hindus have been betraying Hindu interests and selling the birth rights of Hindudom for a mess of pottage ever since the Khilaphat days. We must therefore tear off this mask and make it impossible for the Congressites to represent Hindus as Hindus or arrogate to themselves any right either to advise or to admonish the Hindu people, much less to represent them.

“Babu Rajendra Prasadji says he is a Hindu and the Hindus are his own people and as a Hindu leader it is his special duty to admonish the Hindus alone. If that be so we want to know definitely whether Dr Rajendra Prasad has repudiated or cut off his connection with the Congress. Is he or is he not ‘a Nationalist’ of the Congress brand? If he is a true Congressite Nationalist, how can he openly declare that the Hindus ‘Are our own people’ and the Moslems by implication were ‘Other people’ for whom he cares less or at any rate not as much as he cares for the Hindus? As a Congressite Nationalist the Dacca Moslems or the Sindh Moslems ought to be as near to him as his own people as the Hindus in Behar! In fact he could not have made any distinction between a Hindu and Moslem and loved and treated and dealt with all alike as Indians. In that case all Hindus and Moslems being his "Own people" equally near to him he ought to have admonished the Moslems in Dacca Sindh and other places as promptly and vehemently as he thought it his duty to admonish the Hindus in Behar. Did not Gandhiji refuse to see Jinnah as a Hindu leader? Has not the Congress refused a hundred times over and over again to safeguard the special interests of the Hindus whenever they were threatened by Moslem aggression whether in Malabar or Kohat, at the Round Table Conference or in the Legislatures under the spacious plea that the Congress was above all communal considerations and knew all citizens of India as Indians alone? Did not Mr. Kripakant tell us only the other day when the question of Census was vital to the Hindu interests had to be fought out that the Congress would do nothing to get the Hindu population correctly and truly registered as that was a communal question and below the dignity of such "a Nationalist" body as the Congress ?

Secondly if the casuistic argument be true Babu Rajendra Prasad being a Hindu should only blame the Hindus, whatever be the aggression committed against them by non-Hindus all over India because "It was no good blaming others" then how is it that the Congress, Rajendra Babu not excluded, has all along been blaming the British people, organising fiery protests on an All India scale against such British outrages as the Jalianwalla Bagh tragedy, demanding that British officers guilty of this or that high handedness should be punished, declaring non-co-operation with all British officers etc even in social functions? If it is unjustifiable to blame "Others" howsoever aggressive they be, then all agitations against the British people and Government which we have carried on, and rightly so, would be condemnable for the simple reason that the British people were after all not "Our own people" ! How is it that the Congressites blame the Fascists, condemn the Japanese, hate the Nazis in season and out of season although they are " Other people ", Or are we to suppose that the British, the Nazis the Italians etc are " Our own people " but the Moslems alone are not our own people and are more alien to us than the British, the Germans the Japanese and consequently we may admonish condemn fight against the British and all others for their aggressions but should not utter a single word of protest against the Indian Moslems even if they continue to indulge without let or hindrance in such murderous anti-Hindu orgies and outrages as in the cases of the Mopla rising or their risings in Siodli; Eastern Bengal etc etc

Thus for a Congressite " Nationalist " to say that he is specially privileged to admonish the Hindus alone because they are his own people and has no justification in admonishing the Indian Moslems even when they are guilty of murderous anti-Hindu orgies because they are not his own people is absurd in the extreme

begging votes at the door of the Hindu electorate, when they hand over Blank Cheques on behalf of the Hindus, do not vote against the Communal Awards when they play the part of false approvers against the Hindus. The Congressite Nationalists have a special claim over the Hindus as 'Their own people' only, when they want to blame and admonish the Hindus, exploit Hindu votes, or betray Hindu rights. But whenever occasions of defending special interests, life and property, hearths and homes of the Hindus, are concerned, whether it be at Malabar, Kohat, Sindh or Dacca or at the Round Table Conferences or Legislatures or in connection with the Census or questions vital to the Culture, Language, and Religion of the Hindus, the Congressites disown the Hindus even angrily and try to pass off as Nationalists of Nationalists !! The Congressites must be told plainly that you can no longer play this double game You cannot represent the Hindus or pose as Hindu leaders only when you wish to curse the Hindus, admonish them or betray their rights. He who is real Hindu and looks upon the Hindus honestly and bravely as "His own people" can only justify that claim by defending the Hindus against non Hindu aggressions by fighting and chastising, with all legitimate weapons, those "other peoples" whether Britishers or Moslems or otherwise who dare to attack Hindus in any part of the world

The Hindu Mahasabha alone has been discharging this duty and has stood by the Hindus with uncompromising, active and devoted allegiance throughout its career and to the best of its abilities and consequently it is the Hindu Mahasabha and not the Congress or the Congressite "Nationalists" which can represent Hindudom as a whole.

Message of Barrister Savarkar on his 59th Birth-day

Let every Hindu who is capable to put in military service, join the land forces and the air forces or secure entry into the ammunition factories and such other manufacturing workshops in connection with war crafts

Militarise the Hindu Nation!
That is the foremost message for this

Hinduisse all Politics & Militarise Hindudom!!

From several Hindu Sanghatanist quarters a pressing request is being made to me to send some public message on the occasion of this my 59th Birthday. Instead of writing to them severally, I think it will serve the purpose better and will spare me my time more if I send a common message to the Hindu public in general.

My message to Hindudom on the eve of this 59th Birthday of mine is to the effect that —

MILITARISE HINDUDOM!!

The Hindus should henceforth test all National and international politics and policies

through the Hindu point of view alone. Whatever policy or political event contributes to safeguard and promote Hindu interests must be backed up by the Hindus and whatever is likely to prove detrimental to Hindu interests must be condemned and opposed by the Hindus. In as much as the Hindus do not ask anything more than what is legitimately due to them on principles of equity and equality, Hindu interests must of necessity be consistent with the demands and contents of genuine Nationalism and even humanism.

Let the Hindus therefore as an immediate step to give effect to this Hinduised political progress, elect only those Hindus to represent them in the Legislatures and all other political bodies as Hindu representatives who pledge themselves openly and uncompromisingly, to safeguard to defend and to promote uncompromisingly the interest of Hinduism as a whole. Thus firstly Hindu all politics

And secondly, as the first and immediate step to militarise Hindudom, let every Hindu youth who is capable to stand the test, try his best to enter the army, the navy and the air forces or get the training and secure employment in the ammunition factories and in all other branches connected with war crafts.

Unforeseen facilities are being thrown open to you. Unexpected opportunities have presented themselves before you. You help no one else more than you help yourselves if you utilise these facilities and opportunities to militarise Hindudom! This done, everything else shall follow! if you miss this, nothing else shall avail.

This sums up the whole programme and the supreme duty of the hour.

Hinduise all politics and Militarise Hindudom!! — and the resurrection of our Hindu Nation is bound to follow it as certainly as the Dawn follows the darkest hour of Night

H. E. the C. in C. & Sir Jwala Prasad

Press Note —

"As announced previously, the interview between Sir Jwalaprasad Shrivastav and His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief took place at Delhi. Sir Jwalaprasad represented the view point of the Hindu Mahasabha under instructions of veer Savarkarji, the president of the Hindu Mahasabha in connection with the general political and military policy and the special difficulties which confronted the Hindus in the army, the navy and the air-forces. His Excellency gave a very sympathetic bearing and promised to do all he could to remove Hindu grievances regarding Military service and expressed his grateful appreciation of the lead given by Barrister Savarkar in exhorting the Hindus to join the forces of the land with a view to defend India from enemy attacks."

Veer Savarkarji all over Hindusthan.

Hundreds of Hindusthanit workers approached Savarkar Sahab the residence of the President at Dadar, Bombay, 28, in the morning on 28-5-1941, with garlands, sweet-meats, and Hindu flags in their hand & Hindu songs on their lips. The riot situation could not check nor abate the enthusiasm of the Hindu public in Bombay; no it must have enhanced the sense of gratitude. Among the visitors many prominent Gujarathi merchants, office bearers of the local Hindusabhas and many more youths were seen who took this chance of seeing the President.

Telegrams of greetings and gratitude were pouring from all parts of India. In addition to the numerous grams from the farthest corners of Maharashtra, many more came from places like Gauhatti, Delhi, Hubli, Udupi, Karachi, Sukkur Rasode, Gaya, Meerut, Bezwada, Jubbalpur and states like Kashmir, Bhopal, Hyderabad, Mysore and Gwalior, many of which bore a personal tinge of respect.

Largely attended meetings were held in prominent places along with many side-way towns. The Delhi Meeting was really of a mammoth meeting. At Madras Dr. Nimbkar, Diwan Bahadur Shastri, Kalidas Editor "Anandavani", Govinddass Lodd overwhelming kindness of my people was the first and the foremost thought which occupied my mind on that day, yet curiously enough a second thought also kept haunting my mind which also being of public interest deserves a public expression. It is well known that at the age of 26 I got two sentences of transportation for life which were to run consecutively. This meant that if at all I survived I was to be released at the age of 77 in 1961 A D !! Consequently whenever the question of my release cropped up in the Andamans my kind jailor, one Mr. Barrie, now no more, took a special delight in cutting an ironical joke as a moral torture and used to assure me thus "Well Savarkar, the Government will never release you from this cellular jail unless and until I have the unique privilege of finding you in this very cell under lock and key and offer my felicitations on your 77th Birthday."

Nor was he wrong in presuming it all. For under those circumstances there was not the slightest possibility of my surviving, the sentence and visiting my Mother Land again.

“It was but a forgetful fit of destiny, a freak of fate, that enables me today to be in my Home Land on my 59th Birthday and to receive the kindest felicitations of my Nation, instead of being in the cell of the Andamanese prison under lock and key on my 77th Birthday as ordered and foretold by the British Judges and Jailors!

“And yet who knows what has the Political future still in reserve!”

How Thus Adjustment and co-operation between Hindusanghatanists and Sanatanists forming a strong Hindu front are thus feasible and probable

Sanatanists interview and correspond with Veer Savarkarji. . . .

Shri Bharat Dharma Mahamandal which is led by distinguished men like Maharaja of Dewas (Junior) and Sir Mookorji is giving its sincere attention to form a strong Hindu front by adjusting and co-operating on all common major points of unity. Some Pandits had come to interview Veer Savarkarji, at Bombay, on behalf of the Mandal purporting it to be a deputation. They had written some questions already and Veer Savarkarji gave them a list of the compromise which was acceptable to both the parties.

The Hindu Mahasabha and all Sanatan organisations have 95% points in common. All attacks of the non-Hindus, whether political, religious, cultural, linguistic, economic etc., are faced and foiled to a large extent by the Hindu Mahasabha to day in the main. Hindu Mahasabha is bearing the brunt of the fight in the active field. On all the common points the Sanatanists can of course work hand in hand to a large extent.

with the Hindu Mahasabha. The second point to be borne in mind on the other hand is the fact that the Congress cannot guard and does not wish to safeguard Hindu interests in special in any case whatsoever referred to above. That is, the Sanatanists and the Hindu Mahasabhaits agree with each other on 95 points in a hundred and both of them must of necessity be opposed to the Congress cent percent. Therefore, even taking for granted that we cannot see eye to eye 5% still it is our bounden duty, to safeguard the 95% interests, to work together and form a common Hindu front in the next elections and vote for only that candidate who stands openly on a Hindu ticket,—and NOT to vote for the Congress at all

So far as the 5% differences of views are concerned, I guarantee that the Hindu Mahasabha shall never force any legislations regarding the entry of untouchables in the ancient temples or compel by law any sacred ancient and moral usage or custom prevailing in those temples.

In general the Mahasabha will not back up any Legislation to thrust the reforming views on our Sanatani brothers so far as personal law is concerned but the Sanatanis on the contrary should recognise that in public life all Hindus must be looked upon on the basis of equality and should leave the reformists free to bring about their religious reforms etc. by means of persuasion and mental change. If in spite of this arrangement any question comes up on which the two cannot but differ then only on that question both of them should be free to act as they like. But this will be a very rare exception. In any case we must unite and present a consolidated Hindu front on all the 95% points at any rate on which we are absolutely one. This is in short the solution of the problem.

This attitude has greatly been appreciated by the Sanatani leaders and it is receiving their cordial & Sincere Consideration approval in several leading quarters.

An Important Shuddhi ceremony and Pan-Hindu Dinner at Bombay. Veer Savarkarji Presides.

“ A very important Shuddhi ceremony took place at MAHIM, (BOMBAY) on the 29 th June, 1941, under the Presidentship of Veer Savarkar.

In the days of the Portuguese inquisition hundreds of thousands of Hindu families were forcibly converted into Christianity almost at the point of the bayonet. After some four hundred years or so when the Hindusanghathan movement set in recently Shri Masurkar Maharaj of Satara succeeded in reconverting on a mass-scale ten thousand of these Christians back into the Hindu fold only a few years ago. This striking success of the Sanghathan movement naturally roused organised opposition on the part of the Missionaries in Portuguese India and Bombay. But after strenuous efforts of the Hindusanghathanists on all sides, a second campaign of mass reconversion into the Hindu fold is launched and promises to turn out as successful as the first. The Bombay Provincial Hindu Sabha reconverted this week the first batch of some fifty Christians whose ancestors were forced to be Christians and who had to continue there for the last three hundred years. Dr Parandare who lead this movement along with Rao Bahadur Bole, Dr Savarkar and many distinguished Hindu Sabhait leaders attended the function. A big sacrificial Hom ' was performed. Shriman Bhagji Sheth Keer, who has built a number of Pan-Hindu temples wherein all Hindus from the so-called untouchables to Brahmins and Kshatriyas are allowed to worship without any caste discrimination paid all the expenses of the Shuddhi ceremony and presented Dhotees and Saris to all reconverted men and women. The spirited and highly inspiring speech of Veer Savarkarji created such an enthusiasm among the largely crowded audience of Hindus of all persuasions who attended the meeting that amid a loud and continuous shouts of Hindu Dharma ki Jai & Hindustan Hindionka ' thousands of them expressed their readiness to die there and then with the newly converted kols and to rule marital relations with them in future Accordingly nearly a thousand men and women, Brahmins, Kshatriyas, the socalled depressed classes and the newly converted Hindus took part in a Pan-Hindu dinner Veer Savarkarji himself was observed sitting and dining right in the midst of the newly converted Hindu brethren. 'Direct action myth' exploded !!

"It is found that many critics are trying to read their own mind in the resolution regarding the 'Direct Action' passed at Calcutta by the All India Committee of the Hindu Mahasabha this month, rather than what the actual wording of it or the spirit behind it warrants. This mis-interpretation is in some cases purposive and even malicious. It is necessary, therefore, that the salient points involved in the resolution should be elucidated and brought out in clear relief so that a definite and un-mistakable lead may be given to the Hindu Sanghatanists all over India, which the resolution was meant to do.

(1) 'The first point to be noted in this connection is to the effect that —'

(a) The resolution passed at Calcutta has not cancelled the resolution passed at Madura. Nor does it go back or belie the spirit that informed it.

(b) It 'only' postpones an actual resort to 'Direct Action' with regard to those issues only which refer to the fundamental changes in the Indian constitution.

(c) 'Direct Action' on such All India issues and which must necessarily be carried on an All India scale is the only action which is postponed by the Calcutta resolution under the present circumstances. (d) On all other points any programme of 'Direct Action' is not only not cancelled or even postponed but is actually sanctioned and recommended by the Calcutta resolution wherever resort to such an action is felt necessary in defence of immediate Hindu interests, whether local, provincial or of an All India magnitude.

(2) "The fact that the gist the real implications and the spirit behind the

 resolution passed at Calcutta are precisely as they are summarised in the above paragraphs, could be indisputably borne out by the actual wording of the resolution if it is read out in extenso as it stands. Now, in order to judge whether the resolution as passed at Calcutta is the most opportune and best calculated to safeguard and promote Hindu interests under present circumstances, it is necessary to understand what the All-India Committee really and precisely meant by 'Direct Action'. This point can best be clarified as follows —

“The term ‘Direct Action’ as referred to vaguely in the Madura resolution has many aspects. It may mean anything and everything from an active and armed revolt down to the passive non co-operating inaction.

“Direct action, in its first aspect of an armed revolt cannot be, for reasons which are obvious, a subject for discussion here at present. Nor could any section of the public have understood the term under the present circumstances to mean an armed revolt The Congressite section at any rate could not and would not have touched it even with the pair of tongs, as they were bound to the creed, whether with belief or without belief in it, of absolute non violence So for our present purpose here we may leave that aspect altogether out of account in this discussion

What was really understood by a very large section of the Indian public in general and by the Congressite section in particular was of course a jail-seeking programme actuated or professing to be actuated by the queer belief in self tortures and self immolation as the best remedy to melt the hearts of even stocks and stones This belief baptised by its own adherents themselves as something like 'Non-violent non-co-operating non resistance' was of course rejected by the Hindu Sabhants as unalloyed 'non-sense'

not only 'justifiable but imperative. As Herbert Spencer puts it 'absolute non-resistance or absolute non-violence hurts both altruism and egoism. The Mahasabha considers relative non-violence, in so far as it is calculated to prove beneficial to mankind in general, as a positive virtue. But absolute non violence or absolute non-resistance even to aggression cannot but be condemned as absolutely immoral in as much as it is bound to spell the destruction of all human progress by sacrificing the innocent to spare the guilty by exterminating the higher and more nobly evolved section of mankind and to leave the wicked alone to multiply and if the principle of absolute non-violence or non-resistance is to be stressed out to apply to our dealings with the brute world including serpents, tigers and wolves as it must be done if the non-violence or non-resistance is to be absolute. Then this wicked principle must ultimately efface the very existence of man from the face of this earth. The Hindú Mahasabha never believed in such a queer and immoral creed and has consequently never meant by 'Direct Action' any campaign of such a "jail-Seeking" programme based on such a creed.

“ Consequently it was but expected that the Congressite section of the public in particular which understood up to this time by ‘Direct Action’ nothing else but such a jail-seeking programme, should raise a hue and cry against the Hindu Mahasabha when they found that thousands on thousands of Hindusabhaits did not rush into the jail blindly without weighing pros and cons, and should blame the Hindu Maha Sabha for having gone back on its own decision at Madura. But in this the Congressites are only fighting with the shadows of false hopes raised by their own perverted imagination. Moreover, there seems to be a secret feeling of irritation working on their brains to find that the Mahasabha did not walk in the trap in which they got themselves voluntarily caught and should have refused to keep company with them there.

(3) “But by ‘Direct Action’ the Hindu Mahasabha means resistance to aggression offered in such a wise as to inflict a deterrent punishment on the wrong doer to make the aggressor suffer more in the long run than their own forces. It never contributed to the general superstition which

(4). Viewed from this correct perspective of all the demands forwarded by the Madura resolution those which refer to the fundamental changes in the Indian constitution were obviously the most inconvenient to form immediate issue on which a movement of ' Direct Action ' as defined above could be launched under the present circumstances. Take for example the demand that equal co-partnership in the Indo-British Commonwealth should be granted within a year after the cessation of the war. The Government made a promise in response to this demand that such a co-partnership would be granted, but they refused to bind themselves by any time limit. Would the Hindu Mahasabha have been well advised to take up this issue immediately in hand here and now and to launch an All-India Campaign of sending thousands on thousands of Hindusanghatanists to brave imprisonment and to pay lacs upon lacs of Rupees as fine to the Government,—and all this merely to demand a promise that equal co-partnership will be granted within one year after the cessation of the war. Even supposing that after such an enormous cost to us we succeeded in squeezing out say after a year a promise to this effect from the Government could it be more than a promise? Do we not know what mere promises mean in politics and how they are not worth a moment's purchase even in international sphere of truces and treaties between all powerful nations. Then again what certainty there is as to how long the war is likely to last. Even the best of the German and the English Statesmen differ in their forecast and put down the duration of the war from some three years right up to some thirty years' term? Are we to continue and is any party whatsoever in India in a position to continue to send thousands on thousands to jail and to continue to face untold and unforeseen sacrifices year in and year out till it suits Europe to end this war after some three to thirty years? And to undergo all this enormous loss for the fun of securing a promise?—that within one year after the cessation of such a long drawn war, equal co-partnership should be granted to us. Under the British flag? As a policy it would have been stupid as a strategy suicidal!!!

fancies that going forward must always be an act of bravery or falling backward of cowardice. If your forces, while marching on, find themselves suddenly on the point of a dangerous precipice, it cannot be an act of bravery but of criminal foolhardiness to persist still in going forward and furl them down into an abysmal depth of destruction. while you are waiting for a frontal attack if you find all of a sudden that an hostile force appears on your rear to attack you, does not bravery consist in suddenly taking a round about turn in falling back and returning the attack? Or does it consist in still maintaining your frontal stand simply for the boorish fear that such a falling back will be stigmatised by some fools or knaves as an act of cowardice? The first principle in politics as well as in warfare lays it down that consistency is to be judged in relation to the ultimate goal and not in relation to the movements and manoeuvres. These are truisms. But the public sense and view have been blurred to such an extent by the fantastic exhibitions of the socalled Gandhist 'Technic' during a couple of decades in the past that even such political truism require to be retaught as original truths!

'Although the Hindu Mahasabhas understood by 'Direct Action' such a practical campaign of resistance as would enable them to bring to bear the greatest possible pressure on the anti-Hindu forces they have to combat with the least possible damage to their own forces, still they never deceived themselves by forgetting that any struggle for freedom against such odds must incur unmeasured sufferings and unstinted sacrifice. Hundreds of them never flinched to brave not only jails but even gallows whenever it was inevitably indispensable in fighting out the defensive struggle. But they would brave it all not because self-torture was meritorious in itself but because it is found unavoidable. Their objective was and must always be to cripple the aggressor as effectively as possible. Such a campaign of resistance requires necessarily a careful calculation of our own forces as well as the forces of repression they are likely to face, an opportune timing of the campaign the choosing of those issues only which would enthrust the required amount of inspiration fervour and readiness to sacrifice, in the public mind and which at the same time are more likely to be won with greatest certainty with the means and weapons at our

‘ And what greater pressure can any of the puny efforts of the part of Indians, Congressites or others, bring to bear on international political situation than the mighty Mars is already exercising on the battlefields in Europe? Is it not better to wait till Fate casts her final decisive die and we can see again where and how we ourselves and others do exactly stand?

(5) “Consequently the All India Committee of the Hindu Mahasabha took the only sensible and far-sighted course which could be taken under the circumstances in the best interests of Hindudom and decided that in view of the dangerous and rapid approach of the war towards both the Eastern and Western frontiers of our land from outside and the anti-Hindu Moslem riots threatening peace and order throughout India inside the country, “Direct Action” in connection with the constitutional demands which formed All-India issues and must be carried on an All-India scale, should be postponed, at any rate till the end of the war. When we are in a position to know exactly where we stand and where England stands along with other nations on the map of the world when it emerges out of this crucible of a world battlefield then only a tangible question of constitutional framing, can really arise and we shall be in a position to test the sincerity of the promises made by the Government regarding the equal co-partnership. That will be the right and most effective time for us to exercise whatever pressure we are able to bring to bear upon the Government by resorting, if necessary, to a campaign of civil resistance or even otherwise.

(6) So far as the question of combating immediate issues is concerned the Calcutta resolution does not only sanction such struggles but the Hindu Mahasabhas have already been launching them wherever necessary and combating all such anti-Hindu activities throughout India to the best of their ability and means down to this day. Leaving aside the Nizam Civil Resistance campaign take only their efforts and sacrifices during the last twelve months or so into consideration. Who came forward to defend the Hindus in Sindhi when they were attacked by Moslem fanaticism during the recent riots all over that province but the Hindu anglophobes and

Hindusabhais there ? Several of the leaders of our Hindu party in Sindh had to face externment, internment, imprisonment and had even to risk and lay down their lives. Who safeguarded Hindu interests in the Census campaign all over India ? Not the Congress ! It is the Hindusabhais who had to undergo, especially in Bengal and Behar, even persecutions and prosecutions on that account. Wherever the anti-Hindu fanaticism indulged in terrible orgies of murder, arson, forcible conversion and plunder on a mass-scale during the last twelve months, whether at Dacca or from villeges to villages in Eastern Bengal or at Ahamadabad or during the riots at Madura, Behar Sherif or Bombay etc. etc. — was it not the Hindusabhais rank and file who came forward to bear the brunt of the struggle in resisting the anti-Hindu onslaught in exercise of the legitimate and legal right of self-defence and protected Hindu hearths and homes, Hindu life and property, Hindu religion and honour ? During the last twelve months only, hundreds of Hindusabhais have been on this account stabbed, hundreds have laid down their lives, thousands have been imprisoned. They rescued thousands of Hindus, organised Hindu realiefs, offered free legal help to thousands of Hindu accused. Who again have struggled to voice forth every Hindu grievance and to get it removed from the local questions of the musio and the mosque etc., etc., right up to such national questions as the preposterous proposal to cut up our Hindusthan into a dozen pakisthans? Not the Congress! The Congress has not passed even a single official resolution to condemn pakisthan in unequivocal terms. It was the Hindu Mahasabha alone which has stirred up whole Hindudom and put forth a determined opposition to each and every question detrimental to Hindu interests. It has roused up the Hindu people from one end of the country to the other with a supreme sense of self-consciousness, solidarity, self-reliance and high National aspiration. What is this all if not 'Direct Action' resisting all anti Hindu aggression with all legitimate means at our disposal?

(7) "And above all, if the Hindu Mahasabha could not take up some still larger anti Hindu issues in hand and combat them just now, -the responsibility of it cannot lie on those Hindu sanghatanists who struggle and suffer so much under scheme in such wise without let and hinderance as to give a fillip to the activities of the Moslem League for a speedy realisation of the Moslem dream of having a Pakisthan Moslem State in Assam.

“ The Western and North-Western Frontiers of Hindusthan have already been converted into Moslem majority provinces right from Sindh to Kashmere and if now Eastern Bengal and Assam are allowed to be converted together into a Moslem majority province on our Western Frontier also, our Mother Land cannot but be hemmed in on both the Eastern and Western frontiers by the forces of pakisthan threatening to prove as a standing menace to the security, freedom and integrity of Hindudom as a whole

“ Nevertheless, fortunately for us Hindus so far as our numerical strength in Assam is concerned, it is not too late to mend even now. If the Hindus bestir themselves all over India in time and the Hindas in Assam in particular, offer a determined opposition to the Land-Development scheme as it is being executed at present, the evil can still be checked

“ Fortunately again, the remedy too is at hand. If without losing a single moment the Hindus in Assam set up an agitation against the anti-Hindu administration of the Land-Development scheme and in fact against the act itself under the standard of the Hindu Mahasabha they are sure to save themselves from the dire effects of the systematic Moslem colonisation of this Hindu province. The ancient and the glorious past of the Hindus in Assam, the home of the Ahomias, and the valorous deeds with which their ancestors have enriched the Hindu history in general have endeared their province to Hindudom as a whole as a place of religious and patriotic pilgrimage. It will be a woeful day for all Hindudom if the Hindu standard gets lowered in Assam and the Hindu majority there is converted into a despicable minority. No! Assam must never be allowed to be a Moslem the Hindu Flag but on those millions of do nothing Hindus who still keep sitting on the fence unconcerned and more so on those thousands of Hindus who have never hesitated even to betray the Hindu cause and to dub this act of National crime as a Congressite virtue "

Hindu Assam in Danger

"I wish to draw the pointed attention of Hindudom in general and Hindus in Assam in particular to the serious danger that is threatening to reduce the majority strength of Hindus in Assam and convert it into a Moslem majority province. A deep laid design to increase the Moslem population in Assam by colonising it by Moslem immigrants from Bengal and other provinces was put into operation years ago and has since been systematically and very effectively carried out. A Land-development scheme Act was passed by the Legislature to help this policy and it is to be noted that during the period the Congress Government was in power in that province, even that Congress Ministry, composed by Hindu Ministers' elected by Hindu voters to represent their interests, refused to 'stop the inroads of Moslem Colonists from outside provinces into Assam in spite of the vigorous protest of the Hindu Mahasabhas who pointed out time and again how it was made impossible for Hindu colonists to take equal advantage of the act. In several cases the organised aggression on the part of the Moslems endangered the life and property of the Hindu colonists so as to make it impossible for them to live with security in the areas set apart for colonisation and even the Congress Ministry afforded no protection to those Hindus against the Moslem terrorisation. Later on still more propostorous policy was pursued by the leaders of the Forward Block Congressites who enabled the Moslems to form the so called 'Coalition Ministry' in Assam and invested the very leader of the Moslem League in Assam with the powers of the Prime-Minister. It is this Government led by the leader of the Moslem League that is at present ruling over Assam and executing the Land-Development province ! And it can still be saved for Hindudom if but the following three steps are immediately taken by the Hindus in Assam to begin with —

(1). Firstly, let the Assami Hindus free themselves from the mental slavery to the Congressite creed and organization. Because the Congress cannot as the result of is fundamental creed and will not as a result of the Gandhistic grip that holds the organization tightly clutched today, fight in defence of the rights of the Hindus as Hindus. Is it not true that some of the leaders of the Congress as well as its Forward Block defended their betrayal of the Hindu cause in this respect by asserting openly that it mattered not to them whether the colonists in Assam were Hindus or Moslems so long they were Indians in general ? They forgot all the while that even from the point of the integrity of the Indian Nation a Moslemised Assam could not but be a standing menace to the Indian state and would not fail to declare itself a part of the Pakishthan owing no allegiance to your India' which to the Pakisthanis must ever seem as a hated Kaffirsthan. A Hindu province alone can stand in life in death pledged for ever to the integrity of India as a Nation and a State. Then again what does it matter to the Hindus if you call a province an Indian one or an Abbyssinian one if their hearths and homes, the life and the property and the honour of Hindudom stand in it over exposed to such murderous orgies of Moslom fanaticism as they have been subjected to time and again in Eastern Bengal as the result of the Moslemisation of that province? Consequently if the Hindus in Assam want to save themselves from this catastrophe which is sure to engulf them tomorrow if they are reduced to minority there, they should try to save themselves now and today from this curse of Pseudo Nationalism of the the Congress creed and policy.

2 Secondly, the Hindus in Assam should all rally round the Mahasabha which alone of all organizations in India foresaw and raised its voice against this impending calamity and which alone can openly and uncompromisingly defend the casue of the Hindus in Assam and extend to them the active support of the Hindu Sanghatanist world all over India. After all even today the Hindus are in majority in Assam. If but the Hindu electorate there takes up a solemn plegde not to cast a single vote for a Congress candidate to the Legislatures and vote only for a Hindu candidate who stands on a clear cut Hindu Sanghatanist ticket pledging himself to safeguard and promote Hindu interests alone,—then before long the Hindus in Assam will come to wield Governmental powers under the lead of Hindu Sanghatanist Ministry pledged to defend their cause openly and will be in a position to scrap up this odious scheme and afford every legitimate protection and facility to Hindu colonists in general and the so-called 'Aboriginal Hindus' in the hilly districts round about in particular to settle and colonise the unpopulated area which in fact ought to have been ear-marked for the latter alone to settle and cultivate.

8 Thirdly, after developing as rapidly as possible the organization of the Provincial Hindusabha in Assam its Hindu leaders should frame and put into immediate execution a scheme which would attract the Hindu hill tribes in and around Assam as well as the intellectual and industrious Hindu agriculturists from adjoining provinces to settle on and cultivate those areas in Assam which are opened out for colonization. Under the present circumstances no one demands that there should be any unjustifiable ban on the non-Hindus with a view to exclude them altogether. All that we can claim is equal opportunity, equal facilities, and equal protection should be extended to the Hindus with others. But we never forget that even when that is done it will depend entirely on the promptness and on the organised preparedness on the part of the Hindus whether they succeed in being the first in the field and occupy the land before any other competitor steps in. The Hindus must remember in this case as well as in so many other respects that simply weeping and wailing over grievances inflicted upon them by others cannot by itself save them. They must so organize themselves as to be able to defeat all machinations against them by resorting to counter machinations. The Hindus must be able to defeat their adversaries by fighting them out in their own weapons.

“If the Hindus in Assam backed up by the Hindu Sanghathanists all over India follow up the policy chalked out above which is on the whole as easy to execute as it is bound to be effective in yielding the results expected of it, they would soon find the Hindu majority in Assam today is not only maintained but gets rapidly augmented by leaps and bounds.”

Central Executive Expanded

BREACH EFFECTED IN THE CENTRAL CITADEL OF BUREAUCRACY

"The announcement of the Expansion of the Executive Council, the constitution of the National Defence Council and the Defence Advisory Committee constitute together a step in the right direction. But as usual this step is so belated and so halting that it cannot dissipate the bitterness felt by patriotic parties in India that she should still continue to be satisfied with occupying no better status than the hated one of Dependence. Even this war has not opened the eyes of Britain to the need that India should be granted at least equal co-partnership in the Indo British Commonwealth. Secondly,

 she is bound to weigh like a millstone round the British neck rendering both of them liable to be overtaken by a still more formidable political disaster than what the war at its present stage threatens to prove

“Nevertheless if these announcements are meant to pave the way for further and rapid developments of constitutional progress on the lines indicated above, they are welcome to that extent. In any case the fullest advantage must be taken of this breach effected in the stronghold of the central citadel of British bureaucracy under the pressure of our agitation. The Government pretended, because it suited them, that no constitutional advance was possible unless and until the Congress and the Moslem League made a united demand. But this announcement proves that the Government have suddenly discovered that the Congress and the Moslem League do but represent parties and do not solely represent the Indian Nation as a whole as well as the fact that the mole hill of the want of agreement among all parties is not as insurmountable as a mountain. If the Government can effect these constitutional changes which they claim to be far reaching, in spite of lack of general agreement among all parties, and, in the teeth of the non-cooperation on the part of the Congress and the Moslem League, they can then no longer trot out that excuse for not effecting further political reforms as demanded by the Hindu Mahasabha and the non party Leaders' Conference

"So far as the personnel is concerned I am glad to say that leaders like Barrister Tamnadas Mohta, Mr Kalikar, Dr Raghavondrarao, Lokanayak Aney, Sir Jwāla Prāsād Shrivastav, Mr Ramrao Deshmukh, Rao Bahadur M. C. Rajah and Lala Ramsarandas are there and they possess the confidence of the Hindu public in general and the Hindu Mahasabha in particular

"I, regret, however, to say, that, although the proportion of the Hindus on the Defence Advisory Committee is more or less just, it is unjustifiably less than the population strength of the Hindus on the Executive Council and the Defence Council. It is bound to be resented. I think the Sikh community should also be associated with the Executive Council and its representatives should be in addition to those already chosen."

'Support to Dr. Amedkar's claim' Veer Savarkarji says,

"As I was recently touring through Maharashtra I was more or less out of regular boy will be looked down for forgetting' is overlooked or deliberately outlawed by the wisest of the political writers and thinkers' day in and day out. The press and the platform in India and in Britain are repeating parrotlike that the Hindus and the Moslems form 'The two Majorities' or that the Congress and the League are 'The two Major Parties' or that there are 'Two major Organizations' in India. It seems that in India not only politics but even arithmetic has gone awry and all mathematics mad.

"In the interests of clarity of political thought it must therefore be emphasised that the Hindus alone are in majority in India and consequently the Moslems cannot be a minority community in relation to the Hindus. As there can never be two majorities at one and the same time in relation to each other anywhere in the world, it is absurd to talk of the 'Two Majorities' in India. This phrase was coined by the Moslems knowing full well that it was an arithmetical absurdity and the British Government who had their own axe to grind acquiesced in it. The Moslems who have to sell their second-hand goods at the highest bidder by hawking about these catchphrases sought by their constant references to 'The two Majorities' to insinuate and inculcate the idea that Hindus and Moslems in India stood on equal footing as two equal Nations or peoples, both in political importance and in numerical strength. It was obviously meant to introduce and justify the overbearing claim on the part of the Moslems of fifty percent of representation in the Legislatures and Services. But no amount of casuistry can twist arithmetic and the fact remains that in India, the Hindus alone constitute the one and only majority and at that an overwhelming one.

"The same fallacy vitiates the two other phrases, now so recklessly used even by the British Press and British Statesmen when they mention that the Congress and the League form 'The two major parties' or 'The two major Organizations' in India. If, by a party is meant the Legislative parties, then the elected strength of the Congress in the Legislatures is so overwhelmingly larger than the Moslem League's that the Congress alone can be called the only major party while the Moslem League is almost nowhere even as an influential minority, in the Legislatures in relation to the Congress. The Congress also owing to its suicidal failure to represent the interests of the Hindu electorate is, very likely, to get itself reduced into a minor party, in near future leaving the Hindu Sanghatanist party alone as the only one major party in India.

But, if, by 'A, major Organization' or 'A major Party' it is meant the organization that, represents the interests of the major community in India then it is, neither the Congress nor the League that can lay any claim to that status. The Hindu Mohasabha alone which is the only accredited and the most outstanding organization representing the political, cultural, economical and such other interests of the Hindus who constitute the only majority in India must, be recognised as a real and the only major organization, and the major party in the political field in India today.

"The Hindu Sanghatanist press and platform which has also been unwarily using these crafty catchwords should henceforth cease to commit that error and should emphasise the fact that as it is an arithmetical absurdity to talk of two majorities in relation to each other in any country at any given time, the Hindus alone are the only Majority in India and consequently all others cannot but be minorities in relation to it. Even as a party it could be demonstratively proved that the Hindu Mahasabha even today stands superior, both in the numerical as well as the organizational strength, to the Moslem League which, consequently, occupies but a third rank in the Indian party organizations.

Anglo-American War-Aims & India

The following Cablegram is sent by Barrister V. D. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahassbha, to Mr. Roosevelt, the President of United States of America—

“As the President of the Hindu Mahasabha, The All India Hindu Body, I exhort you to declare explicitly if the Anglo-American announcement of war-aims covers the case of India and whether America guarantees the full political freedom of India within a year after the end of this war. If America fails to do that, India cannot but construe this declaration as another stunt like the war aims of the last Anglo-German War meant only to camouflage the Imperialistic aggressions of those who have Empires against those who have them not and are to win them.

The Forward Bloc head foreign to Mahasabha Foreign Policy

'I regret to hear, rather late, that our esteemed patriot Bahu Sbaratchandra Bose should have met with a serious accident while reading my message to President Roosevelt which, it is reported took him 'Almost breathless and left stunned. Will some one in Bengal oblige him by reading out to him the latter half of the message once again which says 'Otherwise India cannot but construe this declaration as another stunt like the war-aims of the last Anglo-German war meant only to camouflage

the Imperialistic aggression of those who have Empires, against those who have them not, and are out to win them? I do hope that at a second reading of the message Sharatbabu may recover from this serious shock and realise, in a sensible mood, that there is a difference between demanding an explanation of a diplomatic statement with a view to expose its underlying casuistry and political hypocrisy, and expecting any help from its fulfilment. Instead of depending upon any other Nation for securing Political Freedom of India, the message does actually serve as a serious warning to the Backward, Forward, and all other Blocks and their heads in the Congress camp from depending on the Democratic professions of not only the British, the American but even of the Russian Messiahs who proclaim that they are out with the sole mission of Making the world safe for Democracy from military aggression.

"Because it is in fact the Congress which has on this point little to teach and much to learn from the Hindu Mahasabha. Has Babu Sharatchandraji forgotten that it was the Congress which had sent, not very long ago, at enormous cost its shining lights including Shrimati Sarojini Naidu to America to illumine the public opinion there regarding Indian grievances with a view to secure American sympathy? Does he know that of all political bodies in India the Hindu Mahasabha alone had the courage and the straight-forwardness 'to call a spade a spade' in connection with the war aims of all the belligerents on both sides? Witness, for example, the resolution passed by the Working Committee of the Hindu Mahasabha on the 19th November, 1939 which says This meeting wishes to emphasise the fact that while Gandhiji the de-facto dictator of the Congress was proclaiming in a flattering mood to the effect that he was not thinking of Indian Independence then but was chiefly concerned with the safety of England and France and proposed to offer them unconditional help in this their crusade to save Democracy in the world, when Pandit Nehruji was calling upon India to support these great democracies in the holy war they were carrying on against Imperialist aggression on Poland and other free nations and while the leaders of the Forward Block the Communists and other parties too were swearing by the anti Imperialistic innocence free from all political creed on the part of Poland and Russia, the Hindu Mahasabha was about the only organised political body in India which was hold and farsighted enough to give the correct lead to the country and to the Congress itself in ascertaining the real motives and objectives of the belligerents by asserting through its Working Committee's Resolution on the 10th September, 1939, that none of the Belligerent powers in Europe whether England, Germany, Poland, France or Russia had been actuated by any moral democratic or altruistic consideration apart from its own self-interest and self-aggrandisement. Nor does the recent Statement issued by H.E the Viceroy or the speech of the Secretary of State for India in the Parliament serve to disprove or even camouflage this real objective. That is why Herr Hitler when asked by Mr. Chamberlain to free Poland asked the latter in return to free 'India first' and retorted that if the problem of minority was delaying England in India, then the same problem delayed Germany in Poland. Consequently, the Working Committee opines that India is not bound on any altruistic grounds to extend, as H.E the Viceroy expects her, to do in his statement any 'Moral and Material co-operation, to the British Government in this war—beyond what the self-defence and self interest of our Nation may demand'

'Let alone the outsider,' the Hindu Mahasabha never depended on 'or cared for the swollen-headed Indian Moslem too. It never whined the Gandhist cry that there could be no Swarajya for India unless and until the Moslems were pleased to join hand with the Hindus. Nor did it ever offer Blank Cheques or entered into any pusillanimous pacts with the Leaguers as the Forward Bloc had done in the Calcutta Corporation affair'

'Churchill tears off the Mask.'

'The cable which I had sent to President Roosevelt & which was reported to have been broadcast in America, Germany and other belligerent Nations from their respective Radio stations throughout the world has no doubt proved one of the telling factors which compelled Mr Churchill to tear off with his own hand, the mask of vague platitudes under which the Anglo-American announcement of War-aims was deliberately camouflaged. He has now told all the world; with blunt candour that the Anglo-American announcement was only meant by Mr. Churchill at any rate, to restore Sovereignty and Democracy to countries fallen victims to Nazi aggression alone and not to those countries like India and others in Asia or Africa as was supposed by some, which have been victimized to British aggressions.

"It is, however, no news to the Hindu Mahasabha at any rate which had warned all parties concerned, on the very eve of the break out of the war, that no belligerent nation, not even Russia, was out on any altruistic mission of restoring Freedom or Democracy to others but that each one of those Nations was out to serve its own selfish aggrandizement or interest.

"It remains now to be seen if President Roosevelt contradicts the interpretation Mr. Churchill has put on the Anglo-American announcement or acquiesces in it. In either case,

Mr. Churchill's statement has made it well nigh impossible for President Roosevelt to keep quiet on this point. As the President of a great Republic he must speak out his mind. Silence on his part now cannot but mean that the President of the United States of America was there to play or not to play even the second fiddle to the Dictates of Mr. Churchill."

Will Roosevelt Contradict--

Cable-gram to English & American Press

Barrister V. D. Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Mahasabha, has sent the following Cablegram to the Editor 'Manchester Guardian' of London and to the American press:

"Hindu Mahasabha, The All-India Hindu organization thinks it was well that Mr. Churchill was compelled to tear off the altruistic mask camouflaging Anglo-American War-aims with his own hands and forestall President Roosevelt by declaring that the War-aims were to fight all aggressions but British one and to emancipate all countries but India. Will President Roosevelt now dare to contradict Mr. Churchill's interpretation or play a second fiddle to Mr. Churchill's dictation by word or silence "

The Congressite Charkha-Flag &

The Pan-Hindu Flag.

The Hindusabhaits from Shimoga (Mysore) reported to President Veer Savarkarji that when they recently attended, on invitation, with their Pan-Hindu Flags, a Ganapati processsion led by the Congressites, they (the Congressites) objected furiously to the unfurling of the Pan-Hindu Flag and insisted that they would tolerate no other but the so-called National Flag meaning of course thereby the Congressite Charkha-Flag.

It was also known that attempts were being made from time to time at several places to hoist this Charkha-Flag on Cultural,

Philanthropic, or, Educational institutions conducted entirely by Hindu Religious Associations, such as the Sanatan Colleges etc Hindu Festival Committees and even on Hindu Temples !

As Hindusabhaits from several places have been asking what definite attitude should be taken with regard to this question, the President Veer Savarkarji sent a reply to Shimoga people clearing up the point

The reply being meant to serve as a guidance to the Hindu public in general all over India, we are quoting below some excerpts from it—

“So far as the flag question is concerned, the Hindus know no other flag representing Hindudom as a whole than the Kundalini Kripanankit Mahasabha flag with the ‘Om and the Swastik the most ancient symbols of the Hindu Race and Policy coming down from age to age and honoured throughout Hindusthan. It is actually sanctioned and owned by millions on millions of Hindus today from Hardwar to Rameshwaram and flies aloft on every Hindusabha branch office at thousands of centres. Therefore, any place or function where this Pan-Hindu flag is not honoured should be boycotted by the Hindusanghata nists at any rate.

“We may tolerate or even associate with any other flag along its side But if any flag shows hostility towards us, we should disown it there and then, even if it chooses to call itself a National Flag

The Moslems have disowned this Congressite Charkha-flag. They hate it even though some Congressite-Hindus call it a National Flag and beg up the Moslems to call it a National Flag.

Nor does it represent Hindus as Hindus!

Then what Nation does it represent?

The Charkha-Flag, in particular may very well represent a Khadi-Bhandar, but the Charkha can never symbolise and represent the spirit of the proud and ancient Nation like the Hindus

Nevertheless, those who like it may stand by it!

But we Hindu nationalists cannot but rally round and defend the—honour of our ancient Hindu Flag

(2) But so far as Hindu Religious festivals are concerned, the Hindu Flag alone, along with other religious Flags of different Hindu Religious Schools, must be the only flag which should be hoisted and honoured. The Hindus should never allow the Congressite Charkha Flag to, trespass at all, even in the Hindu Religious or Cultural festivities. And so far as Hindu Temples are concerned, it should in no case be hoisted on them

Those who like the so-called National Flag, should use it to their hearts content wherever they alone are concerned. We bear no special hostility to it but they must not thrust it on the Hindu Race in spite of its will If they dare, let them first hoist the Charkha-Flag on Mosques or at Moslem Religious functions or processions to prove its National character. So long as they do not dare to do even this much, what right have they to thrust it on Hindus in their -Religious, Racial or Political Hindu functions?

 The Hindusanghatanists at any rate must -oppose any such attempt in their function.

We may tolerate its presence if it is found to fly in an amicable and allied spirit with our Pan-Hindu flag in political sphere alone. But even there we should never allow it to fly in hostility towards the Pan-Hindu Flag."

Br SAVARKAR'S BERAR TOUR

On pressing invitations Br Savarkar visited Berar province. On the 17th April at Amraoti under the auspices of Hindu Sabha he delivered one of the most eloquent speeches on the "war of Independence of 1857". Although admission was restricted by paid tickets the hall was so overcrowded that the sale of tickets had to be stopped and hundreds had to go back. The proceeds were handed over to the Hindu Sabha Amraoti as a public donation. With the Rt Hon'ble Babarao Khaparde M L A he proceeded to Paratwada and thence to Ellichpur. Peasants, labourers and villagers men and women carrying their children flocked from far and near in their thousands to have a darshan of this popular Hero. Unprecedented scenes of enthusiasm marked the processions attended by thousands carrying lathis and Hindu Flags and all air got choked with resounding continuous shouts.

of "Hindu-Dharma-ki-Jay", "Veer Savarkar-ki-Jay", "Hindusthan Hinduonka". He addressed mammoth meetings at several places received addresses, deputations, held interviews and his rousing speeches whipped everywhere popular enthusiasm to such an extent that volunteers for the Nizam civil resistance movement and funds flowed in on the spot. On his exhortations to start Rifle Clubs, contributions for the clubs also came forth while the speech continued. The Pardhis who are most unjustly tabooed as a criminal tribe and whom the Hindu Sabhais have recently saved from falling victims to missionary machinations came out from their forest-homes in their hundreds to honour and listen to Veer Savarkar. One of the most touching scenes at one of these mammoth meetings took place when the Tribal leader of these forest living brave Pardhis came forth and with eyes full of devotional tears addressed Savarkarji "They are presenting you silver and Golden Caskets, garlands addresses We have no such precious thing"

Hindudom and Hindu Dharma" Amidst deafening cheers and thousand-throated shouts of Hindu Dharma-ki-Jay, Hindustan Hindunaka, the tribal leader clothed Veer Savarkar with the rough blanket and armed him with the lathi in their right royal tribal fashion Savarkarji exhorted all Hindus to vote only for Hindu Maha Sabha tickets in every elections capture the political power under the unalloyed Hindu Flag and assured that if but they would do that the Hindus will be in a position to bring the Nizam and all other anti-Hindu forces to book within the next two years' time and can soon compell even England to 'relinquish her hold on Hindusthan. Everyone admitted that such large Hindu assemblages and such demonstration of pan-Hindu political consciousness and wild enthusiasm were never witnessed in living memory in those respective parts of Berar. After this glorious tour in Berar Veer Savarkar had to hasten back to Bombay to attend to urgent programmes regarding the Nizam Civil Resistance movement.

5-5-39 —A GARDEN PARTY WERE arranged on the ground of the "Swastik League

Bombay, by Girgaumi Hindu Sabha to congratulate Dr Raghivendra Rao, upon his appointment as the "Advisor to the Secretary of State for India (London) Sir Govindrao Pradhan, Dr Ambedkar and other Hindu leader took enthusiastic part in this function. After a short speech delivered by Sir Pradhan Br Savarkar congratulated Dr Rao upon his appointment and after the concluding speech of Dr Rao, the function was over

10 5 39 — A public meeting was held to give a send off to Dhanrao Veer Anantrao Gadre and his batch of 125 Civil Resisters and to commemorate the "War of Independence of 1857 and 'Lata Lala Hardayal Day' on Chowpatty Dr N B Khare Ex Premier C P was in chair

Under the orders of Hindu Maha Sabha the 10th of May, 1939 was observed at Bombay with great zest as the WAR OF INDEPENDENCE 1857 DAY & LATA HARDAYAL DAY' A huge meeting attended by not less than twenty five thousand men was held on Chowpatty sea beach and was presided over by Dr Khare the Ex Premier of

C. P. Veer Savarkar delivered a stirring speech stressing upon the point that Hindus of present generation must fulfil the mission of those Warriors and Patriots who fell in 1857 and of those revolutionary exiles who like Lala Hardayal died in alien lands, which they had handed down to us and carry on the struggle till Hindusthan regains her Political Independence. Veer Savarkar received an ovation at the end of the speech. It was a moving scene when the mammoth audience thereupon stood up to pay their Homage to the memory of those Heroes Shrimant Nanasaheb Peshwe, Senapati Tatyā Tope, the Rari of Zanshi, Raja Kumar Singh and others who fought in the great Indian Revolutionary War of 1857 against England to re establish the Political Independence of Hindusthan and of those who continued the struggle down to this day and laid down their life on the alter of their Mother Land as Lala Hardayal did. The whole audience including the President Dr Khare and other leaders offered most feelingly their grateful "PUSHPAN JALI"—their flowery offerings in worship of those great Hindu Heroes and Martyrs.

Battalion of nearly 250 volunteers who started for offering Civil Resistance to the Nizam and defy the anti Hindu laws in that state under the leadership of Mr. Anant Hari Gadre, a veteran Hindu Patriot who oversince the days of Tilak had dedicated his life to the service of Hindudom, under the Hindu Maha Sabha Flag. Dr. Khare the President spoke very feelingly stating that although he was a Congressite still he continued to be a Hindu of Hindus and even from the point of National democracy would never tolerate that the just rights of the Hindus should be flouted and the Hindus as a Racial, Cultural and Religious entity, in fact a Nation by themselves should be treated as helots in their own Father Land and Holy Land. Moslem fanaticism was trying to compass that end in the Nizam State and it was his duty as a Nationalist and above all as a Hindu to stand by the oppressed Hindus even if Gandhiji and other leaders of the Congress fought shy and proved traitors to the Hindu cause. He never had been a Gandhigulam

It was ridiculous that the Congress should want us to believe that the tiny little Rajkot required reforming more urgently than Hyderabad or Bhopal

The Congress which is cowardly and puerile enough to dub the Hindu Maha Sabha and Arya Samaj civil resistance movement against the Nizam State as communal, never dared to condemn the Moslem movement against the Hindu state of Kashmir. The Moslems want to serve their ends with both hands. In Kashmir they started the civil resistance movement & sent Moslem Jathas to force the hands of the Hindu state although there was in fact no such oppression of the Moslems as obtained in case of the Hindus in the Nizam state, on the ground that the Moslems subjects were in majority in Kashmir. But are not Hindus a majority in Hyderabad? But there Moslems maintain that the ruling minority of Moslems ought to be the only factor to be taken into consideration and allowed to dominate the Hindus. And the Congressites under the thumb of Gandhiji while supporting openly the Moslem movement against the Kashmir state are not ashamed to denounce the Hindu movement alone against the Nizam mis-rule and fanaticism as communal.

Hinda Mahasabha leader Mr Gadre, another Jathia of Civil Resisters under the Sanatani Sangha leader Sjt. Kshire the well known leader of Dhulla, arrived on the scene and yet another Jathia of the Arya Samajists from Lucknow presented itself. Veer Savarkarji in an eloquent speech welcomed them all and emphasised the point that the occasion was an overwhelming proof of the fact that Hindus have learnt after all to present a United Front to the non Hindu forces who aimed to divide and demolish Hindu spirit in the Land. 'Sanatanees, Aryasamajists, Hindu Mahasabhis, Sects and and Sections' have at least been stimulated with a common pulse stirred up with a common life gathered together under a common Hindu Flag. All attempts of the enemies of Hindudom of dividing the Hindus will be brought to naught before long and consolidated Hindudom if but they continued for some five years more with the newly awakened spirit to work and to fight and to sacrifice as they are doing today will be in a position to be the master in its own land and regain all that it has lost. The Hindu Maha Sabha hatch had some Gurkhas, Rajputs and Sikhs also amongst the volunteers. The meeting ended with "VANDE MATARAM" song fully sung.

Dr. Savarkar, Adv. Talpade, and several Arya Samaji and Parsi leaders spoke. Br. Savarkar made an effective speech for an hour or so on "1857", "Lala Hardayal's day" and "Nizam Move". The Portrait of the Martyr V. B. Phadke the hero of the first rising for independence after 1857 was unveiled on the same occasion at the hands of Br. Savarkar.

MAHARASHTRA OBSERVES THE LALA HAR DAYAL DAY

(1) In compliance with instructions issued by the Hindu Maha Sabha the 10th May was observed as 'Lala Har Dayal Day,' at Bombay Poona, Nasik, Nagar, Sholapur, Satara, Karhad, Dhulia, Darva, Nagpur, Barshi, Jalgaon, Amraoti and other great cities and towns throughout Maharashtra. Mammoth meetings, each attended by from ten to twenty thousand people were held at the big cities and towns. Processions were taken out. In order to pay a grateful tribute to the memory of the illustrious Hindu Revolutionary the late Lala Har Dayal not less than a million Marathas in not less than some five hundred towns throughout Maharashtra had stood up on that one evening with flowers in their hands and offered the 'PUSHIPANJALI' in worship of the memory of the great Hindu Revolutionary Patriot one of the foremost leaders of the famous Revolutionary Organization of "ABHINAV BHARAT" which led India Revolutionary movement for Independence during the years 1900 to 1910.

TRIBUTE TO THE HEROES AND MARTYRS WHO FOUGHT OUT & THE GREAT INDIAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR OF 1857

(2) The 10th May was also observed throughout

 Maharashtra as the War of Independence 1857 Day in compliance with the Hindu Maha Sabha's instruction The history, of the great Revolutionary Indian rising that aimed to liberate India from the British occupation and waged the war against England in 1857 was retold in hundreds of meetings and glowing tributes were paid to the memory of Shrimant Nanasaheb Peshwe, Senapati Tatya Tope, the Queen of Zanshi, Raja Kumar Singh and other leaders and all the patriotic Warriors of Indian freedom who fought out and fell during the War. Almost all big cities and towns and even several villages, throughout Maharashtra including Berar and C P. observed the day under the auspices of the Hindu Sabha. -

Br Savarkar's Visit to Poona

(3). On the 13th May, after attending the 10th May " Independence Day " & " Lala Har Dayal Day " at Bombay, Br. Savarkar paid a visit to Poona The historical capital of the Maratha Empire was all astir on account of the presence of Veer Savarkarji in their midst On his arrival at noon on the 13th May, he inspected the various branches of the Hindu Sabhas in Poona and attended a mammoth meeting in front of the Shanwar Wada, the historical palace of the Peshwas. It was a vast concourse of Hindu citizens rising to some 25000 people including not less than 5000 ladies. Br Savarkar on arrival received the most enthusiastic ovation and the air was resounded with "Hindu Dharma ki-Jay Hindusthan Hinduvonki" Swatantra Veer delivered a spirited speech on the progress of the Azam Civil Resistance movement and exhorted them to continue it unabated. He emphasised the point that the very fact that the Hindus throughout India had proved that they could offer a common Hindu front and could fight out a struggle to safeguard Hinduism and in spite of the treacherous and stupid opposition of the Congressites and should have already sent forth not less than 8000 Civil Resisters to the front facing imprisonment tortures and loss of life, Under the Hindu flag was in itself sufficient justification of the Hindu movement and a moral triumph already achieved. On that night he attended the Democratic Swarajya Party's conference. On the 11th he addressed the rally of hundreds of volunteers throughout Maharashtra under the auspices of the famous Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangha in their summer camp at Poona on the life of Guru Govindsing and the future programme of Hindu Sanghatan movement. In the afternoon he paid visits to the all India Hindu Women's association and several other institutions. In the evening he delivered a most informing and most eloquent speech on the life of Late Lala Har Dayal. The meeting was attended by thousands upon thousands of citizens, inspite of paid tickets and when the Maidan could contain no more audience, people rushed to the roofs of the houses and balconies lining the street and listened with rapt attention to the memorable oration. Immediately after this meeting, Veer Savarkarji attended and spoke at a meeting held to accord a public reception in appreciation of his services to the Editor of "Trikal", one of the popular leaders of the Hindu Sanghatan movement in Maharashtra, Mr. S. L. Karandikar, M. L. A. (Bombay). Immediately after this at 12-0 clock in the night Veer Savarkar left Poona for Bombay.

Penganga, Send off to Nizam Civil Resisters sea of men and women Rushed for Darshan of Veer Savarkarji.

Large crowds of men both from British India and Nizam Dominions awaited the arrival of Swatantrya Veer Br Savarkar, the President of the Hindu Maha Sabha at UMARKHED in Berar on the 7th June, 1939. At about 10 a m. Veer Savarkar's motor arrived when loud cheers were raised by thousands of men and women to welcome the hero champion of the Hindus Volunteers with spears, lances and lathis formed a large procession attended by more than twenty thousand people. Slogans were shouted —“Shivaji Maharaj ki-Jay Veer Savarkar ki-Jay Hindusthan Hinduonka,” Hindu Dharma ki-Jay

It was a golden day in the life of the village Umarkhel. The procession terminated after long two hours near the bungalow of Sjt R P Uttarwar the host of Veer Savarkar. The village lies on the very bank of the river which marks the boundary between the British and Nizam territories.

At 4.30 in the evening Br Savarkar addressed an important select meeting of men from Hyderabad. That nearly five thousand men had come from Nizam Dominions is a fact which gives a smashing reply to critics who stress on the apathy of Hindus in the state.

At 6 in the evening in the Nath Manir Veer Savarkar spoke before a mammoth meeting on "the Nizam Civil Resistance Movement." He referred to the incidents that led to battle of Kharda in days olden and explained how Hindus could only a century back give a smashing defeat to the Nizam. He gave a direct warning to the Hindus in Hyderabad to leave off their outward lethargy and be on their guard to protect their interests themselves. He asked them to help themselves and justify the great sacrifice that Hindus from outside were doing for them.

At night a third meeting began at about 9-30 p m on a vast maidan. The arrangement of loud-speakers made it easy for the twenty-thousand men and women to sit at ease, even in the farthest nook and corner of the open square. Various songs and ballads were sung in the praise of Veer Savarkar and an "Address" on behalf of the citizens of Umarkhed was given to Veer Savarkarji in loud clapping of the vast audience. A purse of Rs 100 was also given as a token of love the admirers felt for their hero of heart. Those critics who are dubious about Hindu Sabha's work are masses would have been silenced and dethroned in the loud tumult of the thousands of admirers. Br Savarkar rose to speak when the meeting burst into loud cheers which must have reached the ears of Nizam officials who were so close on the other bank of the river and must have threatened them.

He spoke eloquently for an hour or so and showed how the Nizam Civil Resistance movement had unified the whole Hindudom. "Since the fall of Peshwas," he said, "never did the Hindus get a chance to fight under the banner of Hindus. Hindus fought for freedom but under false colours for the last fifty years. The pernicious idea of territorial nationalism had created a defeatist mentality among Hindus. Thanks to the indifference of the Congress, opposition of the British and Nizam that Hindus are again out to preserve and protest their own rights. That ten thousand Hindus could so far enter the hell-like prisons of the Nizam is a good omen. Hindus are bent now on a fight for freedom of the Hindudom as Hindus under the Gerua Flag" He further explained how the movement was a success and how it had unified all Hindus from Kashmir to Colombo and from Karachi to Calcutta. He gave thundering assurance that the Hindu Sabha was not at all exhausted and was ready to fight for one more year even.

Sjt Vishnu Shastri Kelkar—the 2nd Dictator of Varnashrami Swarajya Sangha and the leader of the Hindu Sabha batch was honoured and given a warm send off. Veer Savarkar spoke warmly of the Arya Samaj fight and gave a send off to their batch also. The meeting dispersed at mid-night in loud cheers and inspiring slogans.

The next day, on the 8th of June in the morning the 150 civil resisters (Hindu Maha Sabha's 50 and Arya Samaj's 100) went in a procession headed by the military band from Amraoti, to the banks of Penganga—a distance of three Miles. The news that Br. Savarkar was going to give a send off to the batch on the very border point of the Nizam state—on river penganga had transformed the place into a battle field and a fair. All the villagers from the roundabout vicinities even from the Dominions of the Nizam had gathered to pay homago to their Rashtrapati. Tongas, bullock-carts, motors were over loaded with men and women. Horses, bullocks even lion-buffaloes were used as conveyances by the stream of thousands of villagers with families. On the bank of Penganga various shops of eatables were opened. Vendors were taking their rounds. The bed of Penganga was flooded with the surging waves of enthusiastic men and women. The car of Br. Savarkar arrived and the vast crowd cheered his arrival. Br. Savarkar was photographed with the civil resisters. In the town meeting was addressed by him. At about 12 the out-going warriors after their meals went in a line on the very borders of the British India restless like war horses to step into the field. The military band was being played slogans "Hydrabad Hindustan, Nahi Nizam ki-Baaki Hindu Dharma-ki Jay" etc. rending the very skies were raised when Veer Savarkarji in a resounding voice rose to speak.

On the other bank of the river Penganga the police of the Nizam fringed the borders. The officers of Nizam also were standing within a line and throw

 Br. Savarkar made a vary touching speech. He said
 " You soldiers of the Hindudom, you are going to war not expecting any pays or pensions or badges but knowing full well that blood-red shirts will be your trophies, lathi-charges your pay, thirst the water supply and hunger the tiffin carrier with you

" The souls of Swami Dayanand and Shivaji Maharaj the Great must today be delighted indeed to see their descendents fighting again as Hindus under Hindu flag. You Hindus who sacrificed their lives under alien flags and for other's gain are now ready to shake off the fetters of the slavish mentality and bent to fight under own Hindu flag and in defence of Hindu Nation, for your brethren in Hyderabad A day will come when Hindus will challenge and defeat any anti-Hindu powers in the world. Go, surely win you will "

At the words the band again played, slogans—
 ' Hindusthan Hindunaka ' etc raised. The faces of Nizam police were made white, blank, and black The leadar Sjt Kelkar with 50 Hindu Sabhaites and other two batches entered the Nizam territory—

really a cave of sufferings and tortures--and so did the Arya Samaj Jathas

Many young students took autographs from Veer Savarkarji on the 11th hour of even going to Nizam territories. Thousands of men and women fell at his feet and waved 'arti' lamps as the noblest and truest champion of the Hindu cause in these days of betrayals. They saw in Veer Savarkarji as if a man of Destiny.

Along with the daily interviews with many big personalities Bar Savarkar had to attend many functions in Bombay one of which took place on the 29 th June. A Press note on it runs as follows -

An Important Shuddhi Ceremony and Pan-Hindu Dinner at Bombay Veer Savarkarji Presides

"A very important Shuddhi ceremony took place at MAHIM (BOMBAY) on the 29 the June, 1941 under the Presidentship of Veer Savarkar

In the days of the Portuguese inquisition hundreds of thousands of Hindu families were forcibly converted into Christianity almost at the point of the bayonet. After some four hundred years or so when the Hindusanghatan movement set in, recently Shri Masurkar Maharaj of Satara succeeded in reconverting on a mass-scale ten thousand of these Christians back into the Hindu fold only a few years ago. This striking success of the Sanghatan movement naturally roused organised opposition on the part of the Missionaries in Portuguese India and Bombay. But after strenuous efforts of the Hindusanghatanists on all sides, a second campaign of mass reconversion into the Hindu fold is launched and promises to turn out as successful as the first. The Bombay Provincial Hindusabha reconverted this week the first batch of some fifty Christians whose ancestors were forced to be Christians and who had to continue there for the last three hundred years. Dr. Purandare who lead this movement along with Rao Bahadur Bole Dr. Savarkar and many distinguished Hindusabhait leaders attended the function. A big sacrificial 'Hom' was performed. Shriman Bhagojsheth Keer, who has built a number of Pan-Hindu temples wherein all Hindus from the so-called untouchables to Brahmins and Kshatriyas are allowed to worship without any caste discrimination paid all the expenses of the Shuddhi ceremony and presented Dhotees and Saris to all reconverted men and women. The spirited and highly inspiring speech of Veer Savarkarji created such an enthusiasm among the largely crowded audience of Hindus of all persuasions who attended the meeting that amidst loud and continuous shouts of 'Hindu Dharmki Jay' and 'Hindusthan, Hindnonka', thousands of them expressed their readiness to dine there and then with the newly converted Kolis and to raise marital relations with them in future. Accordingly nearly a thousand men and women, Brahmins, Kshatriyas, the so-called depressed classes and the newly converted Hindus took part in a Pan-Hindu dinner. Veer Savarkarji himself was observed sitting and dining right in the midst of the newly converted Hindu brethren."

VEER SAVARKAR'S ROUSING TOUR

" The Tilak Week in Maharashtra was observed with great enthusiasm After attending the Sapru Conference at Poona, Syt. N C Kelkar and Veer Savarkarji undertook a special tour in order to raise contributions to the Fund for which an appeal was made by the Maharashtra Provincial Hindusabha. At Sangli they were taken in a huge procession amidst continuous showers of flowers. Ladies in groups from place to place waved the auspicious lights to greet Veer Savarkarji. A mammoth meeting of some twenty thousand people the like of which Sangli never witnessed was addressed by Veer Savarkarji. He was given a grand reception by the college students as well. At Miraj another meeting of some ten thousand persons the largest ever held at Miraj gave an address to Veer Savarkarji. On his return to Poona a grand reception was accorded to him. Sant Nerlekar showered one thousand Rupees on Veer Savarkarji as we shower flowers, when he greeted him. In the evening Veer Savarkarji addressed a meeting which broke the record even of meetings at Poona and which was attended by not less than thirty-five thousand persons, with one of his most stirring speeches. Out of the intended sum of two lacs of Rupees for which appeal was made to Maharashtra for its own Provincial Hindu Sabha, it was announced in the meeting that one lac of Rupees were already contributed in cash during that week.

AUGUST 1941

In the month of August Veer Savarkarji had interviews with Dr M. R. Jaykar, Bar. Jamnadasji Mehta, Mr. K. M. Munshi, Pandit Neelkanthdas leader of Orrisa, Divekar Shatri, Rt. Hon'ble V. V. Kalikar of Nagpur, Mr. Shankarrao Joshi from Karad and many other persons.

Mr. Morrison on behalf of 'March of Time' New York, America also called upon the President. Had a formal talk on the Hindu Mahasabha policy.

Owing to the prospective Ganesh festival in the last week of August, Veer Savarkarji was invited by numerous 'Ganesh mandals' in Bombay and outside. He could not go outside owing to the heavy work of the office. He could not also accept all invitations from Bombay. So he laid down two conditions for the acceptance of the invitation. One was about the actual aid to the 2 lacs Hindu Rashtriya Nidhi upto Rs. 100 at least. Secondly he wanted the Ganesh Mandāls to 'allow publicly in the meetings one the so-called 'untouchable-gentle' man to vindicate his birth-right and 'a humanly' treatment at the hands of his co religionists.

So began the series of Ganesh festival and Hindu Rashtriya Nidhi lectures in Bombay.

The first public lecture took place on the 29th of August 1941 in Hemraj wadi in Girgaum. Veer Savarkarji addressed an audience of 2000 and explained the pernicious scheme of 'Pakistan'. In the beginning he garlanded the so-called untouchable gentleman he had brought with him and thanked the Hindu public for having taken the right step. "The required purse was given also to the Hindu R Nidhi. On 31st August Veer Savarkarji was publicly honoured on behalf of Gaiwadi, Girgaum, in the Ganesh Festival. The President was given a purse of Rs. 651 for the H R. Nidhi and Hindu Sanghatan work. He addressed a vast audience of 10,000 and expounded the unchallengeable fundamentals of the Hindu Maha sabha. After his lecture, a Parsi gentleman arose and supported his views, in loud clappings of the appreciative public.

SEPTEMBER 1941

On the 1st of September the third lecture in this series took place, in the Ahamad Sailor Building Parel, Bombay (Naigaum).

On the 3rd September the 4th lecture was arranged at Gaodevi. Veer Savarkarji entered the Gaodevi temple along with the so-called untouchable. In the lecture he stressed the futility of absolute non-violence and proved 'how it would turn out 'an absolute sin.'

On the 5th September the last of the Ganesh-festival-lecture series took place in the Jagannath chawl in Fanaswadi, wherein -Veer Savarkarji took a review of the lectures given in Ganesh Festival & thanked the Hindus of Bombay for having shown therein of Hindu consciousness.

Not less than 1200 Rupees were contributed in all, owing to these Ganesh festival lectures to the Hindu R Nidhi. But the more important aspect is the fact that nearly 50,000 Hindus in Bombay actually heard the convincing voice of the President. The President also had paid tributes to Bombay Hindus

& Hindu Sanghataniists for their manly stand in the recent riots & for their present enthusiasm

Some mis-representation was called up by the 'Bombay Sentinel' regarding Veer Savarkar & the treatment given to the so-called untouchable, to which a smashing reply was given by Veer Savarkar, which runs as follows —

To the Editor Sentinel, Bombay

I have just received a cutting from the issue of your paper dated 12-9-41 under the caption 'Savarkar's strange conduct at Ganpati-Festival'. The report you have published in it is so inaccurate and at places maliciously lying that it is rather strange how a veteran and responsible journalist should have been duped into accepting it so unquestionably true as to comment upon it at some length. First of all you state 'Mr Savarkar had announced that he would attend such functions on two conditions; one that he would be permitted to take a Depressed-class youth along with himself who would garland him if he so desired " And then you proceed to say that accordingly at a meeting held at Jethabai Building ' the Harijan youth garlanded me but was not allowed by me to garland the Ganpati-immage. Now, I never dictated any such absurdity as a condition that an 'Untouchable' gentleman should garland me. On the contrary I requested the organizers of the Ganpati-festival to allow the so-called ' Untouchable ' Hindus to attend meetings where they wanted me to speak and to treat them in those public functions with perfect equality with the so-called ' Touchable ' Hindus. Accordingly, I was glad to note that I received so many invitations of public festivals that I could not find time to address them all. This in itself was a pointer indicating that the keenness of sentiments regarding untouchability was getting blunt and the Social conscience was going strong against untouchability so rapidly and vigourously as to make us feel confident that it might disappear altogether with a decade or so. In order to emphasise my protest against untouchability which has involved in my above condition, I attended a series of meetings in the festival accompanied by a gentleman belonging to the so-called untouchable caste. He was not a youth as you mentioned but an elderly person and social worker in the cause of the removal of untouchability of longstanding. I found that thousands of Hindus who attended my lectures as well as the 'Utsava' committees treated my coreligionist 'Untouchable brother as a distinguished guest who was always given a seat of honour next to me on the dais and was treated with perfect equality and respect. At the opening of every meeting it was I who used to garland my Untouchable brother to symbolise and express the sense of equality which I wished the Hindus to observe in all public functions irrespective of any caste bias. The meeting you referred to was not held at 'Jethabai Building'. The 'Depressed-class gentleman who accompanied me was not a youth, it was not he who garlanded me but it is I who garlanded him. There was no question raised of garlanding the image until my speech was over and the meeting came to a formal and orderly close after a couple of hours' of proceeding and the audience dispersed. It was half an hour after I had left the hall and was attending a party in another building nearby that I came to know that someone raised a question after somewhere at the close of the meeting at one end of the hall, of garlanding the image. As the whole function was already over long before, there was no question of my allowing or dis-allowing him. Without wasting more space it is enough to point out that you will now realise from the above that almost every statement in your report is inaccurate and at places concocted.

Apart from this passing incident I may mention here in general that it is well known that not only once or twice but on hundreds of occasions I had myself taken my brethren belonging to the Mahar or Chambhar or Bhangi castes along with Brahmins or Marathas or Vaishyas and conducted publicly Pan-Hindu worships in festivals- and even temples to the accompaniment of the chanting of the very Vaidic Mantras. During this very Ganpati Festival I visited the temple at Gaumdevi along with my 'Untouchable' brothers right up to the image and publicly congratulated Mr. Goregaokar and the other Trustees of the Temples in throwing them open to all Hindus alike.

Of course I preach and practice all this because I feel it my duty to remove Untouchability—a duty which I owe to humanity and Hindudom alike and not because I care to cater for the flatterings of the so-called Untouchables’ On the contrary, I hold that the ‘Untouchables’ in this respect are not altogether entitled to be looked upon as suffering saints. Because the Untouchables themselves are guilty of observing Untouchability towards others whom they consider lower to them according to their scale of superiority of caste. The fact is that both ‘Touchables’ and ‘Untouchables’ not only amongst the Hindus but even amongst the Moslem castes are guilty of this sin and the best way to remove this unjustifiable social curse is that all of us should admit a common responsibility and should try to cleanse ourselves of this sin in a repentent mood.”

ILLNESS OWING TO

Nearly 10,000 Hindus packed the premises of the wadi. Veer Savarkar was given a purse of Rs. 501 to be given to Hindu R. Nidhi. Prof. P. V. Kane Presided.

Veer Savarkar spoke on the 'Charges laid at the door of Mahasabha.' He spoke on 'communalism and nationalism' It was one of the most memorable speeches. The vast audience was rapt with enthusiasm on this Dasara Day.

Veer Savarkarji thundered, "O you! Hindus You are more than a match to any race, in the point of wealth, military potentialities and the staying out power. Your past is unparalleled.

Stand firm as a rock on the ancient foundation, of your 'Hindu-Rashtra' as Hindus and Hindu-Sanghatanists. You have so far dealt with your past national calamities very bravely and majestically too!

 Don't worship false Gods henceforth. If at all worst comes to worst face it as Hindus and even be effaced from the face of the earth as Hindus dropping last drop of blood as Hindus!

But be sure! that such an eventuality is not your fate! Take Courage in both of your hands!
 Dream the past and take a bold leap into the future and one day you will find this our land of Hindus reserved for Hindus alone on the map of the Earth as Germany is for Germans, or England for the English"—

●Remember this fund and contribute your mite especially at the time of religious observances and domestic festive occasions. ●May God teach Hindus readiness to sacrifice for Hindu society

contributions to the Fund for which an appeal was made by the Maharashtra Provincial Hindusabha. At Sangli they were taken in a huge procession amidst continuous showers of flowers. Ladies in groups from place to place waved the auspicious lights to greet Veer Savarkarji. A mammoth meeting of some twenty thousand people the like of which Sangli never witnessed was addressed by Veer Savarkarji. He was given a grand reception by the college students as well. At Miraj another meeting of some ten thousand persons the largest ever held at Miraj gave an address to Veer Savarkarji. On his return to Poona a grand reception was accorded to him. Sant Nerlekar showered one thousand Rupees on Veer Savarkarji as we shower flowers, when he greeted him. In the evening Veer Savarkarji addressed a meeting which broke the record even of meetings at Poona and which was attended by not less than thirtyfive thousand persons with one of his most stirring speeches. Out of the intended sum of two lacs of Rupees for which appeal was made to Maharashtra for its own Provincial Hindu Sabha, it was announced in the meeting that one lac of Rupees were already contributed in cash during that week.

AUGUST 1941

In the month of August Veer Savarkarji had interviews with Dr M. R. Jaykar, Bar. Jamnadasji Mehta, Mr. K. M. Munshi, Pandit Neelkanthdas leader of Orrisa, Divekar Shatri, Rt. Hon'ble V. V. Kalikar of Nagpur, Mr. Shankarrao Joshi from Karad and many other persons.

Mr. Morrison on behalf of 'March of Time' New York, America also called upon the President. Had a formal talk on the Hindu Mahasabha policy.

Owing to the prospective Ganesh festival in the last week of August, Veer Savarkarji was invited by numerous 'Ganesh mandals' in Bombay and outside. He could not go outside owing to the heavy work of the office. He could not also accept all invitations from Bombay. So he laid down two conditions for the acceptance of the invitation. One was about the actual aid to the 2 lacs Hindu Rashtriya Nidhi upto Rs. 100 at least. Secondly he
